Group Will Begin Hancock Quiz At Wheeling Sept. 6

WHEELING (AP) — The West Virginia Crime Commission, which has become the center of most of the excitement in the state election campaign, will hold its hearings on the Northern Panhandle next week, Sept. 6-10.

The place will be the circuit courtroom in the city-county building here.

Further details were lacking in the announcement by the commission's co-chairmen, Sen. Clarence E. Martin Jr. (D-Berkeley) and Del. J. C. Cruikshank (D-Clay).

All that was said about the matters to be taken up at the hearings was that they would be "relative to activities in the Northern Panhandle."

Unofficial reports, however, said that nearly 100 will be summoned during the probe, including Big Bill Lias, former owner of the Wheeling Downs race track and onetime gambler and bootlegger.

Others understood to have been subpenaed for appearances include Ohio County Prosecutor Thomas P. O'Brien; Wheeling Police Chief M. A. Baumann; President Hal T. Kain, Ohio County Board of Commissioners; Sheriff Warren Pugh; Councilman Edward Driehorst, pinball distributors and managers or officials of private clubs and tavern operators.

F. Dean Nichols, the commission's general counsel, last month had a look around in four district counties—Ohio, Hancock, Brooke and Marshall.

"This area is unique," he said then, "in that there are open violations of the liquor law and the gambling devices law—I mean the slot machines. The distribution of slot machines is made not only in public places, where the public might enter, but also in many social and civic clubs."

Nichols said that gambling and illegal liquor sales were found in all four counties.

He was the one who first indicated that public hearings would be held. "We want the people to see the situation for themselves," he said. "There is sufficient evidence of whisky and gambling law violations...to warrant a public hearing."

Sen. Martin reported before the last Crime Commission hearing in Charleston that the Northern Panhandle was on the agenda, but nothing further was said about it and only Greenbrier County was taken up.

It was during this hearing, the middle of week before last, that Gov. Underwood made his surprise appearance to denounce the members and some of their witnesses. This has given rise to one development after another ever since.

Just this past weekend State Sen. Howard W. Carson, a Democrat whose district includes Greenbrier County, called upon Adj. Gen. William E. Blake to resign because of his part in the Underwood appearance.

Blake told Cruikshank to be quiet when he tried to interrupt the governor. A few days later, after Carson had criticized him for this, Blake said all the members of the Legislature should be "ashamed . . . for perpetrating this hoax on the people of West Virginia."

Fire Destroys Fog-Shrouded Chester Home

$7,000 Damage Set When Blaze Leaves 5 In Family Homeless

Fire completely destroyed the home of a Chester family Sunday morning at 5:05, about two hours after they left to visit relatives in Cleveland. Loss was set at $7,000.

Chester firemen said the home of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Savors of Alpine Way was enveloped completely in flames by the time they arrived.

The blaze was discovered and reported by Raymond Register of Pan Ave. Because of the heavy fog, he first thought it was a brush fire.

After Register notified firemen, he went to investigate and found the home burning. He said he could hear the flames crackling and see the glow, but it was impossible to determine what was burning.

Isaac Lyle of Alpine Way, a neighbor, said he heard the fire siren but didn't realize the home next to him was burning until the fire trucks pulled up in front of his house. Lyle said the heat scorched flowers around his home.

The roof and walls had started caving in by the time firemen arrived. Mr. and Mrs. Savors and their three children had left at 3 a. m. to visit her parents, Mrs. George Evans of Cleveland.

The six-room frame home, which had a basement garage, was owned by Savors' parents, Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence Savors of Route 30, near Chester. Nothing was saved.

Firemen said the cause of the fire is not known, but that it apparently started in the kitchen. The loss on the home is insured, but the contents are only partially insured.

Savors, 25, is an employe of the Homer Laughlin China Co. He was notified of the fire in Cleveland yesterday and he and his wife returned to Chester late Sunday night. They left the children in Cleveland.

They plan to reside with relatives in the area. Fourteen firemen responded to the call.

Clues Hunted After Finding Of Girl's Body

Kidnaped Waitress Shot Through Head, Dumped Into Well

HERRIN, Ill. (AP) — A pretty waitress kidnaped by a blond gunman from a lover's lane four days ago was found dead in a well at an abandoned farm house Sunday. She had been shot through the head.

The FBI, which took over the investigation from local authorities, apparently was without a major lead toward the identity of the killer.

The kidnaper fled with Mary Lily Ellen Roberts, 17, in a green and white car after seriously wounding her fiance, John Bryant Jr., 20. The couple had been parked at a remote spot on Crab Orchard Lake in a wildlife refuge near Carbondale.

That was 18 miles southwest of the weed-choked farm where the body was found.

The FBI roped off the area, frequently used by picnickers, for a painstaking search for any articles the killer might have left. A spent cartridge and a blood-stained mattress found near the well were to be analyzed.

The body was brought out of the well in a wire basket after Police

John Cardinal O'Hara Dies At Hospital In Philadelphia

PHILADELPHIA (AP) — John Cardinal O'Hara, archbishop of Philadelphia and spiritual leader of 1,513,000 Roman Catholics, died Sunday at the age of 72.

The tall slender prelate, who received the red hat symbolic of his office in December 1958 from Pope John XXIII, succumbed at Misericordia Hospital. He had undergone surgery for peritonitis last Tuesday.

His death reduced to five the number of cardinals in the United States. They are Francis Cardinal Spellman of New York, Francis Cardinal McIntyre of Los Angeles, Richard Cardinal Cushing of Boston, Albert Cardinal Meyer of Chicago and Aloysius Cardinal Muench of Fargo, N.D.

All but Cardinal Muench, who is in Rome, are expected at the solemn pontifical Mass to be celebrated at the Cathedral of St. Peter and Paul.

The funeral service probably will be held on Labor Day, Sept. 5, an archdiocese spokesman said. The body will lie in state

Compromise Still Sought On Wage Bill

Conference Group Makes New Bid To Settle Differences

WASHINGTON (AP)—The congressional adjournment drive was keyed today to another attempt of a Senate-House conference committee to compromise a dispute over minimum wage legislation.

If prospects of an agreement appear hopeless, Democratic leaders are expected to call for a quick wind-up of the stormy, politics-ridden session that began after the national party conventions.

The Senate had on its hands a delayed, showdown vote on a compromise Social Security bill increasing federal grants to the states to help pay medical care costs of needy persons over 65.

Sen. Russell B. Long (D-La) kept the Senate in session into the early hours of Sunday morning with a marathon speech protesting that too many concessions to the House had been made on the bill.

He protested particularly the deletion of Senate amendments he had sponsored to provide added money for care of mentally ill and tubercular patients.

Also cut or eliminated in the Senate-House conference were Senate provisions to permit men to retire at 62 years of age and to increase the amount pensioners may earn without having their payments reduced.

Long's speech, which he denied was an attempt to filibuster, upset leadership plans to send the measure to the White House before the weekend. The House passed it Friday.

The bill liberalizes Social Security benefits somewhat, but its chief provision authorizes federal grants of about 200 million dollars a year initially to help pay medical expenses of persons on the old age assistance rolls or with incomes barely above that level.

Once it is acted on, the Senate planned to take up a catch-all appropriation bill carrying 190 million of 265 million dollars in additional foreign aid funds asked by President Eisenhower.

But the key issue remaining to be resolved before Congress adjourns is the minimum wage bill.

A bill passed by the Senate, sponsored by Democratic presidential candidate John F. Kennedy, would increase the present $1 wage floor to $1.25 in several steps and extend the protection of the wage-hour law to four million more workers.

Amman Radio Announces Death

Jordan Premier, 10 Others Killed As Two Time Bombs Rip Offices

LONDON (AP)—Premier Hazza Majali, 44, of Jordan was assassinated by a time bomb that exploded in his office, reports from Amman said today.

Ten persons were killed and 50 injured by this bomb and one set off in another Amman government office, unofficial reports said.

Majali's death was announced by Amman radio.

The radio said the announcement was made on orders of King Hussein.

Government authorities in Amman announced last March that security police had uncovered a plot to assassinate Majali along with Nasser Ben Jamil, an uncle of King Hussein.

At that time, the government announced a number of persons, who had arrived from the United Arab Republic by way of Lebanon, had been arrested in the plot.

In returning in 1959 as premier of Jordan—he had held the post briefly in 1955—Majali announced the Arab kingdom would steer clear of military pacts with the East or West.

One of his predecessors, Premier Ibrahim Hashem, was unseated in 1956 by rioting in Amman against his attempts to take Jordan into the anti-Communist Baghdad Pact.

Majali's policy of nonalliance was not enough to hold off criticism from the United Arab Republic of President Gamal Abdel Nasser. Nasser called him a stooge for the British.

Majali served as minister of agriculture in 1951 and as court minister in 1958 and 1959 before assuming the premiership.

Jordan and the U.A.R. have carried on a running propaganda feud by radio.

The U.A.R. openly called for the overthrow of King Hussein and Majali's government. Jordan in turn called Nasser a traitor to the Arabs.

French Ship Wrecks As It Nears Field

Some Rubber Rafts Are Seen But They Hold No Survivors

DAKAR, Senegal (AP) — A four-engine French airliner circling low for a landing plunged into the sea today and sank in 60 feet of water, carrying all 63 aboard to their deaths.

Air France officials said no survivors had been found more than eight hours after the crash and the eight crew members and 55 passengers must be presumed dead.

Some bodies have been found.

Radio operators at Dakar-Yoff Airport tracked the airliner as it crashed while circling over the Atlantic in its landing pattern.

The Superconstellation was on a flight from Paris to Abidjan, on west Africa's Ivory Coast. It carried 55 passengers and a crew of 8.

French naval craft and helicopters sent out from Dakar located the hull of the big plane resting on the sandy bottom of the ocean in about 60 feet of water.

A few rubber rafts floated on the surface but there were no signs of survivors.

The weather was cloudy and slightly overcast as the plane made a routine radio check-in preparatory to swinging into its landing pattern. It made two unsuccessful approaches and was circling for a third time when it disappeared from sight in a rain shower and went down.

Drive Planned In Signup For Fall's Election

Deadline's Sept. 28 For Registration For November Balloting

An intensive campaign to register some 2,000 unqualified East Liverpool voters before the presidential election is being launched by the County Election Board.

Frank R. O'Hanlon, clerk, said the deadline to register to vote is Sept. 28 at 9 p. m. East Liverpool is the only subdivision in the county where voter registration is required.

The city now has 10,369 registered voters, with 66 being added to the rolls since the May primaries, he said. The peak registration was for the 1940 presidential election, when there were 12,642 qualified.

O'Hanlon attributed the migration to the suburbs, particularly since World War II, as the chief reason for the decline in registrations.

Judging by the number of inquiries being received for absentee ballots, the clerk predicted a large vote at the Nov. 8 general election.

Unqualified voters can register at the board's office on W. 6th St. opposite City Hall from 9 a. m. to 4 p. m. on weekdays, and from 9 a. m. to noon on Saturdays, O'Hanlon explained.

To make it more convenient for voters, the board plans to establish branch registration offices in the East End, North Side and Pleasant Heights on Sept. 26-27, O'Hanlon said. The hours will be from 11 a. m. to 3 p. m. and from 5 to 10 p. m.

A new law permitting new residents of the state to vote for president and vice president only will become effective this year, O'Hanlon said. It relieves new residents from meeting the one year residence requirements.

Th new residents, will be permitted to vote for president and vice president if they are citizens, 21 on or before Election Day, Nov. 8, and resident of the state, county and precinct for 40 days.

New residents of the state should request a blank certified statement from the County Election Board where they now live.

The statement should be forwarded to the Election Board clerk or equivalent official in the former state of residence requesting he certify on the form the person was a qualified voter in the state immediately prior to moving to Ohio or would have been qualified to vote in the presidential election if he had remained in his former state.

When the statement is returned,

Troops Are Rushed

Warfare Threat Mounts In Congo

ELISABETHVILLE, the Congo (AP)—The threat of fighting along the Katanga border grew today. Congolese forces loyal to Premier Patrice Lumumba were reported within 20 miles of the rich secessionist province.

Katanga's rebel Premier Moise Tshombe rushed troops to the northern frontier and prepared to fly to the front himself to rally his men against invasion.

"My troops want to see me and I want to see them to show them I am still in charge in Katanga," declared Tshombe, who has proclaimed his province independent of Lumumba's central government.

Tshombe's military commanders said their forces had blown up rail bridges and mined the few roads leading south from Kasai province into Katanga.

A Katanga army spokesman placed Congolese troops in Luputa, an agricultural center about 20 miles from the frontier, but said patrols were probably probing border defenses.

The Congolese were part of a force Lumumba flew into Kasai province last week. They landed at Luluabourg, capital of Kasai, and some moved east to capture Bakwanga, capital of the so-called "mineral state" whose local tribal leader, Albert Kalonji, has lined up with Tshombe and wants to unite his territory with Katanga.

Others of Lumumba's troops reportedly swung south to Luputa, and the Katanga army spokesman said there was another force in Mwene Ditu. He said their movement would signal the start of an invasion. But it was believed the units in Luputa and Mwene Ditu numbered only several hundred men in all.

Tshombe's army is estimated at 1,100 men. The rebellious premier also is counting on the support of Baluba tribesmen in both Katanga and Sasai provinces in the event fighting breaks out.

Tshombe vowed that he would stay with his troops and criticized Kalonji for not remaining with his people in Bakwanga. Kalonji was in Elisabethville seeking military help when his capital was taken Saturday.

The Belgians were reported trying to effect the withdrawal of the last of their 950 troops in Katanga by Tuesday, the deadline set by the United Nations for them to get out. About 600 technicians will be left behind to maintain the big Kamina base until army equipment there can be moved.

In Leopoldville, the United States drafted a stiff protest to the Lumumba government for an attack on eight American airmen by Congolese troops. But up to Sunday night U.S. Ambassador Clare H. Timberlake had been unable to find Foreign Minister Justin Bomboko to deliver it.

Strong Protest Made

Bunche Says U.N. Troops Saved 8 American Fliers

LEOPOLDVILLE, the Congo (AP)—Dr. Ralph J. Bunche said today only the intervention of United Nations Ethiopian troops saved eight American airmen and two Canadians brutally attacked by Congolese at Stanleyville airport Saturday.

The 10 men "had the hell beaten out of them and are lucky to be alive," said Bunche, the U.N. undersecretary, who has protested the attack strongly to Premier Patrice Lumumba's government.

"These men had a brutal beating—a terrific beating," Bunche said. "They live today only because of the intervention of the Ethiopian U.N. troops. They are still under shock and need great care."

Bunche made his statement to a group of photographers who asked permission to take pictures of his visit to the wounded men in the modernistic hospital at Louvainium University about 15 miles outside Leopoldville.

Bunche spent half an hour talking with all the wounded men. With him were Andrew Cordier, executive assistant to Secretary-General Dag Hammarskjold who arrived in Leopoldville Sunday, and Swedish Maj. Gen. Carl von Horn, commander of U.N. forces in the Congo.

A U.S. Air Force officer told The Associated Press the condition of all the injured men is good medically and that "there is no danger of loss of life."

American officers at the hospital declined to give detailed physical reports on individual

Cuba Walkout Marks End Of OAS Meeting

Foreign Ministers Condemn Drives By Russia, Red China

SAN JOSE, Costa Rica (AP)—The meeting of foreign ministers of the Organization of American States drew to a close today after condemning the campaign of the Soviet and Chinese Communists to use Cuba as a willing springboard into the Americas.

The conference by a 19-1 vote Sunday night also rejected a Cuban resolution calling on the United States to refrain from aggressive acts against Fidel Castro's regime.

When the ministers also turned down a Venezuelan proposal to water down the anti-Communist "declaration of San Jose," Foreign Minister Raul Roa and the rest of the Cuban delegation walked out of the conference and packed for home.

It was the second walkout of the two-week conference. The delegation from the Dominican Republic quit the meeting Aug. 20 after the other ministers found Generalissimo Rafael Trujillo's regime guilty of plotting to assassinate Venezuelan President Romulo Betancourt and voted political and economic sanctions against the Dominican Republic.

"Two dictators gone—one from the left, one from the right," one diplomat remarked after the Cuban walkout.

But he and others wondered about the effects on the 70-year-old inter-American system. Some felt the ministers' tough action would restore public faith in the system. Others feared it set an unhealthy precedent for the American family of republics.

With the United States pressing for a firm line against the Communist threat to the hemisphere, the ministers compromised only to the extent of omitting specific mention of Cuba from their declaration of San Jose. But their opposition to Castro's friendship for the Soviet and the Chinese and to his defiant rejection of the OAS was clear.

The ministers in their declaration said they "energetically condemn intervention or the menace of intervention . . . by an extracontinental power in the affairs of the continent or its acceptance by an American state."

This referred to Soviet Premier Nikita Khrushchev's threat to use rockets to defend Cuba if she were attacked by the United States and the Castro regime's acceptance of such help.

In another obvious slap at Cuba, the ministers said they "reject the aim of Sino-Soviet powers to

Top Humidity Matches Rise For Mercury

With high humidity adding to the discomfort, the mercury is scheduled to climb to a high of near 90 this afternoon in Eastern Ohio.

But the weatherman said scattered showers due this afternoon and tonight may bring more comfortable readings by Tuesday. Tomorrow should be partly cloudy and cooler, he promised.

The forecast calls for partly cloudy, warm and humid weather today, with a high of 85-90. Tonight's low will be 65-70.

Unusually hot and humid weather sent thousands of district residents to parks and pools in search of relief Sunday afternoon. The mercury hit a high of 89 at 5 p. m., according to the thermometer at Dam 8, near Newell.

The uncomfortable temperature range prevailed all day and it was near midnight before the mercury dropped into the range that made it comparatively pleasant for sleeping.

At 9 yesterday morning, Dam 8 registered 76 degrees. By noon, the mercury had climbed to 85 and at 3 p. m. it stood at 88. The overnight low was 73.

Hancock's Grand Jury Will Convene Sept. 13

The Hancock County Grand Jury will convene for its fall session Sept. 13 at 10 a. m. in New Cumberland.

Atty. Frank A. Pietranton of Weirton will present information asking for indictments for his final time as county prosecutor.

He was defeated by Atty. Floyd R. Tarr of Weirton in the May 10 primary in a bid for his third consecutive term as prosecuting attorney. Atty. Tarr (D) will oppose Atty. A. J. Rosenshine (R) for the post in the Nov. 8 general election.

During the April session, the Grand Jury set a new record in returning 53 indictments.

The kidnaper fled with Mary Lily Ellen Roberts, 17, in a green and white car after seriously wounding her fiance, John Bryant Jr., 20. The couple had been parked at a remote spot on Crab Orchard Lake in a wildlife refuge near Carbondale.

That was 18 miles southwest of the weed-choked farm where the body was found.

The FBI roped off the area, frequently used by picnickers, for a painstaking search for any articles the killer might have left. A spent cartridge and a blood-stained mattress found near the well were to be analyzed.

The body was brought out of the well in a wire basket after Police

John Cardinal O'Hara Dies At Hospital In Philadelphia

PHILADELPHIA (AP) — John Cardinal O'Hara, archbishop of Philadelphia and spiritual leader of 1,513,000 Roman Catholics, died Sunday at the age of 72.

The tall slender prelate, who received the red hat symbolic of his office in December 1958 from Pope John XXIII, succumbed at Misericordia Hospital. He had undergone surgery for peritonitis last Tuesday.

His death reduced to five the number of cardinals in the United States. They are Francis Cardinal Spellman of New York, Francis Cardinal McIntyre of Los Angeles, Richard Cardinal Cushing of Boston, Albert Cardinal Meyer of Chicago and Aloysius Cardinal Muench of Fargo, N.D.

All but Cardinal Muench, who is in Rome, are expected at the solemn pontifical Mass to be celebrated at the Cathedral of St. Peter and Paul.

The funeral service probably will be held on Labor Day, Sept. 5, an archdiocese spokesman said. The body will lie in state

Drive Planned In Signup For Fall's Election

Deadline's Sept. 28 For Registration For November Balloting

An intensive campaign to register some 2,000 unqualified East Liverpool voters before the presidential election is being launched by the County Election Board.

Frank R. O'Hanlon, clerk, said the deadline to register to vote is Sept. 28 at 9 p. m. East Liverpool is the only subdivision in the county where voter registration is required.

The city now has 10,369 registered voters, with 66 being added to the rolls since the May primaries, he said. The peak registration was for the 1940 presidential election, when there were 12,642 qualified.

O'Hanlon attributed the migration to the suburbs, particularly since World War II, as the chief reason for the decline in registrations.

Judging by the number of inquiries being received for absentee ballots, the clerk predicted a large vote at the Nov. 8 general election.

Unqualified voters can register at the board's office on W. 6th St. opposite City Hall from 9 a. m. to 4 p. m. on weekdays, and from 9 a. m. to noon on Saturdays, O'Hanlon explained.

To make it more convenient for voters, the board plans to establish branch registration offices in the East End, North Side and Pleasant Heights on Sept. 26-27, O'Hanlon said. The hours will be from 11 a. m. to 3 p. m. and from 5 to 10 p. m.

A new law permitting new residents of the state to vote for president and vice president only will become effective this year, O'Hanlon said. It relieves new residents from meeting the one year residence requirements.

Th new residents, will be permitted to vote for president and vice president if they are citizens, 21 on or before Election Day, Nov. 8, and resident of the state, county and precinct for 40 days.

New residents of the state should request a blank certified statement from the County Election Board where they now live.

The statement should be forwarded to the Election Board clerk or equivalent official in the former state of residence requesting he certify on the form the person was a qualified voter in the state immediately prior to moving to Ohio or would have been qualified to vote in the presidential election if he had remained in his former state.

When the statement is returned,

Troops Are Rushed

Warfare Threat Mounts In Congo

ELISABETHVILLE, the Congo (AP)—The threat of fighting along the Katanga border grew today. Congolese forces loyal to Premier Patrice Lumumba were reported within 20 miles of the rich secessionist province.

Katanga's rebel Premier Moise Tshombe rushed troops to the northern frontier and prepared to fly to the front himself to rally his men against invasion.

"My troops want to see me and I want to see them to show them I am still in charge in Katanga," declared Tshombe, who has proclaimed his province independent of Lumumba's central government.

Tshombe's military commanders said their forces had blown up rail bridges and mined the few roads leading south from Kasai province into Katanga.

A Katanga army spokesman placed Congolese troops in Luputa, an agricultural center about 20 miles from the frontier, but said patrols were probably probing border defenses.

The Congolese were part of a force Lumumba flew into Kasai province last week. They landed at Luluabourg, capital of Kasai, and some moved east to capture Bakwanga, capital of the so-called "mineral state" whose local tribal leader, Albert Kalonji, has lined up with Tshombe and wants to unite his territory with Katanga.

Others of Lumumba's troops reportedly swung south to Luputa, and the Katanga army spokesman said there was another force in Mwene Ditu. He said their movement would signal the start of an invasion. But it was believed the units in Luputa and Mwene Ditu numbered only several hundred men in all.

Tshombe's army is estimated at 1,100 men. The rebellious premier also is counting on the support of Baluba tribesmen in both Katanga and Sasai provinces in the event fighting breaks out.

Tshombe vowed that he would stay with his troops and criticized Kalonji for not remaining with his people in Bakwanga. Kalonji was in Elisabethville seeking military help when his capital was taken Saturday.

The Belgians were reported trying to effect the withdrawal of the last of their 950 troops in Katanga by Tuesday, the deadline set by the United Nations for them to get out. About 600 technicians will be left behind to maintain the big Kamina base until army equipment there can be moved.

In Leopoldville, the United States drafted a stiff protest to the Lumumba government for an attack on eight American airmen by Congolese troops. But up to Sunday night U.S. Ambassador Clare H. Timberlake had been unable to find Foreign Minister Justin Bomboko to deliver it.

Strong Protest Made

Bunche Says U.N. Troops Saved 8 American Fliers

LEOPOLDVILLE, the Congo (AP)—Dr. Ralph J. Bunche said today only the intervention of United Nations Ethiopian troops saved eight American airmen and two Canadians brutally attacked by Congolese at Stanleyville airport Saturday.

The 10 men "had the hell beaten out of them and are lucky to be alive," said Bunche, the U.N. undersecretary, who has protested the attack strongly to Premier Patrice Lumumba's government.

"These men had a brutal beating—a terrific beating," Bunche said. "They live today only because of the intervention of the Ethiopian U.N. troops. They are still under shock and need great care."

Bunche made his statement to a group of photographers who asked permission to take pictures of his visit to the wounded men in the modernistic hospital at Louvainium University about 15 miles outside Leopoldville.

Bunche spent half an hour talking with all the wounded men. With him were Andrew Cordier, executive assistant to Secretary-General Dag Hammarskjold who arrived in Leopoldville Sunday, and Swedish Maj. Gen. Carl von Horn, commander of U.N. forces in the Congo.

A U.S. Air Force officer told The Associated Press the condition of all the injured men is good medicelly and that "there is no danger of loss of life."

American officers at the hospital declined to give detailed physical reports on individual

Foreign Ministers Condemn Drives By Russia, Red China

SAN JOSE, Costa Rica (AP)—The meeting of foreign ministers of the Organization of American States drew to a close today after condemning the campaign of the Soviet and Chinese Communists to use Cuba as a willing springboard into the Americas.

The conference by a 19-1 vote Sunday night also rejected a Cuban resolution calling on the United States to refrain from aggressive acts against Fidel Castro's regime.

When the ministers also turned down a Venezuelan proposal to water down the anti-Communist "declaration of San Jose," Foreign Minister Raul Roa and the rest of the Cuban delegation walked out of the conference and packed for home.

It was the second walkout of the two-week conference. The delegation from the Dominican Republic quit the meeting Aug. 20 after the other ministers found Generalissimo Rafael Trujillo's regime guilty of plotting to assassinate Venezuelan President Romulo Betancourt and voted political and economic sanctions against the Dominican Republic.

"Two dictators gone—one from the left, one from the right," one diplomat remarked after the Cuban walkout.

But he and others wondered about the effects on the 70-year-old inter-American system. Some felt the ministers' tough action would restore public faith in the system. Others feared it set an unhealthy precedent for the American family of republics.

With the United States pressing for a firm line against the Communist threat to the hemisphere, the ministers compromised only to the extent of omitting specific mention of Cuba from their declaration of San Jose. But their opposition to Castro's friendship for the Soviet and the Chinese and to his defiant rejection of the OAS was clear.

The ministers in their declaration said they "energetically condemn intervention or the menace of intervention . . . by an extra-continental power in the affairs of the continent or its acceptance by an American state."

This referred to Soviet Premier Nikita Khrushchev's threat to use rockets to defend Cuba if she were attacked by the United States and the Castro regime's acceptance of such help.

In another obvious slap at Cuba, the ministers said they "reject the aim of Sino-Soviet powers to

Top Humidity Matches Rise For Mercury

With high humidity adding to the discomfort, the mercury is scheduled to climb to a high of near 90 this afternoon in Eastern Ohio.

But the weatherman said scattered showers due this afternoon and tonight may bring more comfortable readings by Tuesday. Tomorrow should be partly cloudy and cooler, he promised.

The forecast calls for partly cloudy, warm and humid weather today, with a high of 85-90. Tonight's low will be 65-70.

Unusually hot and humid weather sent thousands of district residents to parks and pools in search of relief Sunday afternoon. The mercury hit a high of 89 at 5 p. m., according to the thermometer at Dam 8, near Newell.

The uncomfortable temperature range prevailed all day and it was near midnight before the mercury dropped into the range that made it comparatively pleasant for sleeping.

At 9 yesterday morning, Dam 8 registered 76 degrees. By noon, the mercury had climbed to 85 and at 3 p. m. it stood at 88. The overnight low was 73.

Hancock's Grand Jury Will Convene Sept. 13

The Hancock County Grand Jury will convene for its fall session Sept. 13 at 10 a. m. in New Cumberland.

Atty. Frank A. Pietranton of Weirton will present information asking for indictments for his final time as county prosecutor.

He was defeated by Atty. Floyd R. Tarr of Weirton in the May 10 primary in a bid for his third consecutive term as prosecuting attorney. Atty. Tarr (D) will oppose Atty. A. J. Rosenshine (R) for the post in the Nov. 8 general election.

During the April session, the Grand Jury set a new record in returning 53 indictments.

Beaver Seeks Man's Slayer

ROCHESTER — Police and Beaver County authorities intensified a search today for the slayer of a 35-year-old odd jobs man whose badly beaten body was found Saturday night near the Pennsylvania Railroad Co. station here.

Dr. John Colavinzeno, county coroner, identified the victim as Paul Russell of Monaca R. D. 1.

Blows from a heavy instrument smashed Russell's skull both in front and back, he said.

Dr. Colavinzeno said Russell was carrying about $30 when he left McCracken's Lake, where he was employed, but his pockets were empty when the body was found.

The coroner ruled the death a homicide and said police are searching the borough's "skid row" district for suspects.

The investigation was hampered for hours while authorities sought to establish the identity of the slain man. The railway station is on the fringe of the downtown area near the Ohio River.

Castro May Be Prisoner Of Hate

It may never be known whether Fidel Castro betrayed his Cuban revolution deliberately or accidentally.

The United States, where complex problems always are oversimplified, to make them easier to understand than they actually are, finds it easy to believe he betrayed his followers deliberately when he led them into Russian intervention and the international Communist Conspiracy.

That is now clearly the effect of what he did. It has been so stated in the current meeting of the Organization of American States. It has been set forth in detail by Allen W. Dulles, chief of the Central Intelligence Agency. Cuba has been turned into a New World base for the Communist Conspiracy.

But it is not certain by any means that the United States has understood the means by which the Kremlin brought off this disagreeable stroke of mischief in the New World.

FOREIGN MINISTER Julio Cesar Turbay Ayala of Colombia offered a more sophisticated explanation in his address to the OAS conference of foreign ministers in San Jose, Costa Rica.

"It has been easy for the Soviet Union to make use of the Cuban situation," he said, "because both governments maintain a marked anti-North American attitude and because in a Cuba that believes itself to be threatened, the political and military protection of Russia is unquestionably able to exercise a fascinating influence upon the young leaders who personify the Cuban revolution."

Nothing is so incredible to citizens of the United States as reminders that they are not loved and their government is not admired. Whenever this disquieting word is heard, it comes as a shock, just as it is a shock to be reminded that in Latin America the possibility of U.S. intervention still is credible.

The Castro brothers are bitterly anti-United States. This has been their prime talking point, especially since they learned early in 1559 that many citizens of this country were not reconciled to their overthrow of the Batista dictatorship and intended to thwart them in every way possible because Batista had been opposed to Russia.

IT IS EASY to understand why the Castros' dislike of the United States might have been redoubled by the discovery that they were regarded by U.S. critics as Communist-backed adventurers who had overthrown an admirable dictator. Latin Americans knew vastly more about the Batista regime than North Americans learned as tourists when they visited Havana. They did not regard Batista as admirable. They admired Fidel Castro for running him out.

If Castro progressed from hatred for the United States to friendship for the chief U.S. antagonist in the cold war, the transition would be no puzzle to a psychologist.

It happens every time a human being allies himself with a movement that promises to hurt the thing he dislikes—not because he likes the movement but because he intensely dislikes its opponent. That happens in U.S. politics every time there's an election.

Fidel Castro may have become the prisoner of his hate. If some of the chains that now hold him in bondage were forged by brother Raul, who never professed to be anything but a sympathizer with Communism, it wouldn't be the first time a brother has betrayed a brother, either.

Filling A Need

Much favorable comment is being directed at the new Meditation Room of East Liverpool City Hospital.

The room, provided through the efforts of the Women's Auxiliary, has met an important need.

It is serving, as representatives of three faiths brought out during recent dedication ceremonies, as a "perpetual light, shedding warmth and inspiration to all seeking peace of mind and soul".

End Of A Great Experiment

Except for one good-natured jibe at Congress for taking so much time to pass so few laws, President Eisenhower has stuck to his resolution of eight years ago to treat the legislative branch of the federal government with respect.

The resolution was his reaction from 20 years of executive belittling and berating of Congress by Presidents Roosevelt and Truman. When he voiced it, public enthusiasm was spontaneous.

Congress always has been the favorite whipping boy of U.S. politics. It has been as though critics despised what they saw of themselves in the mirror held up to the body politic.

Criticism had reached a crescendo in the Roosevelt and Truman administrations. Even Americans who saw room for improvement in the House and Senate had misgivings about the persistent downgrading of representatives and senators by the chief executive.

HISTORICALLY, the balance of power created by the Constitution has been maintained by an ebb and flow of prestige that kept any one branch of government from riding roughshod over any other branch. The judicial, the executive and legislative branches vied with one another.

But under Presidents Roosevelt and Truman, the vying had turned into internecine warfare. The combatants were not struggling for the upper hand but for the kill—and one combatant had been on top so long the other two were desperate.

Dwight Eisenhower made some promises he couldn't keep. He made some promises that were unrealistic. But when he said eight years ago he would treat Congress as a coequal branch of the government if he were elected and would put a halt to the systematic abuse of its prestige carried on by his predecessors he meant it. He has kept his promise.

Congress will adjourn sine die in a few days after a performance that has not been easy to admire. Its majority leaders have abused their prerogatives and the country's patience by holding an unnecessary session. Through no fault of its own, Congress is not currently in high repute. It has been used cynically as a backdrop for a bit of political byplay that has been embarrassing to everybody concerned. Sen. Lyndon G. Johnson of Texas, who arranged it with his Texas friend, Rep. Sam Rayburn, speaker of the House of Representatives, must have apologized by this time to his running mate on the Democratic ticket for the damage done in advertently to the Kennedy campaign.

EVEN IN THE face of special provocation, President Eisenhower has not teed off on Congress in the four Congresses of his two terms. He has been faithful to his promise never to abuse representatives and senators.

He has finished the experiment he started when he entered the White House—to see whether government would run better in the United States if its component branches respected one another.

When it is considered that sniping between the branches had gone as far as it could go without a disaster before the Eisenhower administration began, with rumblings of court-packing, legislative limitations on future presidential terms and even of impeachment, the experiment must be called a success.

The Once Over

By H. I. Phillips

Dogs in the Russian spaceship were declared in perfect shape, none the worse for the 437,500-mile tour. But our guess is that the pooches' answer would be, "That's what you think!"

"Want to go for a nice orbit?" is enough to send most dogs under the bed. "Come here, Fido, master wants to put on your outer-space equipment," is equally disconcerting.

Strelka and Belka, Soviet pooches, if they could speak plainly would say: "Science is wonderful and you can have it.

"All we know is that after the experience no dog would sit up and beg for another orbit. It had us crazy coming and going. Tass says we are in great shape and didn't mind it, but if we had a subscription to it we would cancel it fast."

Any dog knows when he is out of his element and in no place where he can fetch slippers, chase mailmen, answer a boy's whistle or chew up a rug. Two hundred miles above the earth is no place for friendly pats, affectionate glances and a meat bone.

Strelka and Belka were probably as startled as a pair of dog-track hounds would be if they suddenly found the rabbit was chasing them!

They were, we suspect, too terrorized to scratch fleas. (Of course there is the possibility the fleas were too dazed to bite. The scientists covered everything but the question of how a flea reacts to outer space. Maybe the best way for dogs to get rid of fleas is by orbit?)

As a dog owner for many years, we can't be convinced that Fido isn't pretty sick by the time all the electrodes attaching him to the spaceship communications system are in place, to say nothing of his first peek at gadgets for automatic feeding and appearance on a sort of "Meet The Dog" TV program.

We imagine an interview with Strelka or Belka would include:

Q: Did you enjoy it?

A: Certainly not. I was told I was going on a peace mission.

Q: Didn't you growl or bark at the spaceship men?

A: Yes, but they vetoed my bark and said one more growl would make me an aggressor!

Khrushchev says he would like to head the Soviet delegation to the U.N. September session. Nikita, who busted up the Paris Summit meeting and said he was through with the United States, would visit us again on his own invitation and provide a summit on the edge of the East River, delivering his threats and insults on the front doorsteps.

His card now reads "Abuse manufactured and delivered anywhere." You can't beat Nikita for iron gall, versatility, and strange ideas of showmanship.

It could be too great a strain to expect American people to behold calmly the top defamer of Uncle Sam parading daily to the U.N. skyscraper all charged up with fresh insults and nose-thumbings. It's like asking the spider to play a return visit to Little Miss Muffet and for grandma to welcome an encore by the wolf.

Not What The Doctor Ordered

Questions, Answers On Holiday Safety

By George C. Stewart

(Mr. Stewart, executive vice president of the National Safety Council, wrote the following article for The Associated Press.)

Almost everywhere I go, people ask me about the holiday traffic tolls. The questions asked most frequently, and my answers, are as follows:

Q. Why does the National Safety Council concentrate so heavily on holiday accidents?

A. It doesn't. The Council works every day of the year to prevent accidents of all kinds. But we do place special emphasis on the holiday traffic tolls because of the extra danger during holiday periods.

A. So there really is extra danger on the highway during a holiday period?

A. Absolutely.

Q. How do you know?

A. EVERY BIT of evidence we have been able to dig up points to it. For one thing, the Associated Press makes a dry run on the holiday traffic compilation two weeks before each major holiday. It compiles the traffic death toll across the nation exactly as it will do two weeks later—the same number of hours, the same days of the week as the actual holiday period. With only one exception, the actual holiday traffic death tolls have never failed to exceed the toll on the comparable non-holiday period of two weeks hence.

Q. By how much?

A. By an average of 27 per cent over the last five years.

Q. How do you explain this higher holiday toll?

A. More travel, more danger, more accidents. It's just that simple.

Q. I have read or heard somewhere that the holiday tolls actually aren't as big as they appear to be. Isn't it a fact that a certain number of people would die anyway, whether it was a holiday or not?

A. Certainly — but not as many, as I have tried to show above.

Q. HOW DOES the National Safety Council keep tab on all these holiday traffic deaths, hour by hour?

A. It doesn't. Compilations are made by the two nationwide press associations, through their state and local correspondents and bureaus across the country.

Q. Then how does the Council fit into the holiday toll picture so importantly?

A. The Council compares the hourly traffic death figures compiled by the press associations with the toll at the same hour on preceding holidays, and reports on whether the toll is running ahead or behind the previous toll, and by how much. It also issues frequent warnings aimed at the traffic situation which prevails at that moment.

Q. Doesn't it also issue pre-holiday predictions as to how many people will be killed on the highways over the holiday period?

A. Correction, please. Not how many people will be killed, but how many people may be killed unless the extra holiday danger is met with extra care. The Council has never said so many people will or must be killed, for the reason that they needn't be killed if enough people drive the way they should.

Q. But you do try to come as close as you can to predicting the actual toll, don't you?

A. On the contrary, the Council is the one forecaster who hopes and prays his forecast will be 100 per cent wrong. We would be the happiest people on earth if we estimated traffic deaths over a holiday might total 400, for example, and no one was killed.

. BUT ISN'T it a fact that your forecasts have been amazingly accurate?

A. No. As a matter of fact, our pre-holiday estimates have been consistently wide of the mark. This is natural, of course, since we are basing our estimates on what could happen mathematically, and human behavior doesn't follow any such pattern.

Q. Just how far do you miss it?

A. Since we began our holiday campaigns in 1946, we have missed the actual traffic death tolls over 70 major holidays in 14 years by an average of 41—or 12 per cent.

Q. I don't understand.

A. Well, our estimates have varied by as much as 109 under the actual toll to 130 above the actual toll. On the other hand, some of our estimates have been tragically close. But the average over the 70 holidays has been a difference of 41 deaths between our pre-holiday estimate and the actual toll.

Q. Do you have any feeling that your pre-holiday estimates may frighten drivers so that actually they become susceptible to an accident?

A. No, we don't feel that way. On the contrary, we believe our warnings alert drivers to the extra holiday danger and thus make them more cautious. We certainly don't want to scare anyone, but we firmly believe caution and concern help prevent accidents — on holidays or at any other time.

Q. DO YOU ruge people to stay home over the holidays — or at least to stay off the road?

A. Never. We don't believe that is the way to hold down the traffic toll. Holidays are natural and inevitable periods of family reunions and outings. People will and should travel. We only want them to do it safely — to compensate for the extra travel with extra care.

Q. What else do you do in your holiday safety campaigns besides issue pre-holiday estimates of the traffic toll?

A. We contact the governor of every state, the mayors of the larger cities, traffic officers and other public officials, urging them to step up their traffic safety efforts immediately before and during the holiday period. We issue specific traffic safety hints to drivers and pedestrians through the press, radio-TV and other media.

We also issue safety hints on swimming, fireworks and other holiday activities. We work actively with other nationwide groups in these holiday campaigns—with the churches, for example, at Christmas time, and with organized labor over Labor Day. We concentrate in our holiday campaigns on the drinking-driving problem. For instance, for the last two years we have encouraged business and industry to dry up Christmas office parties, since our studies show early hours of a holiday period are peak danger hours on the highway —due partly, we believe, to drinking.

Q. Do you think all this does any good?

A. We certainly do. It is our conviction that the thousands of safety stories and warnings which reach the public by radio, television and newspaper throughout the holiday periods can't help but prevent accidents.

The media do a magnificent job of focusing public attention on the need for extra care over the holidays, and in fact throughout the year. I'd hate to think of what the toll would be if all this should stop.

Airitating Remarks

By Hal Boyle

NEW YORK — Remarks that an airline hostess gets tired of hearing:

"Well, looky who's here—the little sister of the Wright brothers!"

"Wake me up when we get to Los Angeles. If we don't get there, don't bother."

"In the old days the hostesses had to be nurses. Now, if you hand 'em a crying baby, they don't know which end to hold up."

"My miss, I don't see how you whipped up a diinner for 87 people so quick in such a tiny kitchen. Why, it would take me a week."

"If that's the pilot, I've changed my mind. I believe I'll take some insurance after all."

"This is my very first flight. Where is my parachute?"

"Would you please tell the driver to take another road? This one's getting awful bumpy."

"THIS COFFEE'S pretty lukewarm. Do you mind running it through the carburetor just once more?"

"Miss, I hate to keep making a nuisance of myself, but I still say that engine out theres' on fire. Can't you see the sparks?"

"I know you gals get a lot of proposals, but I got a three-day layover in Chicago, and I'd love to show you the town."

"Junior gave me his word he wouldn't touch a thing—if you'd just let him sit in the pilot's lap a while."

"Personally, I think the girls on American are the prettiest, the girls on United the most obliging, the girls on Pan American the most cheerful, and the girls on this line are — oh, well, I get off at Toledo, so forget it."

"Look, honey, way up here at 30,000 feet how's the government going to know if you poured me a third double bourbon?"

"Flying is so exciting. You never know what city they're going to send your baggage to."

"No, I don't want a cookie. I don't want anything to drink, and I don't want any chewing gum. Thanks for waking me up anyhow. It only took me four hours to doze off."

"NAW, KID, this storm don't bother me. Why, when we were flying the hump back in the big one, with the ack-ack coughing all around us, and those bloody Jap zeros zooming at us from 9 o'clock . . . .oo-oo-oops, would you excuse me a minute?"

"Those resst room signs are just Greek to me, ma'am. I got thrown out of the one marked "femmes.' Is it safe for me to go into the one marked 'hommes'?"

"All I can say is, if God wanted men to fly, he'd have given him feathers in the first place."

"I wouldn't pinch her if I were you, Joe. I hear she's secretly married to the co-pilot."

"What do you mean Boston is fogged in and we'll have to go on to Newark? I made my reservations for Boston weeks ago."

"Do you sell postcards?"

"Honey, if you ever get stranded in Dallas, call me up. With your looks and my credit card we could have a real gasser."

"Hey, waitress, can I have another cup of Java?"

"Planes have it all over trains in one way, baby doll. I never in my life felt like kissing the conductor."

Odd Facts

The social life of a termite is remarkable. It is found in great numbers in tropical countries, and some species build mounds from 10 to 20 feet high, which are divided into nurseries, storerooms, and living quarters. In the center is a cell in which the king and queen of the termites are kept imprisoned. The queen lays many thousand eggs, which are carried away and cared for by the workers.

More than 800 different kinds of trees grow in the forest lands of the United States.

Men Of Decision

By James Marlow

Kennedy, Nixon Keep Hammering On A Point

WASHINGTON — Vice President Richard M. Nixon and Sen. John F. Kennedy have one common campaign theme — that each is the man to lead the country for the next four years.

Neither has had actual experience in the presidency. So the voters will have to guess which might be better at leading the nation.

Nevertheless, listen to what the two men said in their acceptance speeches—and they've kept banging away at it ever since.

Kennedy: "It is time, in short, for a new generation of leadership—new men to cope with new problems and new opportunities."

Nixon: "It will indeed take great leadership to steer us through these years (ahead)."

Both candidates stress the importance of decision-making by the next occupant of the White House. Still, neither has ever made, or had to make a national decision. But listen to their acceptance speeches.

Kennedy: "I believe the times demand invention, innovation, imagination, decision."

Nixon: "Formidable as will be the diplomatic and military problems confronting the next president, far more difficult and critical will be the decisions he must make."

Kennedy, a member of Congress since 1946, hasn't been in a position to make any national decisions himself. But there was the possibility that Nixon, as vice president, might have done so.

But President Eisenhower said no to that last week. He said he alone has made the decisions since becoming president. He did say he considered Nixon a trusted adviser.

Asked if he could cite one major Nixon idea he had adopted, Eisenhower said: "If you give me a week, I might think of one. I can't remember."

Nixon keeps beating away at one thing Kennedy can't deny although the Massachusetts senator might ask: What does it prove? That is that Nixon has had more experience than Kennedy.

Nixon, as vice president, has worn two hats, presiding over the Senate and sitting in on meetings of the Cabinet and the National Security Council. Also, as a representative of Eisenhower, he has traveled abroad a lot.

On TV last Thursday night, when he was asked to explain the difference between himself and Kennedy, Nixon said "there is, first, the difference in our experience."

Friday at Birmingham, Ala., Nixon was at it again. He said "the overriding issue is—which candidate by experience, temperament, and background is best qualified to keep the peace without surrender."

To offset this, Kennedy has been trying to put across the idea the Nixon-Eisenhower years were a mess.

The leadership Kennedy has asserted since becoming a presidential candidate—by trying to get the heavily Democratic Congress to pass legislation promised in the Democratic platform—didn't get very far.

His biggest defeat was on the medical care bill when 19 of his own Democrats teamed up with the Republicans to beat him down.

But the only leadership Nixon asserted since becoming a presidential candidate—in trying to get Congress to pass the kind of medical care bill he wanted — also landed on its face.

The Republicans stuck with him but the more numerous Democrats said no.

Close Race In Ohio

By Raymond Moley

Nixon strategists, including the vice president himself, are wise in discounting the early polls showing an advantage for the Republican presidential ticket over the Kennedy-Johnson combination.

In evaluating any presidential campaign in terms of relative advantage, no general countrywide poll can be reliable.

Presidents are elected by the electoral votes of states. And certain states will be the decisive elements in determining the outcome in November.

For that reason, in my comments I shall present a number of reports, based upon on-the-scene observations.

The following is a report by Raymond Moley Jr., who discussed the Ohio situation with Republican State Chairman Ray Bliss and other members of Bliss' organization in Columbus.

It should be added here that Ohio is a good place to start such evaluations. It was long regarded as a state which almost always went with the successful candidate in a presidential election; in short, one of those things called by political reporters "pivotal."

THE REPUBLICAN party in Ohio is facing an ordeal so grave, an opposition of such magnitude that it might well be on the way to such a long Democratic control as Michigan struck in 1948.

Up to that year, it should be remembered, Michigan had been a relatively safe Republican state. But a combination of weakness in the Republican organization and the growing power of the Reuther machine has resulted in its being overwhelmingly Democratic for 12 years. It is now reaching the end of the cycle.

Ohio may be at the beginning of a similar Democratic trend.

In 1958, several factors contributed to a major Republican disaster. There was an inept state administration under Republican Gov. C. William O'Neil, further complicated by the chief executive's illness.

Businessmen overrode the warnings of Sen. Bricker and Chairman Bliss and put a right-to-work amendment on the ballot.

The advocates of the amendment were not well prepared but the labor unions were. The results was a heavy registration and an overwhelming Democratic sweep at the polls.

Even Bricker, hitherto unbeatable in Ohio, was defeated. Democrats won all along the line, from the governorship to the county courthouses. Both Houses of the Legislature became Democratic, and the Republicans lost three congressional seats.

Today the Democrats are still at an advantage. They retain the big registration of 1958. They have Gov. Michael DiSalle, who has built himself a powerful political machine.

Labor's COPE is deeply entrenched even in the rural counties. And COPE has more money to spend then Bliss can possibly raise from Republican contributors.

THE DEMOCRATS have an added incentive to win, because if they can control the legislature they can redistrict the state, thus adding to their strength in Congress.

On the Republican side there is the outstanding Republican chairman of all the United States. Bliss is a realist and a very able organizer.

He has been laboring hard to perfect the organization of which he is the head. And he is making progress.

What he is creating is superior to anything Ohio Republicans have seen before. And it is different. He says this to county chairmen and Republican workers generally:

"These are changing times. We can't win as we have in the past with reasonably good organization. We need a perfect organization and outstanding candidates. We shall need the breaks, too. When we prepare ourselves to be good losers it is time to get out."

Candidate Kennedy, realizing the importance of Ohio, plans to spend more than a week of his time campaigning in Ohio.

Against him as a candidate and DiSalle as an organizer of his support, the Nixon-Lodge ticket may have hard going.

Down Through The Years

From The Review Files

THIRTY YEARS AGO — About 150 rabbits from Ohio, West Virginia and Pennsylvania were exhibited at the Hancock County Fair.

Paul M. Fogo was elected secretary of the Wellsville Rotary Club, succeeding the Rev. D. E. Young who moved to Kansas.

Mrs. Earl Ward was re-elected president of the Wellsville Calendar Coterie of the Methodist Protestant Church.

TWENTY YEARS AGO — Columbia County rural schools received the third quarterly payment under the 1940 school foundation program. It amounted to $49,441.

Frank D. Rohmer, head of the Midland Lincoln High School vocational training department for 11 years, resigned to accept a position in Pittsburgh.

Mrs. George Steele won the trophy donated by Miss Winifred Wells during the medal play tournament with seven-eights handicap at the East Liverpool Country Club.

TEN YEARS AGO — A crowd of 4,000 watched the fireworks display at Central Park, the main feature of the Wellsville St. Rocco celebration.

The names of 27 servicemen from Newell and vicinity who died in World War I and II were perpetuated at the Memorial Athletic Field of Wells High School, Newell.

Alfred J. D'Angelo, son of Mr. and Mrs. Cosimo D'Angelo of Ravine St., was licensed by the Ohio State Board to practice as a doctor of surgical chiropody.

Congress always has been the favorite whipping boy of U.S. politics. It has been as though critics despised what they saw of themselves in the mirror held up to the body politic.

Criticism had reached a crescendo in the Roosevelt and Truman administrations. Even Americans who saw room for improvement in the House and Senate had misgivings about the persistent downgrading of representatives and senators by the chief executive.

HISTORICALLY, the balance of power created by the Constitution has been maintained by an ebb and flow of prestige that kept any one branch of government from riding roughshod over any other branch. The judicial, the executive and legislative branches vied with one another.

But under Presidents Roosevelt and Truman, the vying had turned into internecine warfare. The combatants were not struggling for the upper hand but for the kill—and one combatant had been on top so long the other two were desperate.

Dwight Eisenhower made some promises he couldn't keep. He made some promises that were unrealistic. But when he said eight years ago he would treat Congress as a co-equal branch of the government if he were elected and would put a halt to the systematic abuse of its prestige carried on by his predecessors he meant it. He has kept his promise.

Congress will adjourn sine die in a few days after a performance that has not been easy to admire. Its majority leaders have abused their prerogatives and the country's patience by holding an unnecessary session. Through no fault of its own, Congress is not currently in high repute. It has been used cynically as a backdrop for a bit of political byplay that has been embarrassing to everybody concerned. Sen. Lyndon G. Johnson of Texas, who arranged it with his Texas friend, Rep. Sam Rayburn, speaker of the House of Representatives, must have apologized by this time to his running mate on the Democratic ticket for the damage done in advertently to the Kennedy campaign.

EVEN IN THE face of special provocation, President Eisenhower has not teed off on Congress in the four Congresses of his two terms. He has been faithful to his promise never to abuse representatives and senators.

He has finished the experiment he started when he entered the White House—to see whether government would run better in the United States if its component branches respected one another.

When it is considered that sniping between the branches had gone as far as it could go without a disaster before the Eisenhower administration began, with rumblings of court-packing, legislative limitations on future presidential terms and even of impeachment, the experiment must be called a success.

The Once Over

By H. I. Phillips

Dogs in the Russian spaceship were declared in perfect shape, none the worse for the 437,500-mile tour. But our guess is that the pooches' answer would be, "That's what you think!"

"Want to go for a nice orbit?" is enough to send most dogs under the bed. "Come here, Fido, master wants to put on your outer-space equipment," is equally disconcerting.

Strelka and Belka, Soviet pooches, if they could speak plainly would say: "Science is wonderful and you can have it.

"All we know is that after the experience no dog would sit up and beg for another orbit. It had us crazy coming and going. Tass says we are in great shape and didn't mind it, but if we had a subscription to it we would cancel it fast."

Any dog knows when he is out of his element and in no place where he can fetch slippers, chase mailmen, answer a boy's whistle or chew up a rug. Two hundred miles above the earth is no place for friendly pats, affectionate glances and a meat bone.

Strelka and Belka were probably as startled as a pair of dog-track hounds would be if they suddenly found the rabbit was chasing them!

They were, we suspect, too terrorized to scratch fleas. (Of course there is the possibility the fleas were too dazed to bite. The scientists covered everything but the question of how a flea reacts to outer space. Maybe the best way for dogs to get rid of fleas is by orbit?)

As a dog owner for many years, we can't be convinced that Fido isn't pretty sick by the time all the electrodes attaching him to the spaceship communications system are in place, to say nothing of his first peek at gadgets for automatic feeding and appearance on a sort of "Meet The Dog" TV program.

We imagine an interview with Strelka or Belka would include:

Q: Did you enjoy it?

A: Certainly not. I was told I was going on a peace mission.

Q: Didn't you growl or bark at the spaceship men?

A: Yes, but they vetoed my bark and said one more growl would make me an aggressor!

Khrushchev says he would like to head the Soviet delegation to the U.N. September session. Nikita, who busted up the Paris Summit meeting and said he was through with the United States, would visit us again on his own invitation and provide a summit on the edge of the East River, delivering his threats and insults on the front doorsteps.

His card now reads "Abuse manufactured and delivered anywhere." You can't beat Nikita for iron gall, versatility, and strange ideas of showmanship.

It could be too great a strain to expect American people to behold calmly the top defamer of Uncle Sam parading daily to the U.N. skyscraper all charged up with fresh insults and nose-thumbings. It's like asking the spider to play a return visit to Little Miss Muffet and for grandma to welcome an encore by the wolf.

The most forged signature in history has been that of Antonius Stradivarius, maker of the famous violins.

Questions, Answers On Holiday Safety

By George C. Stewart

(Mr. Stewart, executive vice president of the National Safety Council, wrote the following article for The Associated Press.)

Almost everywhere I go, people ask me about the holiday traffic tolls. The questions asked most frequently, and my answers, are as follows:

Q. Why does the National Safety Council concentrate so heavily on holiday accidents?

A. It doesn't. The Council works every day of the year to prevent accidents of all kinds. But we do place special emphasis on the holiday traffic tolls because of the extra danger during holiday periods.

A. So there really is extra danger on the highway during a holiday period?

A. Absolutely.

Q. How do you know?

A. EVERY BIT of evidence we have been able to dig up points to it. For one thing, the Associated Press makes a dry run on the holiday traffic compilation two weeks before each major holiday. It compiles the traffic death toll across the nation exactly as it will do two weeks later—the same number of hours, the same days of the week as the actual holiday period. With only one exception, the actual holiday traffic death tolls have never failed to exceed the toll on the comparable non-holiday period of two weeks hence.

Q. By how much?

A. By an average of 27 per cent over the last five years.

Q. How do you explain this higher holiday toll?

A. More travel, more danger, more accidents. It's just that simple.

Q. I have read or heard somewhere that the holiday tolls actually aren't as big as they appear to be. Isn't it a fact that a certain number of people would die anyway, whether it was a holiday or not?

A. Certainly — but not as many, as I have tried to show above.

Q. HOW DOES the National Safety Council keep tab on all these holiday traffic deaths, hour by hour?

A. It doesn't. Compilations are made by the two nationwide press associations, through their state and local correspondents and bureaus across the country.

Q. Then how does the Council fit into the holiday toll picture so importantly?

A. The Council compares the hourly traffic death figures compiled by the press associations with the toll at the same hour on preceding holidays, and reports on whether the toll is running ahead or behind the previous toll, and by how much. It also issues frequent warnings aimed at the traffic situation which prevails at that moment.

Q. Doesn't it also issue pre-holiday predictions as to how many people will be killed on the highways over the holiday period?

A. Correction, please. Not how many people will be killed, but how many people may be killed unless the extra holiday danger is met with extra care. The Council has never said so many people will or must be killed, for the reason that they needn't be killed if enough people drive the way they should.

Q. But you do try to come as close as you can to predicting the actual toll, don't you?

A. On the contrary, the Council is the one forecaster who hopes and prays his forecast will be 100 per cent wrong. We would be the happiest people on earth if we estimated traffic deaths over a holiday might total 400, for example, and no one was killed.

. BUT ISN'T it a fact that your forecasts have been amazingly accurate?

A. No. As a matter of fact, our pre-holiday estimates have been consistently wide of the mark. This is natural, of course, since we are basing our estimates on what could happen mathematically, and human behavior doesn't follow any such pattern.

Q. Just how far do you miss it?

A. Since we began our holiday campaigns in 1946, we have missed the actual traffic death tolls over 70 major holidays in 14 years by an average of 41—or 12 per cent.

Q. I don't understand.

A. Well, our estimates have varied by as much as 109 under the actual toll to 130 above the actual toll. On the other hand, some of our estimates have been tragically close. But the average over the 70 holidays has been a difference of 41 deaths between our pre-holiday estimate and the actual toll.

Q. Do you have any feeling that your pre-holiday estimates may frighten drivers so that actually they become susceptible to an accident?

A. No, we don't feel that way. On the contrary, we believe our warnings alert drivers to the extra holiday danger and thus make them more cautious. We certainly don't want to scare anyone, but we firmly believe caution and concern help prevent accidents — on holidays or at any other time.

Q. DO YOU ruge people to stay home over the holidays — or at least to stay off the road?

A. Never. We don't believe that is the way to hold down the traffic toll. Holidays are natural and inevitable periods of family reunions and outings. People will and should travel. We only want them to do it safely — to compensate for the extra travel with extra care.

Q. What else do you do in your holiday safety campaigns besides issue pre-holiday estimates of the traffic toll?

A. We contact the governor of every state, the mayors of the larger cities, traffic officers and other public officials, urging them to step up their traffic safety efforts immediately before and during the holiday period. We issue specific traffic safety hints to drivers and pedestrians through the press, radio-TV and other media.

We also issue safety hints on swimming, fireworks and other holiday activities. We work actively with other nationwide groups in these holiday campaigns—with the churches, for example, at Christmas time, and with organized labor over Labor Day. We concentrate in our holiday campaigns on the drinking-driving problem. For instance, for the last two years we have encouraged business and industry to dry up Christmas office parties, since our studies show early hours of a holiday period are peak danger hours on the highway —due partly, we believe, to drinking.

Q. Do you think all this does any good?

A. We certainly do. It is our conviction that the thousands of safety stories and warnings which reach the public by radio, television and newspaper throughout the holiday periods can't help but prevent accidents.

The media do a magnificent job of focusing public attention on the need for extra care over the holidays, and in fact throughout the year. I'd hate to think of what the toll would be if all this should stop.

Airitating Remarks

By Hal Boyle

NEW YORK — Remarks that an airline hostess gets tired of hearing:

"Well, looky who's here—the little sister of the Wright brothers!"

"Wake me up when we get to Los Angeles. If we don't get there, don't bother."

"In the old days the hostesses had to be nurses. Now, if you hand 'em a crying baby, they don't know which end to hold up."

"My miss, I don't see how you whipped up a diinner for 87 people so quick in such a tiny kitchen. Why, it would take me a week."

"If that's the pilot, I've changed my mind. I believe I'll take some insurance after all."

"This is my very first flight. Where is my parachute?"

"Would you please tell the driver to take another road? This one's getting awful bumpy."

"THIS COFFEE'S pretty lukewarm. Do you mind running it through the carburetor just once more?"

"Miss, I hate to keep making a nuisance of myself, but I still say that engine out theres' on fire. Can't you see the sparks?"

"I know you gals get a lot of proposals, but I got a three-day layover in Chicago, and I'd love to show you the town."

"Junior gave me his word he wouldn't touch a thing—if you'd just let him sit in the pilot's lap a while."

"Personally, I think the girls on American are the prettiest, the girls on United the most obliging, the girls on Pan American the most cheerful, and the girls on this line are — oh, well, I get off at Toledo, so forget it."

"Look, honey, way up here at 30,000 feet how's the government going to know if you poured me a third double bourbon?"

"Flying is so exciting. You never know what city they're going to send your baggage to."

"No, I don't want a cookie, I don't want anything to drink, and I don't want any chewing gum. Thanks for waking me up anyhow. It only took me four hours to doze off."

"NAW, KID, this storm don't bother me. Why, when we were flying the hump back in the big one, with the ack-ack coughing all around us, and those bloody Jap zeros zooming at us from 9 o'clock . . . oo-oo-oops, would you excuse me a minute?"

"Those resst room signs are just Greek to me, ma'am. I got thrown out of the one marked "femmes." Is it safe for me to go into the one marked 'hommes'?"

"All I can say is, if God wanted men to fly, he'd have given him feathers in the first place."

"I wouldn't pinch her if I were you, Joe. I hear she's secretly married to the co-pilot."

"What do you mean Boston is fogged in and we'll have to go on to Newark? I made my reservations for Boston weeks ago."

"Do you sell postcards?"

"Honey, if you ever get stranded in Dallas, call me up. With your looks and my credit card we could have a real gasser."

"Hey, waitress, can I have another cup of Java?"

"Planes have it all over trains in one way, baby doll. I never in my life felt like kissing the conductor."

Odd Facts

The social life of a termite is remarkable. It is found in great numbers in tropical countries, and some species build mounds from 10 to 20 feet high, which are divided into nurseries, storerooms, and living quarters. In the center is a cell in which the king and queen of the termites are kept imprisoned. The queen lays many thousand eggs, which are carried away and cared for by the workers.

Men Of Decision

By James Marlow

Kennedy, Nixon Keep Hammering On A Point

WASHINGTON — Vice President Richard M. Nixon and Sen. John F. Kennedy have one common campaign theme — that each is the man to lead the country for the next four years.

Neither has had actual experience in the presidency. So the voters will have to guess which might be better at leading the nation.

Nevertheless, listen to what the two men said in their acceptance speeches—and they've kept banging away at it ever since.

Kennedy: "It is time, in short, for a new generation of leadership—new men to cope with new problems and new opportunities."

Nixon: "It will indeed take great leadership to steer us through these years (ahead)."

Both candidates stress the importance of decision-making by the next occupant of the White House. Still, neither has ever made, or had to make a national decision. But listen to their acceptance speeches.

Kennedy: "I believe the times demand invention, innovation, imagination, decision."

Nixon: "Formidable as will be the diplomatic and military problems confronting the next president, far more difficult and critical will be the decisions he must make."

Kennedy, a member of Congress since 1946, hasn't been in a position to make any national decisions himself. But there was the possibility that Nixon, as vice president, might have done so.

But President Eisenhower said no to that last week. He said he alone has made the decisions since becoming president. He did say he considered Nixon a trusted adviser.

Asked if he could cite one major Nixon idea he had adopted, Eisenhower said: "If you give me a week, I might think of one. I can't remember."

Nixon keeps beating away at one thing Kennedy can't deny although the Massachusetts senator might ask: What does it prove? That is that Nixon has had more experience than Kennedy.

Nixon, as vice president, has worn two hats, presiding over the Senate and sitting in on meetings of the Cabinet and the National Security Council. Also, as a representative of Eisenhower, he has traveled abroad a lot.

On TV last Thursday night, when he was asked to explain the difference between himself and Kennedy, Nixon said "there is, first, the difference in our experience."

Friday at Birmingham, Ala., Nixon was at it again. He said "the overriding issue is—which candidate by experience, temperament, and background is best qualified to keep the peace without surrender."

To offset this, Kennedy has been trying to put across the idea the Nixon-Eisenhower years were a mess.

The leadership Kennedy has asserted since becoming a presidential candidate—by trying to get the heavily Democratic Congress to pass legislation promised in the Democratic platform—didn't get very far.

His biggest defeat was on the medical care bill when 19 of his own Democrats teamed up with the Republicans to beat him down.

But the only leadership Nixon asserted since becoming a presidential candidate—in trying to get Congress to pass the kind of medical care bill he wanted — also landed on its face.

The Republicans stuck with him but the more numerous Democrats said no.

Close Race In Ohio

By Raymond Moley

Nixon strategists, including the vice president himself, are wise in discounting the early polls showing an advantage for the Republican presidential ticket over the Kennedy-Johnson combination.

In evaluating any presidential campaign in terms of relative advantage, no general countrywide poll can be reliable.

Presidents are elected by the electoral votes of states. And certain states will be the decisive elements in determining the outcome in November.

For that reason, in my comments I shall present a number of reports, based upon on-the-scene observations.

The following is a report by Raymond Moley Jr., who discussed the Ohio situation with Republican State Chairman Ray Bliss and other members of Bliss' organization in Columbus.

It should be added here that Ohio is a good place to start such evaluations. It was long regarded as a state which almost always went with the successful candidate in a presidential election; in short, one of those things called by political reporters "pivotal."

THE REPUBLICAN party in Ohio is facing an ordeal so grave, an opposition of such magnitude that it might well be on the way to such a long Democratic control as Michigan struck in 1948.

Up to that year, it should be remembered, Michigan had been a relatively safe Republican state. But a combination of weakness in the Republican organization and the growing power of the Reuther machine has resulted in its being overwhelmingly Democratic for 12 years. It is now reaching the end of the cycle.

Ohio may be at the beginning of a similar Democratic trend.

In 1958, several factors contributed to a major Republican disaster. There was an inept state administration under Republican Gov. C. William O'Neill, further complicated by the chief executive's illness.

Businessmen overrode the warnings of Sen. Bricker and Chairman Bliss and put a right-to-work amendment on the ballot.

The advocates of the amendment were not well prepared but the labor unions were. The results was a heavy registration and an overwhelming Democratic sweep at the polls.

Even Bricker, hitherto unbeatable in Ohio, was defeated. Democrats won all along the line, from the governorship to the county courthouses. Both Houses of the Legislature became Democratic, and the Republicans lost three congressional seats.

Today the Democrats are still at an advantage. They retain the big registration of 1958. They have Gov. Michael DiSalle, who has built himself a powerful political machine.

Labor's COPE is deeply entrenched even in the rural counties. And COPE has more money to spend then Bliss can possibly raise from Republican contributors.

THE DEMOCRATS have an added incentive to win, because if they can control the legislature they can redistrict the state, thus adding to their strength in Congress.

On the Republican side there is the outstanding Republican chairman of all the United States. Bliss is a realist and a very able organizer.

He has been laboring hard to perfect the organization of which he is the head. And he is making progress.

What he is creating is superior to anything Ohio Republicans have seen before. And it is different. He says this to county chairmen and Republican workers generally:

"These are changing times. We can't win as we have in the past with reasonably good organization. We need a perfect organization and outstanding candidates. We shall need the breaks, too. When we prepare ourselves to be good losers it is time to get out."

Candidate Kennedy, realizing the importance of Ohio, plans to spend more than a week of his time campaigning in Ohio.

Against him as a candidate and DiSalle as an organizer of his support, the Nixon-Lodge ticket may have hard going.

Down Through The Years

From The Review Files

THIRTY YEARS AGO — About 150 rabbits from Ohio, West Virginia and Pennsylvania were exhibited at the Hancock County Fair.

Paul M. Fogo was elected secretary of the Wellsville Rotary Club, succeeding the Rev. D. E. Young who moved to Kansas.

Mrs. Earl Ward was re-elected president of the Wellsville Calendar Coterie of the Methodist Protestant Church.

TWENTY YEARS AGO — Columbia County rural schools received the third quarterly payment under the 1940 school foundation program. It amounted to $49,441.

Frank D. Rohmer, head of the Midland Lincoln High School vocational training department for 11 years, resigned to accept a position in Pittsburgh.

Mrs. George Steele won the trophy donated by Miss Winifred Wells during the medal play tournament with seven-eights handicap at the East Liverpool Country Club.

TEN YEARS AGO — A crowd of 4,000 watched the fireworks display at Central Park, the main feature of the Wellsville St. Rocco celebration.

The names of 27 servicemen from Newell and vicinity who died in World War I and II were perpetuated at the Memorial Athletic Field of Wells High School, Newell.

Alfred J. D'Angelo, son of Mr. and Mrs. Cosimo D'Angelo of Ravine St., was licensed by the Ohio State Board to practice as a doctor of surgical chiropody.

Pughtown Girl Given Award At 4-H Roundup

A Pughtown girl has returned from the West Virginia State 4-H Roundup held Thursday and Friday at Jacksons Mill with an award won in clothing making competition.

Miss Susan Priest, 19, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Earl Priest, won a red ribbon for her complete costume — a red sheath dress with black accessories.

Miss Priest is a song leader in the Pioneer 4-H Club of Pughtown. She was Hancock County's only representative at the roundup.

A meeting of the County 4-H Leaders Association is scheduled Tuesday night at 6:30 in Tomlinson Run State Park, Miss Helen Petrakis announced. The county 4-H leader also reported the Farm Women's achievement committee will meet today at 1:30 p. m. in New Cumberland.

Khrushchev Will Visit Helsinki Next Month

HELSINKI, Finland (AP) — Soviet Premier Nikita Khrushchev will visit Helsinki Sept. 3, when Finland's president Urho Kekonen celebrates his 60th birthday.

The visit will be the Soviet leader's first to Finland since 1957. He was invited to visit the Scandinavian countries in 1959 but declined after conservative parties and newspapers in Sweden, Norway and Denmark opposed the visit.

Pughtown Girl Given Award At 4-H Roundup

A Pughtown girl has returned from the West Virginia State 4-H Roundup held Thursday and Friday at Jacksons Mill with an award won in clothing making competition.

Miss Susan Priest, 19, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Earl Priest, won a red ribbon for her complete costume — a red sheath dress with black accessories.

Miss Priest is a song leader in the Pioneer 4-H Club of Pughtown. She was Hancock County's only representative at the roundup.

A meeting of the County 4-H Leaders Association is scheduled Tuesday night at 6:30 in Tomlinson Run State Park, Miss Helen Petrakis announced. The county 4-H leader also reported the Farm Women's achievement committee will meet today at 1:30 p. m. in New Cumberland.

Khrushchev Will Visit Helsinki Next Month

HELSINKI, Finland (AP) — Soviet Premier Nikita Khrushchev will visit Helsinki Sept. 3, when Finland's president Urho Kekonen celebrates his 60th birthday.

The visit will be the Soviet leader's first to Finland since 1957. He was invited to visit the Scandinavian countries in 1959 but declined after conservative parties and newspapers in Sweden, Norway and Denmark opposed the visit.

Scouters Hold Pioneer Camp

Eighty-five Boy Scouts and leaders took part in a "Pioneer Packin Camp" over the weekend at Camp McKinley near Lisbon.

The event was for units from the Cherokee District. Rill Rayburn, camping and activities chairman, was in charge. The scouts constructed lean-to's and all cooking was on an open wood fire.

Troop 36 with Clyde Silliman, scoutmaster, and Frank Hancock in charge cooked ham, chicken and an apple and peach cobbler. Roast corn was the specialty of Troop 12. Bernie Locke is scoutmaster.

Troop 28 of Wellsville, with Sam Coles Jr., scoutmaster, in charge, prepared spaghetti.

Troop 31 built a lean-to large enough to house almost all the members. Berry Eadgley is scoutmaster. Troop 36 was awarded a large roll of binder twine and a flashlight for being the best all-around unit.

Troop 31 won a griddle for having the best project and Troop 12 won a ball glove for starting the first fire with flint and steel. Members of Troop 28 of Wellsville failed in an attempt to start a fire by this method and were presented a flint and steel kit.

Tom Snow served as recorder and Bob Davidson was campfire master of ceremonies. Bob Arnold, James Pattison and Bob Gray, district executive, assisted in the cooking while Charles Stomp of Newell, a neighborhood commissioner for Troop 29 and Pack 10, assisted with projects.

Various East Liverpool merchants donated the prizes.

Discharged Saturday at Rochester General Hospital were Robert Logston, John Novak and Miss Phyllis Scelp, all of Midland.

Mrs. Mary McCord, 415 Elm St., returned home Saturday night after being a patient a week at City Hospital with a back injury suffered in a fall.

Youth Problems Conference Fixed

Juvenile Judge Louis Tobin is scheduled to meet with citizens and officials of Salineville Wednesday night at 7:30 for a discussion on youth problems.

The public meeting will be held in Salineville High School.

Judge Tobin earlier agreed to meet with responsible citizens and officials in the village in an effort to insure that there would be no repetition of a beer-drinking party held by several youths near Salineville this summer.

Four girls were put on probation and a number of other youths were reprimanded following a dance July 15 in the Twin Truck Stop near Salineville where beer was consumed, authorities said.

Scouters Hold Pioneer Camp

Eighty-five Boy Scouts and leaders took part in a "Pioneer Packin Camp" over the weekend at Camp McKinley near Lisbon.

The event was for units from the Cherokee District. Rill Rayburn, camping and activities chairman, was in charge. The scouts constructed lean-to's and all cooking was on an open wood fire.

Troop 36 with Clyde Silliman, scoutmaster, and Frank Hancock in charge cooked ham, chicken and an apple and peach cobbler. Roast corn was the specialty of Troop 12. Bernie Locke is scoutmaster.

Troop 28 of Wellsville, with Sam Coles Jr., scoutmaster, in charge, prepared spaghetti.

Troop 31 built a lean-to large enough to house almost all the members. Berry Badgley is scoutmaster. Troop 36 was awarded a large roll of binder twine and a flashlight for being the best all-around unit.

Troop 31 won a griddle for having the best project and Troop 12 won a ball glove for starting the first fire with flint and steel. Members of Troop 28 of Wellsville failed in an attempt to start a fire by this method and were presented a flint and steel kit.

Tom Snow served as recorder and Bob Davidson was campfire master of ceremonies. Bob Arnold, James Pattison and Bob Gray, district executive, assisted in the cooking while Charles Stomp of Newell, a neighborhood commissioner for Troop 29 and Pack 10, assisted with projects.

Various East Liverpool merchants donated the prizes.

Power Shutoff Slated For North Side District

Continuing in a project to convert to higher voltage in outlying areas, the Ohio Power Co. will shut off electrical service in the North Side area for about three hours Thursday afternoon.

William A. Black, district manager, said electrical service will be shut off from 1 to 4 p. m. Thursday while workmen convert facilities from 4,000 to 12,000 volts to provide "better customer service."

The three - hour shutoff is the maximum anticipated for North Side customers and power may be off in some homes only 20 minutes, Black added. Customers who will be affected by the power shutoff have been notified by mail, he reported.

In case rain or bad weather interfere, the project will be completed Friday during the same hours, he added. Ohio Power already has converted to higher voltage in the Calcutta and Glenmoor areas. The area affected by the improvement will include Highland Colony, Smithfield St., Orchard Grove Ave. and all of Beechwood and Dixonville.

Murder Charge Is Due In Pennsylvania Death

BURGETTSTOWN, Pa. (AP) — A charge of murder will be filed against a Washington County man in the shooting of another man, Coroner Farrell Jackson says.

Jackson said Sunday an investigation indicated Sam Gelal, about 63, killed Paul N. Barkley, 41, with a revolver in a quarrel during a drinking party.

The shooting occurred Saturday evening at Gelal's home at Hamlin Station R.D. 1 where Barkley had been staying, Jackson said.

The coroner said Walter Jones, 41, also of Hamlin Station, disarmed and beat Gelal following the shooting after Gelal threatened Jones.

Crowd At Fair Totals 30,000

LISBON — Attendance at the 115th annual Columbiana County Fair passed the 30,000 mark before the five-day rural exhibit closed Saturday night, according to Richard Stamp, president of the Fair Board.

Saturday's attendance — one of the largest ever recorded at a single day — helped swell the totals, Stamp reported. All the parking space inside the race track and in the south section of the grounds was jammed with cars. Autos then were parked on the race track to take care of the overflow. The midway was jammed and it was "standing room only" in the grandstand for the King Brother's Rodeo.

Winners in the two pony pulls Saturday were: heavyweights — Bill Moore, Hookstown, first; Edgar Anderson, Smiths Ferry, second; Dick Moore, Ravenna, third; Harry Dye, Southington, fourth; Ritchie Sisters, Warren, fifth; Jim Fries, New Waterford, sixth; Coppock Excavating, Columbiana, seventh; Marty Haefke, Warren, eighth; Ralph Austin, Louisville,—ninth and I. F. Skeels, Lisbon R. D. 4, tenth.

Lightweights — Jimmy Moore of Ravenna, Don McDowell of Hubbard, Paul Miihlbach of Akron, Carol Rockhold of Salem, Ned Shoemaker of Louisville, Jim Best of North Lima, Thomas Gamble of Rogers and Jimmy Best of North Lima.

In the 4-H pony and saddle horse competition, the following received firsts:

Bill Skeels, Lisbon R. D. 4, Just Rite Club; Marie Hanna, Lisbon R. D. 4, Guilford Nimble Fingers Juniors.

Eric Painter, Leetonia R. D. 1, 4-H Scouts, (two); Dave Keylor, Columbiana R. D. 2, Unity Busy Beavers; Harry Ray, New Waterford R. D. 1, Peppy Pals; Bob Coppock, Columbiana R. D. 2, Fairfield Boosters; Irvin Huff Jr., Lisbon R. D. 1, Beaver Valley Leaders, and Sharyn Gorka, Lisbon , R. D. 4, Guilford Nimble Fingers.

Most of the concessions moved out late Saturday night, with the rest moving out Sunday. The lights went out twice Friday night during the grandstand performance and the Lisbon volunteer fireman set up their auxiliary lights for the show.

Five Scouts aided in the operation of the fair booth sponsored by the Columbiana Boy Scout Council. They were Steve Labor and Edgar Wiles of East Palestine, Tom Vincent of East Liverpool and Darly Filler and George August of Salem.

Pack 20, with Don Ramsey, cubmaster, and Mrs. Don Ramsey, den mother, in charge set up a display. Various den mothers aided in the project. The information booth and rope-making machine were "well-received," according to Bob Gray, Cherokee District executive.

it should be presented in person on or after Sept. 28 and not later than noon on Nov. 4. If satisfied the person is eligible, he will be given a ballot to vote for the president and vice president while in the Board of Elections office.

The new law does not help residents who will be moving to other states unless they move to a state having a similar law, he explained. California and Rhode Island are the only states with similar laws as far as the board knows, O'Hanlon added.

Those moving out of the state are not eligible for absentee ballots, he emphasized, since their official residence no longer is in Ohio.

Thom's Rites Set At Canton

CANTON, Ohio (AP)—Funeral services for William R. Thom, 75, a former member of the U. S. House of Representatives, will be held at 1 p.m. Wednesday in the First United Church of Christ. He died of a heart attack Sunday.

Thom, a Democrat, served five terms in Congress as a representative of the 16th Ohio Congressional District (Stark, Wayne and Tuscarawas counties).

He won his first term in 1932 and was re-elected in 1934 and 1936. Two years later he was defeated by James Seccombe, a Republican who had been a Canton mayor and councilman and now is clerk of the Stark County Board of Elections.

Thom won the congressional seat back from Seccombe in 1940, but was defeated in 1942. He was sent back to the House in 1944, but was defeated again in 1946.

While in Congress, Thom served on the judiciary,. appropriations and banking and currency committees.

He was the first native of Canton elected to Congress. While in high school he was a reporter for the Canton News-Democrat and later for the Canton Repository.

He went to the law school of Georgetown University after attending Adelbert College of Western Reserve University and was admitted to the bar in 1917.

He had undergone surgery early this month, but had recovered and returned to his law practice. He worked in his office several hours Saturday.

Power Shutoff Slated For North Side District

Continuing in a project to convert to higher voltage in outlying areas, the Ohio Power Co. will shut off electrical service in the North Side area for about three hours Thursday afternoon.

William A. Black, district manager, said electrical service will be shut off from 1 to 4 p. m. Thursday while workmen convert facilities from 4,000 to 12,000 volts to provide "better customer service."

The three - hour shutoff is the maximum anticipated for North Side customers and power may be off in some homes only 20 minutes, Black added. Customers who will be affected by the power shutoff have been notified by mail, he reported.

In case rain or bad weather interfere, the project will be completed Friday during the same hours, he added. Ohio Power already has converted to higher voltage in the Calcutta and Glenmoor areas. The area affected by the improvement will include Highland Colony, Smithfield St., Orchard Grove Ave. and all of Beechwood and Dixonville.

Murder Charge Is Due In Pennsylvania Death

BURGETTSTOWN, Pa. (AP) — A charge of murder will be filed against a Washington County man in the shooting of another man, Coroner Farrell Jackson says.

Jackson said Sunday an investigation indicated Sam Gelal, about 63, killed Paul N. Barkley, 41, with a revolver in a quarrel during a drinking party.

The shooting occurred Saturday evening at Gelal's home at Hamlin Station R.D. 1 where Barkley had been staying, Jackson said.

The coroner said Wallen Jones, 41, also of Hamlin Station, disarmed and beat Gelal following the shooting after Gelal threatened Jones.

Crowd At Fair Totals 30,000

LISBON — Attendance at the 115th annual Columbiana County Fair passed the 30,000 mark before the five-day rural exhibit closed Saturday night, according to Richard Stamp, president of the Fair Board.

Saturday's attendance — one of the largest ever recorded at a single day — helped swell the totals, Stamp reported. All the parking space inside the race track and in the south section of the grounds was jammed with cars. Autos then were parked on the race track to take care of the overflow. The midway was jammed and it was "standing room only" in the grandstand for the King Brother's Rodeo.

Winners in the two pony pulls Saturday were: heavyweights — Bill Moore, Hookstown, first; Edgar Anderson, Smiths Ferry, second; Dick Moore, Ravenna, third; Harry Dye, Southington, fourth; Ritchie Sisters, Warren, fifth; Jim Fries, New Waterford, sixth; Coppock Excavating, Columbiana, seventh; Marty Haefke, Warren, eighth; Ralph Austin, Louisville,—ninth and I. F. Skeels, Lisbon R. D. 4, tenth.

Lightweights — Jimmy Moore of Ravenna, Don McDowell of Hubbard, Paul Miihlbach of Akron, Carol Rockhold of Salem, Ned Shoemaker of Louisville, Jim Best of North Lima, Thomas Gamble of Rogers and Jimmy Best of North Lima.

In the 4-H pony and saddle horse competition, the following received firsts:

Bill Skeels, Lisbon R. D. 4, Just Rite Club; Marie Hanna, Lisbon R. D. 4, Guilford Nimble Fingers Juniors.

Eric Painter, Leetonia R. D. 1, 4-H Scouts, (two); Dave Keylor, Columbiana R. D. 2, Unity Busy Beavers; Harry Ray, New Waterford R. D. 1, Peppy Pals; Bob Coppock, Columbiana R. D. 2, Fairfield Boosters; Irvin Huff Jr., Lisbon R. D. 1, Beaver Valley Leaders, and Sharyn Gorka, Lisbon, R. D. 4, Guilford Nimble Fingers.

Most of the concessions moved out late Saturday night, with the rest moving out Sunday. The lights went out twice Friday night during the grandstand performance and the Lisbon volunteer fireman set up their auxiliary lights for the show.

Five Scouts aided in the operation of the fair booth sponsored by the Columbiana Boy Scout Council. They were Steve Labor and Edgar Wiles of East Palestine, Tom Vincent of East Liverpool and Darly Filler and George August of Salem.

Pack 20, with Don Ramsey, cubmaster, and Mrs. Don Ramsey, den mother, in charge set up a display. Various den mothers aided in the project. The information booth and rope-making machine were "well-received," according to Bob Gray, Cherokee District executive.

it should be presented in person on or after Sept. 28 and not later than noon on Nov. 4. If satisfied the person is eligible, he will be given a ballot to vote for the president and vice president while in the Board of Elections office.

The new law does not help residents who will be moving to other states unless they move to a state having a similar law, he explained. California and Rhode Island are the only states with similar laws as far as the board knows, O'Hanlon added.

Those moving out of the state are not eligible for absentee ballots, he emphasized, since their official residence no longer is in Ohio.

Thom's Rites Set At Canton

CANTON, Ohio (AP)—Funeral services for William R. Thom, 75, a former member of the U. S. House of Representatives, will be held at 1 p.m. Wednesday in the First United Church of Christ. He died of a heart attack Sunday.

Thom, a Democrat, served five terms in Congress as a representative of the 16th Ohio Congressional District (Stark, Wayne and Tuscarawas counties).

He won his first term in 1932 and was re-elected in 1934 and 1936. Two years later he was defeated by James Seccombe, a Republican who had been a Canton mayor and councilman and now is clerk of the Stark County Board of Elections.

Thom won the congressional seat back from Seccombe in 1940, but was defeated in 1942. He was sent back to the House in 1944, but was defeated again in 1946.

While in Congress, Thom served on the judiciary,. appropriations and banking and currency committees.

He was the first native of Canton elected to Congress. While in high school he was a reporter for the Canton News-Democrat and later for the Canton Repository.

He went to the law school of Georgetown University after attending Adelbert College of Western Reserve University and was admitted to the bar in 1917.

He had undergone surgery early this month, but had recovered and returned to his law practice. He worked in his office several hours Saturday.

Miss Carole A. Hiscox Weds Pennsylvania Man At Lisbon

Pledging nuptial vows at a 3 o'clock wedding on Sunday afternoon at the First Christian Church were Miss Carole Ann Hiscox, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Harold O. Hiscox of the Lisbon-Columbiana Rd. and George E. Berdine, son of Mrs. Anna V. Berdine of New Freeport, Pa.

Officiating at the double ring ceremony was the Rev. William Spangler.

Ferns and vases of pink and white gladoli with pom-poms decorated the altar. White tapers in seven branch candelabra were at either side. White satin bows marked the family pews.

Mrs. Roy Welsh, at the organ, presented a half hour of nuptial music and accompanied Mrs. Raymond Marlatt, who sang "I'll Walk Beside You," "I Love You Truly" and "The Lord's Prayer."

Escorted to the altar and given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a ballerina length gown of chantilly lace over net and taffeta fashioned with fitted bodice, Sabrina neckline and elbow sleeves. Ruffles graced the back of the bouffant skirt.

Traditions Observed

Her shoulder length veil of silk illusion was held in place by a crown of pearls. Her bouquet was a white orchid encircled with pink rosebuds, from which cascaded pink and white satin streamers. She also carried an old lace handkerchief belonging to ther grandmother Hiscox.

Mrs. James Foster, matron of honor and her only attendant, was gowned in blue lace and net over taffeta. A blue theater veil attached to a crown of nylon and pearls completed her attire. She carried a colonial bouquet of pink and white carnations.

Vernon K. Berdine of New Freeport, brother of the bridegroom, served as best man and ushers were Donald Hiscox, brother of the bride, and Richard Crosser.

The mother of the bride chose a Wedgwood blue dress with matching accessories and the bridegroom's mother wore a Navy blue dress with matching accessories. Both complemented their attire with white carnation corsages.

A reception for some 250 followed in the church social room. The bride's table was laid in white with white tapers in crystal and centered with a large three-tier cake decorated with wedding bells and topped by a miniature bride and bridegroom in a floral and satin bower. Fluffy blue satin bows holding pairs of white wedding bells decorated the cloth.

AIDES LISTED

Mrs. Bruce Babcock of Alliance, cousin of the bride, cut the cake and Miss Lelia Shade of Leetonia served. Miss Dora Lee Berdine of New Freeport, sister of the bridegroom, presided at the punch bowl.

Miss Ella Louise Berdine, also a sister of the bridegroom, was in charge of the guest book and received guests from Alliance, Salem, Leetonia, Cleveland, New Waterford, East Palestine, Summitville, New Freeport and Mather, Pa., Ormond Beach, Fla., and Lisbon.

For her honeymoon trip to an undisclosed destination, the bride wore a paisley print dress with black accessories and the white orchid from her wedding bouquet.

A graduate of David Anderson High School of Lisbon, she is employed in the Lisbon office of the Ohio Edison Co. Her husband was graduated from Waynesburg High School in Waynesburg, Pa., attended Davis-Elkins College and is employed in the construction department of the Ohio Edison Co.

The couple will reside in their mobile home on the Lisbon-Columbiana Rd.

The bridegroom's mother entertained the wedding party following rehearsal Saturday evening at the Hiscox home.

County Gets $453,775

LISBON — Columbiana County and its cities, villages and townships received $453,775 in state funds during the fiscal year which ended June 30, according to State Auditor James A. Rhodes at Columbus. Total aid paid all state subdivisions was $51,334,662, the auditor said.

Hancock Park Draws 5,000 Over Weekend

An estimated 5,000 persons visited Tomlinson Run State Park over the weekend, according to N. T. Holbrook, supervisor, who termed the turnout "very good."

Attendance at the Hancock County Park near Pughtown has picked up lately, but still is running behind last year, Holbrook reported. He attributed the decrease to the rainy weekends in June and July.

The park's swimming pool will be closed for the season after Labor Day, Sept. 5. Boating will close Sept. 15 and picnic facilities wlil be closed after Oct. 21. Fishing is permitted the year round.

Mt. Nebo Grange Wins County Service Contest

LISBON — First place in a countywide community service contest which closed Aug. 20 was won by Mt. Nebo Grange, according to Jack Pozenel, deputy master.

West Point and Lisbon Granges finished second and third, respectively, he added. There were 12 entries. Judges included Mr. and Mrs. Glen Bates of Perry and Mr. and Mrs. Byron Anglemyer of Elkton.

The three winners, along with 19 other Granges in the county, will compete for the state community service contest, Pozenel said.

Entries in the county contest, in addition to the winners, were Perry, Butler, Bayard, Elkrun, Calcutta, Yellow Creek, Salem, Willow Grove and Clarkson Granges.

250 Attend Dedication Of West Point Station

WEST POINT — Over 250 attended the dedication of the new West Point fire station Sunday afternoon.

Congressman Wayne L. Hays of Flushing, guest speaker, praised the fire department going ahead on its own to get what it needed and making the new station a community project.

Tom Barborac was honored for his extra work in getting the fire station finished and George Kosko was cited for drilling work.

Pony rides, games and refreshments rounded out the program, along with the inspection of the new firehouse, which is expected to be used as a community gathering place, according to Jack Pozenel, president.

County Man Speaks To Yule Tree Group

LISBON — James W. Pendry of Lisbon spoke to 650 members of the National Christmas Tree Growers Association at Purdue University at West Lafayette, Ind., last week. His topic was "Growing Quality Trees, Especially Douglas Fir."

He was appointed as a member of the national committee on grades and standards which are being advocated extensively throughout this new industry.

Glen E. Massie was elected the new national president. He is a grower from Illinois. Pendry and his wife returned home Sunday from the four-day session.

Miss Carole A. Hiscox Weds Pennsylvania Man At Lisbon

Pledging nuptial vows at a 3 o'clock wedding on Sunday afternoon at the First Christian Church were Miss Carole Ann Hiscox, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Harold O. Hiscox of the Lisbon-Columbiana Rd. and George E. Berdine, son of Mrs. Anna V. Berdine of New Freeport, Pa.

Officiating at the double ring ceremony was the Rev. William Spangler.

Ferns and vases of pink and white gladoli with pom-poms decorated the altar. White tapers in seven branch candelabra were at either side. White satin bows marked the family pews.

Mrs. Roy Welsh, at the organ, presented a half hour of nuptial music and accompanied Mrs. Raymond Marlatt, who sang "I'll Walk Beside You," "I Love You Truly" and "The Lord's Prayer."

Escorted to the altar and given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a ballerina length gown of chantilly lace over net and taffeta fashioned with fitted bodice, Sabrina neckline and elbow sleeves. Ruffles graced the back of the bouffant skirt.

Traditions Observed

Her shoulder length veil of silk illusion was held in place by a crown of pearls. Her bouquet was a white orchid encircled with pink rosebuds, from which cascaded pink and white satin streamers. She also carried an old lace handkerchief belonging to ther grandmother Hiscox.

Mrs. James Foster, matron of honor and her only attendant, was gowned in blue lace and net over taffeta. A blue theater veil attached to a crown of nylon and pearls completed her attire. She carried a colonial bouquet of pink and white carnations.

Vernon K. Berdine of New Freeport, brother of the bridegroom, served as best man and ushers were Donald Hiscox, brother of the bride, and Richard Crosser.

The mother of the bride chose a Wedgwood blue dress with matching accessories and the bridegroom's mother wore a Navy blue dress with matching accessories. Both complemented their attire with white carnation corsages.

A reception for some 250 followed in the church social room. The bride's table was laid in white with white tapers in crystal and centered with a large three-tier cake decorated with wedding bells and topped by a miniature bride and bridegroom in a floral and satin bower. Fluffy blue satin bows holding pairs of white wedding bells decorated the cloth.

AIDES LISTED

Mrs. Bruce Babcock of Alliance, cousin of the bride, cut the cake and Miss Lelia Shade of Leetonia served. Miss Dora Lee Berdine of New Freeport, sister of the bridegroom, presided at the punch bowl.

Miss Ella Louise Berdine, also a sister of the bridegroom, was in charge of the guest book and received guests from Alliance, Salem, Leetonia, Cleveland, New Waterford, East Palestine, Summitville, New Freeport and Mather, Pa., Ormond Beach, Fla., and Lisbon.

For her honeymoon trip to an undisclosed destination, the bride wore a paisley print dress with black accessories and the white orchid from her wedding bouquet.

A graduate of David Anderson High School of Lisbon, she is employed in the Lisbon office of the Ohio Edison Co. Her husband was graduated from Waynesburg High School in Waynesburg, Pa., attended Davis-Elkins College and is employed in the construction department of the Ohio Edison Co.

The couple will reside in their mobile home on the Lisbon-Columbiana Rd.

The bridegroom's mother entertained the wedding party following rehearsal Saturday evening at the Hiscox home.

Wrecks Claim 7 Residents Of West Virginia

By The Associated Press

At least seven West Virginians were killed in auto wrecks during one night of the weekend.

They all died between late Saturday and dawn Sunday, three of them within the state and the other four outside it.

Three of the five accidents involved took two lives. Those were at War in McDowell County, West Hamlin in Lincoln County and at Angola in the eastern part of Indiana. Another of the accidents, at Chillicothe, Ohio, killed three.

The War accident was one of the first of the series. Two cars came at a curve from opposite directions and smashed together.

Leonard Keene, 21, of War was the driver of one of the cars. Killed with him was William Click, 22, of Alexandria, Va., a passenger. Two girls with the men were not seriously hurt, nor were the three people in the other car.

A few hours later a single car went out of control on West Hamlin Hill on W. Va. 3, crashed into a rock cliff and turned over. The young woman and one of the two young men inside were killed.

The dead were Jo Emma Cummings, 20, of Hamlin and Darrel Tabor, 21, of Palermo, like Hamlin in Lincoln County. Malcom White, 23, of Midkiff had his leg broken but otherwise was not badly hurt.

At Chillicothe, two separate accidents during the night killed a middle-aged woman from Charleston and a young serviceman from Osage in Monongalia County.

All four passengers were thrown out when a car went out of control on U. S. 23 in Ohio. Of the three who died, one was Airman Clarence E. Jennings, 23, of Osage, who was stationed at Lockbourne Air Force Base near Columbus.

It was another single car accident that took the life of Mrs. Emma Reynolds, 59, of Charleston. Her husband, John P. Reynolds, 60, who was driving, was reported in satisfactory condition at a Chillicothe hospital.

Two young men from Dry Creek in Raleigh County who had taken jobs in Chicago were in a car that smashed into a concrete abutment near a toll gate on the Indiana Toll Road. State Police said it approached at a high rate of speed, swerved to avoid hitting a stopped car, then piled up.

Killed were Harry C. Asbury, 20, and Charles D. Bradford, 21.

Republicans Launch Youth Training Camp

WEBSTER SPRINGS, W. Va. (AP) —A six-day Republican youth citizenship training camp opened today at nearby Camp Caesar.

The camp is being held under auspices of the West Virginia Republican Executive Committee, the State Federation of Republican Women's Clubs and the State Young Republican League.

Serving as director is Dr. Donald Hayhurst, a political science instructor at West Virginia University who has been on leave recently to work as a special assistant to Gov. Underwood.

William P. A. Nicely of Parkersburg, a former member of the House of Delegates, is assistant director.

The camp is for high school seniors and first-, second- and third-year college students.

Cumberland Man Cited After Crash In Chester

Lonnie Simmons of New Cumberland R. D. 2 will receive a hearing tonight before Mayor Ray Collins of Chester on charges of failure to have his car under control and interfering with the duties of an officer.

Simmons was cited Saturday morning about 10:30 after his car struck the rear of another driven by John M. Branicky of Benwood, W. Va., at Carolina Ave. and 1st St.

Patrolman Clarence Lennens said some $300 damage resulted to Branicky's 1960 sedan.

Crippled Children Day Marked At Ohio's Fair

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP)—Today is Crippled Children's Day and Safety Day at the Ohio State Fair, and crippled children from throughout Ohio will be brought to the exposition and entertained at a special show.

Paid admissions during the first three days of the eight-day fair have been "distorted," said Dick Goodrick, fair information officer.

He said many advance sale tickets mistakenly wound up in the same container with tickets sold at the gate.

Fair officials were able to figure out how many gate ticket sales were made through the amount of money collected. But, he added, they haven't yet counted up the advance sale tickets that were used, to determine the total actual paid admissions.

Counting advance sale tickets that were used Sunday, Goodrick said, paid admissions could equal or exceed the figure for Sunday last year—about 70,000—the second best paid attendance in six years.

He said the fair had another 100,000 crowd Sunday.

The fair twirled into its fourth day today, but the twirling really took place Sunday. Bonnie Welsh, 12, of Rt. 2, Lebanon, won the state baton twirling championship and picked up the 120th trophy she has won in 16 states.

Just a month ago Bonnie was crowned national champion of the U.S. Twirling Association. The sixth-grader at Springboro School has been twirling for five years.

Second in the competition was Toni Marie Cochran, Dayton, followed by Mary Jo Hill, Midway, and Rosemary K. Hoefling, Spring Valley.

The championship among baton twirling teams went to six Lorain County girls from Columbia Station — Karen Johnson, Elsie Carse Rita Rundle, Martha Molnar, Peggy Martin and Joan Rabung.

The Mansfield senior team placed fourth.

Five high school youths received government bonds for submitting winning entries in the annual traffic safety poster contest sponsored by the Ohio Knights of Pythias. More than 500 teen-agers competed.

Receiving their awards at the fair were Anita Yoder, Rt. 3, Wauseon, the grand prize winner; Roger L. Campbell, Huntsville, first in the junior-senior class group; Jim Molnar, Windham, second in that group; Doug Offenbacher, Grove City, first in the freshman - sophomore group, and Thomas Lykins, Lewistown, second in that group.

Saturday, a 220-pound Hampshire barrow owned by Charlie Andrews, 12, of near Washington Court House, won the grand championship in the open market hog class over all breeds. It sold for $2.25 a pound, a record price in the grand champion barrow sale. The previous high was $2.

Two Injured, Youth Held In Beach Clash

CHICAGO (AP) — Two Negroes were injured and a white youth was arrested when the Chicago chapter of the National Assn. for the Advancement of Colored People staged a racially integrated outing at a Lake Michigan beach on the South Side.

Thirty Negroes and seven white persons went to the beach in what Dempsey Travis, president of the chapter, said was a protest of past "minor beach incidents."

Sixty uniformed policemen, triple the usual number, were on duty.

The NAACP party was stoned and jeered by about 50 white bathers, witnesses said, before the integrated group was escorted from the beach.

Velma Murphy, 21, a university student, suffered scalp cuts and Irvin Howard, 25, was treated for a bruised shoulder.

James Southhard, 18, was arrested on a charge of carrying explosives. Detectives said he was carrying a gasoline bomb.

Wellsville Man Fined By Judge In Palestine

A Wellsville motorist was among four fined on traffic violations at hearings Saturday before Judge Earl Spalding at East Palestine.

Glenn Hall, 1902 Nevada St., Wellsville, was fined $15 and costs for making an improper left turn. He was cited by the State Highway Patrol.

Frieda L. McCoy of Negley R. D. 1 was fined $15 and costs for failure to stop in the assured clear distance.

Cletus May of McCready Addition, East Palestine, and Mrs. Margie Speerhas of Lake Milton were fined $10 and costs each for crossing over newly-painted white lines on the highway.

Many cooks like to use thyme rather than sage for stuffings for meat and poultry.

Association Picks Wheeling Doctor

WHITE SULPHUR SPRINGS, W. Va. (AP) — The new president-elect of the West Virginia Medical Association is Dr. D. E. Greeneltch of Wheeling.

He was chosen Saturday at the close of the association's convention.

Installed as president was Dr. John W. Hash of Charleston, who succeeded Dr. J. C. Huffman of Buckhannon.

Succeeding Dr. Greeneltch as vice president was Dr. L. J. Pace of Princeton.

Next year's convention of the association was scheduled again for the Greenbrier Hotel. The dates are to be Aug. 23-27.

Dr. Bernard S. Clements, 78, of Matoaka in Mercer County was chosen the state's "general practioner of the year."

Still active after 53 years of practice, Dr. Clements has delivered 3,500 babies.

Glen Buchanan, 21, of Gilbert Mingo County, won the association's medical school scholarship for $4,000. It is to be used at the West Virginia University School of Medicine.

Under the terms of the scholarship, Buchanan will practice in a rural area of the state after his graduation.

Michigan Driver Wins

GREENVILLE, Ohio (AP) — Taking the lead on the 421st lap, Iggy Katona of Willis, Mich., went on to win the 500-lap new car race over the half-mile track of Eldora Speedway at nearby Rossburg Sunday. Bob Duell of Columbus was second and Mike Klapak, Warren, third.

The seat of government of the United States was moved to the District of Columbia on Dec. 1, 1800.

West Virginia School Board Holds Meeting

CHARLESTON (AP) — The West Virginia Board of Education today began a two-day meeting during which it will review bids and possibly award construction contracts for almost $3 million worth of building projects at three state colleges.

The bids, received earlier this month, are on a 224-capacity men's dormitory and dining hall at Marshall College, Huntington; two dormitories to house 208 women and 197 men and 24 student-family housing units at Concord College, Athens, and a student union building at West Virginia State College, Institute.

The projects will be financed by sale of revenue bonds to the Housing and Home Finance Agency. Income of the facilities will be pledged to paying off the bonds.

The apparent low bids are $1,029,500 by the Southeastern Construction Co. of Charleston on the Marshall project; $1,433,000 by B. F. Parrott and Co. of Roanoke, Va., on the combined projects at Concord, and $464,000 by Southeastern on the building at West Virginia State.

To be interviewed by the board today were applicants for the post of superintendent of the State Schools for the Deaf and Blind. Dr. Hugo F. Schunhoff, superintendent of the Romney schools since 1953, has resigned to accept a position in California.

The board will spend most of tomorrow morning on budget requests of the nine colleges it administers. The requests are for the 1961-62 fiscal year, which begins next July 1.

Chester Woman Fined $50 On Traffic Cases

Mrs. Nancy Clay of Fairview Rd., Chester, was fined $25 and costs each on two traffic violations at a hearing Saturday afternoon before Mayor Ray Collins of Chester. She also was charged $10 for two re-arrest warrants issued when she failed to appear for a hearing in the morning.

Mrs. Clay was fined for not having a state operator's license and for not having a city driver's license. She was scheduled to receive a hearing Saturday morning but failed to appear. Mayor Collins then issued the two warrants.

Mrs. Clay was cited Aug. 19 on Carolina Ave. by Patrolman Clarence Lennens while driving a car owned by Edward Reight, 950 Railroad St., East Liverpool. Reight forfeited a $30.50 bond when he failed to appear Saturday morning on charge of permitting an unlicensed driver to operate his car.

The Institute of Life Insurance reports U. S. life insurance companies have a total investment in real estate of $3.78 billion.

at the cathedral from Thursday until then.

The six-foot, one-inch, 140-pound cardinal had enjoyed good health, except for occasional trouble with arthritis, until recent years. He continued to carry a full schedule of work almost to his death.

He came here from Buffalo, N.Y., eight and a half years ago to succeed the late Dennis Cardinal Dougherty as archbishop of a 10-county archdiocese in southeastern Pennsylvania, fourth largest in the country.

"I have no program to announce, nothing to preach but the love of God. If you will kindly tell me your needs, I shall do my best to meet them. I know of no other way to serve," he said when he came.

But the cardinal was outspoken on some issues. He decried communism among school teachers, racial discrimination and the formation of the Women's Army Corps in the early days of World War II.

Army Rifle Team Wins Infantry Trophy Title

CAMP PERRY, Ohio (AP)—The month-long national pistol and rifle matches ended here Sunday with the Infantry Trophy match, which was won by an Army rifle team.

The winning team, coached by M.Sgt. Harold L. Stafford of High Point, N.C., posted an aggregate score of 1,100 points. That was 38 points more than its nearest rival, another Army team.

M.Sgt. George Ivy of Phenix City, Ala., was captain of the winning aggregation. Other members were Sgt. 1.c. Cecil L. Stevens of Arlington, Mass.; Sgt. Bobby G. Tubbs of Oxford, Miss.; Sgt. 1.c. James L. Tuck of Punta Gorda, Fla.; Sgt. 1.c. Leonard L. Harman of Ft. Benning, Ga.; Sgt. Robert T. Ferguson of Franklin, Ky., and Sgt. Roy O. Ambler of Columbus, Ga.

Steel Expects October Spurt

CLEVELAND (AP)—Only modest improvement in the steel industry's orders, output and shipments are expected in the month ahead, but steelmen hope for a vigorous upturn in October, says the magazine Steel.

"They're counting on seasonal factors, heavy output of new cars, and resumption of buying by users who have cut their inventories as much as they dare," it reported.

Market analysts had predicted an upturn in August, the trade journal noted, but at many steel companies new orders were up only 5 per cent, and "viewed from the threshhold, September looks like August did 30 days ago."

Shipments in September will not gain much because automakers are curtailing their production schedules and other consumers are reducing their inventories more than expected, Steel said.

Steel production in August averaged 54.3 per cent of rated capacity, and the magazine said this was 4 points better than the July rate, but still under the predicted 56 per cent.

Part of the blame for this can be laid to unforseen labor problems, it continued, such as a railroad strike at the Pittsburgh plant of U.S. Steel Corp. Last week's rate slipped two-tenths of a point to 54.5 per cent.

Kansas Golfer Takes World Seniors Title

COLORADO SPRINGS, Colo. (AP)—Harry Strasburger, a Coffeyville, Kan., clothier, is the first World Seniors golf champion.

Strasburger, 57, won the crown Sunday by whipping John Roberts of Chicago, 2 and 1, in a tight battle in which neither golfer ever had more than a one-hole advantage until the Kansan closed it out on the 17th on the Broadmoor course.

Roberts, 59, former U.S. and International Seniors king, twice was ahead, but Strasburger took the lead for the first time on No. 13. It was never even again.

Patrolman Is Critical After Wound At Home

HAMILTON, Ohio (AP) — A Hamilton patrolman, shot with his own service revolver in what police said was a domestic quarrel, was in critical condition after surgery Sunday night. The officer, Herman Campbell, 28, was found by police answering a call by his wife, Mabel, 32.

The .38 caliber bullet in his abdomen lodged near Campbell's spine. Investigators said Mrs. Campbell told them she and Campbell quarreled and tussled but she could not remember a shot.

Wrecks Claim 7 Residents Of West Virginia

By The Associated Press

At least seven West Virginians were killed in auto wrecks during one night of the weekend.

They all died between late Saturday and dawn Sunday, three of them within the state and the other four outside it.

Three of the five accidents involved took two lives. Those were at War in McDowell County, West Hamlin in Lincoln County and at Angola in the eastern part of Indiana. Another of the accidents, at Chillicothe, Ohio, killed three.

The War accident was one of the first of the series. Two cars came at a curve from opposite directions and smashed together.

Leonard Keene, 21, of War was the driver of one of the cars. Killed with him was William Click, 22, of Alexandria, Va., a passenger. Two girls with the men were not seriously hurt, nor were the three people in the other car.

A few hours later a single car went out of control on West Hamlin Hill on W. Va. 3, crashed into a rock cliff and turned over. The young woman and one of the two young men inside were killed.

The dead were Jo Emma Cummings, 20, of Hamlin and Darrel Tabor, 21, of Palermo, like Hamlin in Lincoln County. Malcom White, 23, of Midkiff had his leg broken but otherwise was not badly hurt.

At Chillicothe, two separate accidents during the night killed a middle-aged woman from Charleston and a young serviceman from Osage in Monongalia County.

All four passengers were thrown out when a car went out of control on U. S. 23 in Ohio. Of the three who died, one was Airman Clarence E. Jennings, 23, of Osage, who was stationed at Lockbourne Air Force Base near Columbus.

It was another single car accident that took the life of Mrs. Emma Reynolds, 59, of Charleston. Her husband, John P. Reynolds, 60, who was driving, was reported in satisfactory condition at a Chillicothe hospital.

Two young men from Dry Creek in Raleigh County who had taken jobs in Chicago were in a car that smashed into a concrete abutment near a toll gate on the Indiana Toll Road. State Police said it approached at a high rate of speed, swerved to avoid hitting a stopped car, then piled up.

Killed were Harry C. Asbury, 20, and Charles D. Bradford, 21.

Republicans Launch Youth Training Camp

WEBSTER SPRINGS, W. Va. (AP) —A six-day Republican youth citizenship training camp opened today at nearby Camp Caesar.

The camp is being held under auspices of the West Virginia Republican Executive Committee, the State Federation of Republican Women's Clubs and the State Young Republican League.

Serving as director is Dr. Donald Hayhurst, a political science instructor at West Virginia University who has been on leave recently to work as a special assistant to Gov. Underwood.

William P. A. Nicely of Parkersburg, a former member of the House of Delegates, is assistant director.

The camp is for high school seniors and first-, second- and third-year college students.

Cumberland Man Cited After Crash In Chester

Lonnie Simmons of New Cumberland R. D. 2 will receive a hearing tonight before Mayor Ray Collins of Chester on charges of failure to have his car under control and interfering with the duties of an officer.

Simmons was cited Saturday morning about 10:30 after his car struck the rear of another driven by John M. Branicky of Benwood, W. Va., at Carolina Ave. and 1st St.

Patrolman Clarence Lennens said some $300 damage resulted to Branicky's 1960 sedan.

Crippled Children Day Marked At Ohio's Fair

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP)—Today is Crippled Children's Day and Safety Day at the Ohio State Fair, and crippled children from throughout Ohio will be brought to the exposition and entertained at a special show.

Paid admissions during the first three days of the eight-day fair have been "distorted," said Dick Goodrick, fair information officer.

He said many advance sale tickets mistakenly wound up in the same container with tickets sold at the gate.

Fair officials were able to figure out how many gate ticket sales were made through the amount of money collected. But, he added, they haven't yet counted up the advance sale tickets that were used, to determine the total actual paid admissions.

Counting advance sale tickets that were used Sunday, Goodrick said, paid admissions could equal or exceed the figure for Sunday last year—about 70,000—the second best paid attendance in six years.

He said the fair had another 100,000 crowd Sunday.

The fair twirled into its fourth day today, but the twirling really took place Sunday. Bonnie Welsh, 12, of Rt. 2, Lebanon, won the state baton twirling championship and picked up the 120th trophy she has won in 16 states.

Just a month ago Bonnie was crowned national champion of the U.S. Twirling Association. The sixth-grader at Springboro School has been twirling for five years.

Second in the competition was Toni Marie Cochran, Dayton, followed by Mary Jo Hill, Midway, and Rosemary K. Hoefling, Spring Valley.

The championship among baton twirling teams went to six Lorain County girls from Columbia Station — Karen Johnson, Elsie Carse Rita Rundle, Martha Molnar, Peggy Martin and Joan Rabung.

The Mansfield senior team placed fourth.

Five high school youths received government bonds for submitting winning entries in the annual traffic safety poster contest sponsored by the Ohio Knights of Pythias. More than 500 teen-agers competed.

Receiving their awards at the fair were Anita Yoder, Rt. 3, Wauseon, the grand prize winner; Roger L. Campbell, Huntsville, first in the junior-senior class group; Jim Molnar, Windham, second in that group; Doug Offenbacher, Grove City, first in the freshman - sophomore group, and Thomas Lykins, Lewistown, second in that group.

Saturday, a 220-pound Hampshire barrow owned by Charlie Andrews, 12, of near Washington Court House, won the grand championship in the open market hog class over all breeds. It sold for $2.25 a pound, a record price in the grand champion barrow sale. The previous high was $2.

Two Injured, Youth Held In Beach Clash

CHICAGO (AP) — Two Negroes were injured and a white youth was arrested when the Chicago chapter of the National Assn. for the Advancement of Colored People staged a racially integrated outing at a Lake Michigan beach on the South Side.

Thirty Negroes and seven white persons went to the beach in what Dempsey Travis, president of the chapter, said was a protest of past "minor beach incidents."

Sixty uniformed policemen, triple the usual number, were on duty.

The NAACP party was stoned and jeered by about 50 white bathers, witnesses said, before the integrated group was escorted from the beach.

Velma Murphy, 21, a university student, suffered scalp cuts and Irvin Howard, 25, was treated for a bruised shoulder.

James Southhard, 18, was arrested on a charge of carrying explosives. Detectives said he was carrying a gasoline bomb.

Wellsville Man Fined By Judge In Palestine

A Wellsville motorist was among four fined on traffic violations at hearings Saturday before Judge Earl Spalding at East Palestine.

Glenn Hall, 1902 Nevada St., Wellsville, was fined $15 and costs for making an improper left turn. He was cited by the State Highway Patrol.

Frieda L. McCoy of Negley R. D. 1 was fined $15 and costs for failure to stop in the assured clear distance.

Cletus May of McCready Addition, East Palestine, and Mrs. Margie Speerhas of Lake Milton were fined $10 and costs each for crossing over newly-painted white lines on the highway.

Steps Outlined For Repairing Loose Mortar

AP Newsfeatures

Question: In looking over the side of our house the other day, I noticed that the mortar between a few of the bricks is starting to pull away a little. We haven't had any leaks yet, but I understand that this condition can result in damage from rainwater. Can I fix this brick work myself and, if so, can you tell me how to go about it?

Answer: You are wise in correcting this condition before leaks occur. Yes, you can handle the job yourself provided you take a little trouble to do it correctly. This is what is known as pointing, sometimes called tuck pointing.

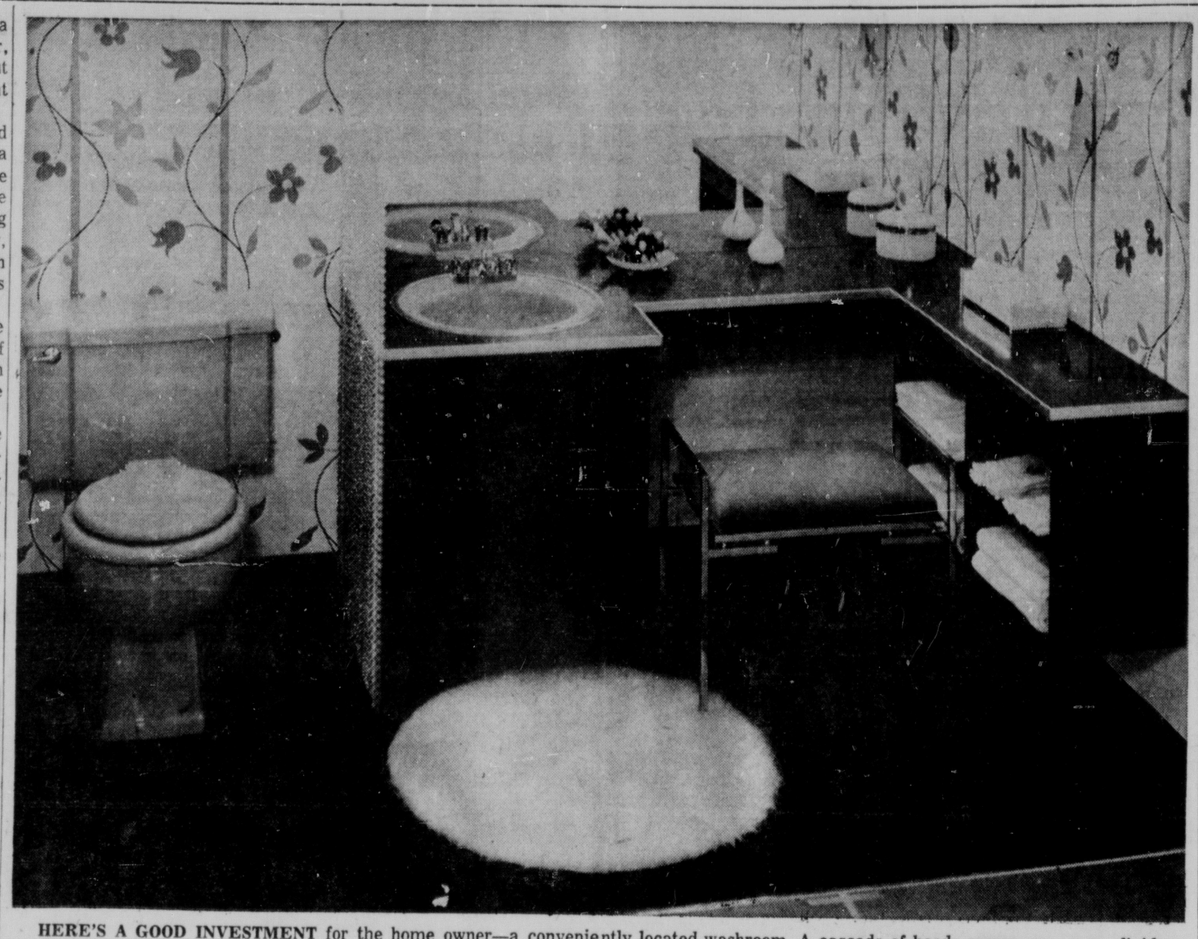

You will need a mortar mix that contains lime, which delays the setting and thus prevents shrinkage. Using a cold chisel and a hammer or an old screwdriver, remove all loose mortar without dislodging any of the mortar that is still solid.

Soak the cavities thoroughly and pack new mortar into them with a pointing trowel or similar tool. Use the end of the trowel to indent the joints slightly to aid in shedding rain water. This is a bit tricky, but merely follow the way in which the mortar is packed in the joints between the other bricks.

If any of the mortar gets on the outside of the bricks, wipe it off instantly with a wet rag, which should be kept handy during the entire operation.

It is necessary to wet down the joints at least once a day for several days. Don't spare the water—and soak the surrounding bricks at the same time.

There is no such bone in the arm as the "funny bone." The tingling sensation that occurs when the back of the elbow is struck is produced in either the radial or the ulnar nerve.

HERE'S A GOOD INVESTMENT for the home owner—a conveniently located washroom. A cascade of beads serves as a room divider, separating the closet from the generous-sized dressing table with the built-in lavatory. A labor-saver and a step-saver, a first - floor washroom should be included in all new home building or modernizing plans.

Wallpapering Takes Care If Put On Right

By ANDY LANG
AP Newsfeatures

Most of today's wallpapers have joined the wash-and-wear brigade, making it even more practical than ever to give a room a new look with this decorative wall material.

Wallpapering hardly can be considered difficult, but a certain amount of know-how is essential if first-class results are to be achieved. With that end in view, let's summarize some of the recommended steps for getting these desired results.

Wallpapering can be done over old paper, provided it is still fastened securely to the wall.

Where the old paper is in such poor condition that it must be removed, it can be done with a mixture of water and wallpaper remover, available at any hardware store or dealer. A faster job is possible with a wallpaper steamer, which can be rented at most paint and wallpaper stores.

Plaster walls, painted or unpainted, should be given a coat of size, which is a watery glue. Gypsum board should be brushed with primer-sealer before applying the paper.

Wallpaper, originally is made with selvage, an undecorated edge to prevent damage to the pattern in shipping and handling.

If the type you buy still has selvage on it, ask your dealer to trim it off. This is necessary when you use the "butt" method of applying the paper, which means fitting the edges tightly together with no overlap. This is the method we find most satisfactory, since it avoids a double thickness at the seams and has a more professional look.

Before doing any pasting, be sure you make arrangements to hang the paper straight.

This is done with a plumb line, which can be a spoon or other weight tied to the end of a string which has been rubbed with chalk. Tack the plumb line so that it hangs vertically against the wall parallel to the door frame, about one inch from the frame. Let the plumb line swing until it stops, then hold the spoon against the wall and snap the string sharply. Thi will leave a chalk line on the wall that will be your guide as a true vertical.

In applying the paper, lining it up with the chalk mark, start from the top and work downward and out to each edge.

Trim off any excess paper at baseboard, ceiling and door frame with a sharp razor blade, using a metal ruler or a large putty knife as a guide. Put up the second strip and each additional strip in the order cut, so that the patterns will match.

Slide the edge of the strip against the edge of one already up, matching the pattern as you go along. Smooth and then run a seam roller lightly but firmly down the seams. If you do not have a seam roller, a chair caster, from which the dirt has been removed, will do nicely.

Firm To Increase Facilities At Plant

Albee Homes, Inc., with headquarters at Niles, recently announced plans to increase its plant facilities.

The firm, which specializes in pre - cut "customerized" homes, has been holding "open house" at one of its model homes at Hickory, Pa., near Burgettstown.

Alex Gross, vice president of Albee, said the company expects to have between $4.5 and $5 million in gross sales by the end of 1960. Its sales offices are located throughout the Midwest.

Albee Homes was started in Ellwood City, Pa., about 10 years ago and eight years ago moved to Niles. The firm employes an average of 100 at its plant in Niles. In addition, the payroll contains 75 sales personnel, 15 supervisors, 10 assistant supervisors, 12 office workers and 15 managers and officers of the corporation.

Small Furniture Solves Narrow Room Problem

By VIVIAN BROWN
AP Newsfeatures Writer

The long narrow room is a challenge to decorators, amateurs or professionals.

If the family likes to entertain, the problem of contriving a cozy seating arrangement can be frustrating, as this letter from an Oakland, Calif., reader indicates:

"Our living room is 9 feet by 22 feet, broken up by a staircase, entrance door opposite the fireplace, three windows and a door that leads into a dining room. The only unbroken space is the wall that runs parallel to the fireplace, but it is 6 feet plus staircase, and our sofa is 7 feet, so there is no room for it. We can't put it in front of the fireplace because of the door. The short wall on the other side of the room is broken up by a window. We are at our wit's end to find a cozy place where we can group our furniture. What can we do?"

I would part with the sofa. It seems to be the problem now, unless you can make a structural change moving the entrance door to the other end of the wall.

A love seat or two-seater sofa would serve your purposes better. If your home is temporary, a three-seater sectional sofa could offer advantages of two pieces plus chair at the moment, and used later in a larger living room.

Small-scaled furniture is the answer to narrow living room, and then it can be cozier even than a larger room, if planned carefully. A big mirror over the fireplace or sofa could give the illusion of more space.

A Toledo reader writes: "We have a very tiny dining room, six feet by eight feet. Is there anyway to decorate it so that it can look brighter and larger? It is painted dark green, a color that was on the wall when we moved into the house."

A gay wallpaper could perk up this room considerably. A wallpaper of birds, trees, or a country mural scene would help.

A vivid color combined with bright white can lend an enchanting effect in a tiny room. A bright blue and white wallpaper with white wainscoting is particularly effective if the furniture is pine or another warm tone. Mahogany furniture takes well to yellow and white. Ditto walnut.

A Marlboro, Mass. homemaker has kitchen problems:

"Could you help me select a wall paint to go with yellow tile and black border in my kitchen. My clock, chair ladder, serving car, spice cabinet and stove accessories are red. my kitchen set is bronze, floor tile is light gray with splashes of yellow and black. Stove, washing machine and refrigerator are white. The archway between kitchen and hall is painted pale rose. What colors besides white and yellow could I choose?"

You have yellow, gray, black, white, red and bronze in your kitchen. It would give a circus effect to introduce another color with strong colors such as those. A pale yellow or white paint seems to be your only solution to harmony in the color scheme.

CANNELTON, Ind. (AP) — Bill Peel, assistant county agent, was abashed when he overslept the day he was to take some 4-H Club members on a trip. He made up for it a week later by showing up to take another group on a 30-mile journey — only to find he was a day early.

How Can I?

By ANNE ASHLEY

Q. How can I remove mildew stains from white cottons or linens?

A. A bath in hot, sudsy water may remove the stains, if they are fresh. If not, apply lemon juice and salt, and place the article in direct sunlight. Use only warm, sudsy water on colored articles stained with mildew.

Q. How can I clean embroidery on an article that cannot be laundered?

A. Cover it with a thick paste of alcohol and powdered chalk, roll and lay away in a dark place for a few days, then brush off the dry chalk.

Q. How can I butter slices of bread without so much difficulty, when making chopped meat sandwiches?

A. It will not be necessary to butter the bread if a lump of butter is worked into the meat paste before spreading.

'Oil Heat Week' To Be Observed During October

NEW YORK — The week of Oct. 9 through 15 is National Oil Heat Diamond Jubilee Week and the period has been set aside to observe and celebrate three-quarters of a century of home comfort through oil heat and to toast the many advances in oil heat as it enters the jet-age of the 60's.

Central heating with oil in America dates back three - quarters of a century to the time when, in the oil field district of western Pennsylvania, barrels of oil were put up on stilts in back yards of homes and stores.

The oil was fed from these barrels by gravity through pipes into furnaces where it dripped over the surface brick and was ignited by fires which had been previously kindled there manually.

It was perhaps prophetic that at the same time, David H. Burrell, of Little Falls, N. Y., invented and patented, on Aug. 11, 1885, a "furnace apparatus" using petroleum, air and steam in a manner which presaged the development of the modern gun-type burner used in today's automatic central oil heating plants.

As with so many products that go into the home of today, oil heat is being continuously improved and upgraded. According to the Oil Heat Institute of America, the millions of dollars spent annually by the petroleum refiners have resulted in a vastly superior oil designed especially for home heating.

Do-It-Yourself Device Starts Charcoal Fast

An ideal starter for charcoal fires can be made from a small piece (8 or 10 inches high) of stovepipe available from hardware dealers.

Drill a series of holes three inches from the bottom of the pipe and attach a handle made of wire to the top.

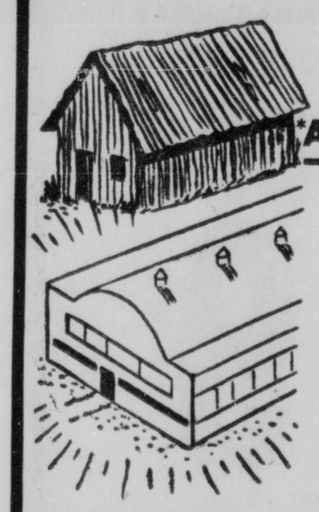

To start the fire, place the stovepipe bottom end down in the grill. Drop a few bits of crumpled newspaper in, and pour the charcoal on top of the newspaper.

Light the paper through one of the holes. The pipe forms a chimney that creates an updraft. When the charcoal is burning well, take the chimney away and let the fuel burn down to glowing coals.

Steps Outlined For Repairing Loose Mortar

AP Newsfeatures

Question: In looking over the side of our house the other day, I noticed that the mortar between a few of the bricks is starting to pull away a little. We haven't had any leaks yet, but I understand that this condition can result in damage from rainwater. Can I fix this brick work myself and, if so, can you tell me how to go about it?

Answer: You are wise in correcting this condition before leaks occur. Yes, you can handle the job yourself provided you take a little trouble to do it correctly. This is what is known as pointing, sometimes called tuck pointing.

You will need a mortar mix that contains lime, which delays the setting and thus prevents shrinkage. Using a cold chisel and a hammer or an old screwdriver, remove all loose mortar without dislodging any of the mortar that is still solid.

Soak the cavities thoroughly and pack new mortar into them with a pointing trowel or similar tool. Use the end of the trowel to indent the joints slightly to aid in shedding rain water. This is a bit tricky, but merely follow the way in which the mortar is packed in the joints between the other bricks.

If any of the mortar gets on the outside of the bricks, wipe it off instantly with a wet rag, which should be kept handy during the entire operation.

It is necessary to wet down the joints at least once a day for several days. Don't spare the water—and soak the surrounding bricks at the same time.

There is no such bone in the arm as the "funny bone." The tingling sensation that occurs when the back of the elbow is struck is produced in either the radial or the ulnar nerve.

Firm To Increase Facilities At Plant

Albee Homes, Inc., with headquarters at Niles, recently announced plans to increase its plant facilities.

The firm, which specializes in pre - cut "customerized" homes, has been holding "open house" at one of its model homes at Hickory, Pa., near Burgettstown.

Alex Gross, vice president of Albee, said the company expects to have between $4.5 and $5 million in gross sales by the end of 1960. Its sales offices are located throughout the Midwest.

Albee Homes was started in Ellwood City, Pa., about 10 years ago and eight years ago moved to Niles. The firm employes an average of 100 at its plant in Niles. In addition, the payroll contains 75 sales personnel, 15 supervisors, 10 assistant supervisors, 12 office workers and 15 managers and officers of the corporation.

Small Furniture Solves Narrow Room Problem

By VIVIAN BROWN
AP Newsfeatures Writer

The long narrow room is a challenge to decorators, amateurs or professionals.

If the family likes to entertain, the problem of contriving a cozy seating arrangement can be frustrating, as this letter from an Oakland, Calif., reader indicates:

"Our living room is 9 feet by 22 feet, broken up by a staircase, entrance door opposite the fireplace, three windows and a door that leads into a dining room. The only unbroken space is the wall that runs parallel to the fireplace, but it is 6 feet plus staircase, and our sofa is 7 feet, so there is no room for it. I would part with the sofa. It seems to be the problem now, unless you can make a structural change moving the entrance door to the other end of the wall.

A love seat or two-seater sofa would serve your purposes better. If your home is temporary, a three-seater sectional sofa could offer advantages of two pieces plus chair at the moment, and used later in a larger living room.

Small-scaled furniture is the answer to narrow living room, and then it can be cozier even than a larger room, if planned carefully. A big mirror over the fireplace or sofa could give the illusion of more space.

A Toledo reader writes: "We have a very tiny dining room, six feet by eight feet. Is there anyway to decorate it so that it can look brighter and larger? It is painted dark green, a color that was on the wall when we moved into the house."

Wallpapering Takes Care If Put On Right

By ANDY LANG
AP Newsfeatures

Most of today's wallpapers have joined the wash-and-wear brigade, making it even more practical than ever to give a room a new look with this decorative wall material.

Wallpapering hardly can be considered difficult, but a certain amount of know-how is essential if first-class results are to be achieved. With that end in view, let's summarize some of the recommended steps for getting these desired results.

Wallpapering can be done over old paper, provided it is still fastened securely to the wall.

Where the old paper is in such poor condition that it must be removed, it can be done with a mixture of water and wallpaper remover, available at any hardware store or dealer. A faster job is possible with a wallpaper steamer, which can be rented at most paint and wallpaper stores.

Plaster walls, painted or unpainted, should be given a coat of size, which is a watery glue. Gypsum board should be brushed with primer-sealer before applying the paper.

Wallpaper, originally is made with selvage, an undecorated edge to prevent damage to the pattern in shipping and handling.

If the type you buy still has selvage on it, ask your dealer to trim it off. This is necessary when you use the "butt" method of applying the paper, which means fitting the edges tightly together with no overlap. This is the method we find most satisfactory, since it avoids a double thickness at the seams and has a more professional look.

Before doing any pasting, be sure you make arrangements to hang the paper straight.

This is done with a plumb line, which can be a spoon or other weight tied to the end of a string which has been rubbed with chalk. Tack the plumb line so that it hangs vertically against the wall parallel to the door frame, about one inch from the frame. Let the plumb line swing until it stops, then hold the spoon against the wall and snap the string sharply. Thi will leave a chalk line on the wall that will be your guide as a true vertical.

In applying the paper, lining it up with the chalk mark, start from the top and work downward and out to each edge.

Trim off any excess paper at baseboard, ceiling and door frame with a sharp razor blade, using a metal ruler or a large putty knife as a guide. Put up the second strip and each additional strip in the order cut, so that the patterns will match.

Slide the edge of the strip against the edge of one already up, matching the pattern as you go along. Smooth and then run a seam roller lightly but firmly down the seams. If you do not have a seam roller, a chair caster, from which the dirt has been removed, will do nicely.

Do-It-Yourself Device Starts Charcoal Fast

An ideal starter for charcoal fires can be made from a small piece (8 or 10 inches high) of stovepipe available from hardware dealers.

Building Rise Still Awaited

By SAM DAWSON
AP Business News Analyst

NEW YORK — The population growth has yet to trigger another big jump in home building.

Had it already done so, the whole economic picture would be brighter. Builders would be happier and so would building material suppliers, appliance makers and construction workers.

That another building surge is coming, the industry is confident. But, as in other parts of today's economy, the timing is a current disappointment.

The date is being put back. The growing population should exert its pressure in another two or three years.

The other spark that had been counted on to warm up home building this year—easing of money costs and supplies—has so far failed to catch fire. But it's there to turn housing wants into buying demand when the population growth catches up.

Government figures show that housing starts in the first half of this year ran well behind last year.

Latest figures by the construction news specialist, the F. W. Dodge Corp., show the dollar volume of residential building contracts in July was 20 per cent behind a year ago although a subtotal, apartment building, was 6 per cent ahead of last year and the number of dwelling units involved was 23 per cent below July 1959.

This drop is in the face of reports that more money is becoming available for mortgage financing in many parts of the nation and that in a few the terms of financing are more favorable for home builders.

As far as home builders are concerned, the trouble with the unquestioned jump in total population is that the growth has been largely confined to groups that buy few homes — those under 20 and those over 60.

Home builders find their biggest markets among the young married couples — particularly those who have gone through the early stage of apartment dwelling and with a family coming along look for homes in the suburbs.

But those now turning 20 were born not long before Pearl Harbor and those now 30 were born after the big stock market crash—this entire group of potential home owners belongs to the depression baby crop, a notably small one.

In the next few years the war babies, a large crop, will be looking for housing. And in a few more the postwar babies — and then, look out. A lot of housing will be needed.

The failure of easier money to perk up building much as yet inspires a number of explanations. The most hopeful is that there's a time lag between relaxing the tight money squeeze of a few months back and making financing plans and starting construction.

Others given are that the price of new houses has climbed too high for some income groups and that while more financing money is availabe the interest or discount charges haven't gone down enough yet to stimulate the market.

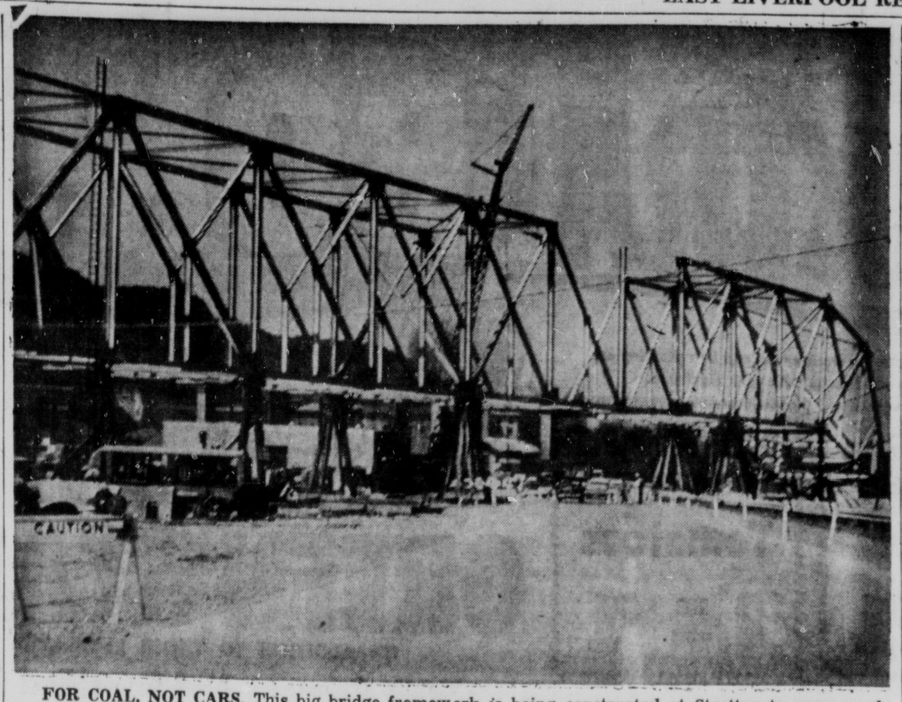

Finally there are those who think the chief trouble is that the great number of those seeking a home of their own have already bought one, while the newcomers are the depression babies, a smaller group.

But all you have to do is to look at the throngs now heading for or returning to the nation's schools to see that before the decade is over the demand for housing is going to be the biggest ever. And if personal incomes and financing terms allow, so will be the home buying.

Canton Man Named

WASHINGTON (AP) — George V. Allen, director of the U. S. Information Agency, today announced the appointment of Thomas G. Roderick Jr., Canton, Ohio, as general counsel. The appointment is effective Sept. 1.

The average January temperature in Montreal is 13 degrees.

FOR COAL, NOT CARS. This big bridge framework is being constructed at Stratton to carry coal over Route 7 from a river dock to the stockpile of the Ohio Edison Co.'s new generating plant. The framework is being erected by the American Bridge Co. The Dravo Corp. built the hopper into which coal will be dumped to a conveyor belt and the cells to which barges will be tied.

Are You Planning New Well? Contact Qualified Contractor

CHICAGO — Whenever a city dweller decides to buy a lot and build a new home in the country beyond the water mains, or whenever the farm family decides to have a water system installed for the first time, several important questions must be considered:

How big a well will be necessary, where should it be located, how much will it cost, what pumping equipment will be required?

For the satisfaction you want from your well, says the Plumbing-Heating - Cooling Information Bureau, consult an expert — a qualified well-drilling contractor.

How can you tell the difference between the qualified well driller and his irresponsible, fly-by-night competitor?

First, the bureau advises, check the driller's reputation locally. If he has been in business many years, he should have many satisfied customers willing to vouch for the quality of his work and his reliability.

Second, the appearance of his equipment and his place of business will furnish additional clues to his professional competency and standing.

Third, be sure the contractor is willing to enter into a written contract covering work to be done and itemizing the cost. A reputable contractor prefers to operate on this business-like basis.

And fourth, find out whether he's active in associations dedicated to raising the well-drilling industry's standards and improving service to the public. More than 1,500 of the nation's most progressive well-drilling contractors are members of the National Water Well Association and its various state association affiliates.

Members of the NWWA recognize that a good well, properly constructed, is the first step in achieving a safe and sanitary water system in rural areas. They have the technical training and the experience to make the most efficient use of existing ground water supply.

Pilot, Passenger Hurt When Plane Crashes

GREENVILLE, Ohio (AP) — A small rented plane crashed Sunday while circling the Maurice Bryson farm near New Weston, north of here, and the two occupants were injured.

Bryson said the pilot, Forrest Goodwin, 39, St. Marys, and his passenger, Fred Haisis, 31, Rt. 1, Mendon, were trying to observe how much progress he had made on a homemade airstrip when their plane hit power lines and crashed. Goodwin was hospitalized at St. Marys and reported in good condition, while Haisis was treated for minor injuries and released.

Man Burned, 4 Escape As Blast Rips Cruiser

CLEVELAND (AP) — James Adrine, 34, of Cleveland, was burned on his arms, hands and left leg when an explosion and fire wrecked a 22-foot cabin cruiser 50 yards off shore in Lake Erie. Four others aboard the craft escaped injury. They were clinging to the burning hull when rescuers arrived.

Hundreds of fishermen at Gordon Park Sunday watched the flames and smoke. The Coast Guard said the explosion occurred when gas fumes built up as Adrine attempted to start up the stalled craft.

This Versatile Window Offers 3 Styles In One

One of the most versatile home building components available today is the awning-hopper-casement window.

This stock window of ponderosa pine operates according to the way it is installed.

Placed as an awning window, it opens upward and out, providing full ventilation with a tiny "roof" that keeps rain out.

Inverted, it becomes a hopper window, opening down and out, ideal for windows near the floor since it allows ventilation but blocks drafts. Placed on its side, the window becomes a casement, opening to one side.

Science Adds New Strength To Windows

Homes are better than ever today, thanks to constant improvement of building materials by manufacturers.

Take wood windows, for example. Today new designs, plus materials such as nylon and aluminum, give the hardware in wood windows greater weathering power and make them operate more easily and efficiently. Even the wood is better.

Windows of ponderosa pine are treated with modern chemicals to make them virtually weatherproof.

An important advance in hardware used in wood windows is the use of both metal and plastic in meshing gears.

This avoids the "galling" action of metal against metal. To combat high humidity and salt spray — the worst enemies of hardware —steel used in ponderosa pine windows is coated with a highly weather-resistant finish. All aluminum is anodized.

For superior holding power, screws used in wood windows have an extra-course thread that runs the full length of the screw. They, too, are weather-proofed for long life.

Locking devices on wood windows exert a strong pull at several points, sealing sash tight against drafts. All locks and hinges are installed on the inside of the windows to make them tamper-proof.

Well-designed hardware on wood windows has simplified window washing.

Spring, spiral, or pressure balances on double-hung units have replaced bulky sash weights, providing more window area and slim modern trim. They also make it possible to remove the sash easily from inside the house for washing. Sliding sash also are removable, and casement and awning units have extension hinges.

With them, the sash can be swung completely away from the frame for better ventilation and for washing the outside of the panes from the inside of the house.

2 Local Men To Assist With Convention Plans

Two East Liverpool men — C. W. Hendershot and Glen Wilson—have been named to committees for the 51st annual convention of the Ohio Association of Real Estate Boards in Cincinnati Sept. 25-28.

Hendershot is a member of the convention committee and Wilson is one of the registration chairmen.

Some 1,500 are scheduled to attend the sessions at the Netherland Hilton Hotel.

Gunmen Get $1,352

CLEVELAND (AP) — Three gunmen invaded an East Side home Sunday morning, threatened its 10 occupants and fled with $1,352 in cash and jewelry.

The table knife became popular after the 17th century. During the period of transition from fingers to forks, knives were used for conveying the food to the mouth as well as for cutting.

Three To Be Charged In Kidnap-Attack Case

AKRON, Ohio (AP) — George Pappas, assistant Summit County prosecutor, said that three men captured Sunday would be charged with kidnap-rape. The trio was accused by a 40-year-old Akron woman of raping her at knife point after abducting her from her husband's car.

Police refused to identify the three. The woman, whose identity also was withheld, was treated at Akron General Hospital. She told police she was abducted from her husband's car while they were parked near Summit Beach Park at 4 a.m. Sunday.

A law requiring that public schools be established in every town of 50 families or more was passed in 1647 in the Massachusetts Bay Colony.

Two Injured Slightly When Plane Wrecks

CLEVELAND (AP) — When their single-engined plane crashed into a field in suburban Westlake Sunday, the two occupants crawled out of the wreckage. The pilot, James H. Hessel, 24, had a stiff neck. His father, Henry A. Hessel, complained of a wrenched back.

The plane crashed soon after taking off from Avon Airport in Lorgain County. The pilot told police he glided the plane about 2,000 feet and headed for a clearing, but hit a tree with the left wing section. The impact swung the plane around, breaking the landing gear and almost tearing out the motor.

Thirteen presidential candidates have been elected with a popular vote of less than 50 per cent of the total votes cast.

Building Rise Still Awaited

By SAM DAWSON
AP Business News Analyst

NEW YORK — The population growth has yet to trigger another big jump in home building.

Had it already done so, the whole economic picture would be brighter. Builders would be happier and so would building material suppliers, appliance makers and construction workers.

That another building surge is coming, the industry is confident. But, as in other parts of today's economy, the timing is a current disappointment.

The date is being put back. The growing population should exert its pressure in another two or three years.

The other spark that had been counted on to warm up home building this year—easing of money costs and supplies—has so far failed to catch fire. But it's there to turn housing wants into buying demand when the population growth catches up.

Government figures show that housing starts in the first half of this year ran well behind last year.

Latest figures by the construction news specialist, the F. W. Dodge Corp., show the dollar volume of residential building contracts in July was 20 per cent behind a year ago although a subtotal, apartment building, was 6 per cent ahead of last year and the number of dwelling units involved was 23 per cent below July 1959.

This drop is in the face of reports that more money is becoming available for mortgage financing in many parts of the nation and that in a few the terms of financing are more favorable for home builders.

As far as home builders are concerned, the trouble with the unquestioned jump in total population is that the growth has been largely confined to groups that buy few homes — those under 20 and those over 60.

Home builders find their biggest markets among the young married couples — particularly those who have gone through the early stage of apartment dwelling and with a family coming along look for homes in the suburbs.

But those now turning 20 were born not long before Pearl Harbor and those now 30 were born after the big stock market crash—this entire group of potential home owners belongs to the depression baby crop, a notably small one.

In the next few years the war babies, a large crop, will be looking for housing. And in a few more the postwar babies — and then, look out. A lot of housing will be needed.

The failure of easier money to perk up building much as yet inspires a number of explanations. The most hopeful is that there's a time lag between relaxing the tight money squeeze of a few months back and making financing plans and starting construction.

Others given are that the price of new houses has climbed too high for some income groups and that while more financing money is availabe the interest or discount charges haven't gone down enough yet to stimulate the market.

Finally there are those who think the chief trouble is that the great number of those seeking a home of their own have already bought one, while the newcomers are the depression babies, a smaller group.

But all you have to do is to look at the throngs now heading for or returning to the nation's schools to see that before the decade is over the demand for housing is going to be the biggest ever. And if personal incomes and financing terms allow, so will be the home buying.

Canton Man Named

WASHINGTON (AP) — George V. Allen, director of the U. S. Information Agency, today announced the appointment of Thomas G. Roderick Jr., Canton, Ohio, as general counsel. The appointment is effective Sept. 1.

The average January temperature in Montreal is 13 degrees.

FOR COAL, NOT CARS. This big bridge framework is being constructed at Stratton to carry coal over Route 7 from a river dock to the stockpile of the Ohio Edison Co.'s new generating plant. The framework is being erected by the American Bridge Co. The Dravo Corp. built the hopper into which coal will be dumped to a conveyor belt and the cells to which barges will be tied.

Are You Planning New Well? Contact Qualified Contractor

CHICAGO — Whenever a city dweller decides to buy a lot and build a new home in the country beyond the water mains, or whenever the farm family decides to have a water system installed for the first time, several important questions must be considered:

How big a well will be necessary, where should it be located, how much will it cost, what pumping equipment will be required?

For the satisfaction you want from your well, says the Plumbing-Heating - Cooling Information Bureau, consult an expert — a qualified well-drilling contractor.

How can you tell the difference between the qualified well driller and his irresponsible, fly-by-night competitor?

First, the bureau advises, check the driller's reputation locally. If he has been in business many years, he should have many satisfied customers willing to vouch for the quality of his work and his reliability.

Second, the appearance of his equipment and his place of business will furnish additional clues to his professional competency and standing.

Third, be sure the contractor is willing to enter into a written contract covering work to be done and itemizing the cost. A reputable contractor prefers to operate on this business-like basis.

And fourth, find out whether he's active in associations dedicated to raising the well-drilling industry's standards and improving service to the public. More than 1,500 of the nation's most progressive well-drilling contractors are members of the National Water Well Association and its various state association affiliates.

Members of the NWWA recognize that a good well, properly constructed, is the first step in achieving a safe and sanitary water system in rural areas. They have the technical training and the experience to make the most efficient use of existing ground water supply.

Pilot, Passenger Hurt When Plane Crashes

GREENVILLE, Ohio (AP) — A small rented plane crashed Sunday while circling the Maurice Bryson farm near New Weston, north of here, and the two occupants were injured.

Bryson said the pilot, Forrest Goodwin, 39, St. Marys, and his passenger, Fred Haisis, 31, Rt. 1, Mendon, were trying to observe how much progress he had made on a homemade airstrip when their plane hit power lines and crashed. Goodwin was hospitalized at St. Marys and reported in good condition, while Haisis was treated for minor injuries and released.

Man Burned, 4 Escape As Blast Rips Cruiser

CLEVELAND (AP) — James Adrine, 34, of Cleveland, was burned on his arms, hands and left leg when an explosion and fire wrecked a 22-foot cabin cruiser 30 yards off shore in Lake Erie. Four others aboard the craft escaped injury. They were clinging to the burning hull when rescuers arrived.

Hundreds of fishermen at Gordon Park Sunday watched the flames and smoke. The Coast Guard said the explosion occurred when gas fumes built up as Adrine attempted to start up the stalled craft.

Rites Set Wednesday

CLEVELAND (AP) — Private services will be Wednesday for J. Leonard Evans, 73, one of the founders of the Euclid Electric & Manufactinring Co. He died Saturday.

This Versatile Window Offers 3 Styles In One

One of the most versatile home building components available today is the awning-hopper-casement window.

This stock window of ponderosa pine operates according to the way it is installed.

Placed as an awning window, it opens upward and out, providing full ventilation with a tiny "roof" that keeps rain out.

Inverted, it becomes a hopper window, opening down and out, ideal for windows near the floor since it allows ventilation but blocks drafts. Placed on its side, the window becomes a casement, opening to one side.

Science Adds New Strength To Windows

Homes are better than ever today, thanks to constant improvement of building materials by manufacturers.

Take wood windows, for example. Today new designs, plus materials such as nylon and aluminum, give the hardware in wood windows greater weathering power and make them operate more easily and efficiently. Even the wood is better.

Windows of ponderosa pine are treated with modern chemicals to make them virtually weatherproof.

An important advance in hardware used in wood windows is the use of both metal and plastic in meshing gears.

This avoids the "galling" action of metal against metal. To combat high humidity and salt spray — the worst enemies of hardware —steel used in ponderosa pine windows is coated with a highly weather-resistant finish. All aluminum is anodized.

For superior holding power, screws used in wood windows have an extra-course thread that runs the full length of the screw. They, too, are weather-proofed for long life.

Locking devices on wood windows exert a strong pull at several points, sealing sash tight against drafts. All locks and hinges are installed on the inside of the windows to make them tamper-proof.

Well-designed hardware on wood windows has simplified window washing.

Spring, spiral, or pressure balances on double-hung units have replaced bulky sash weights, providing more window area and slim modern trim. They also make it possible to remove the sash easily from inside the house for washing. Sliding sash also are removable, and casement and awning units have extension hinges.

With them, the sash can be swung completely away from the frame for better ventilation and for washing the outside of the panes from the inside of the house.

2 Local Men To Assist With Convention Plans

Two East Liverpool men — C. W. Hendershot and Glen Wilson—have been named to committees for the 51st annual convention of the Ohio Association of Real Estate Boards in Cincinnati Sept. 25-28.

Hendershot is a member of the convention committee and Wilson is one of the registration chairmen.

Some 1,500 are scheduled to attend the sessions at the Netherland Hilton Hotel.

Gunmen Get $1,352

CLEVELAND (AP) — Three gunmen invaded an East Side home Sunday morning, threatened its 10 occupants and fled with $1,352 in cash and jewelry.

The table knife became popular after the 17th century. During the period of transition from fingers to forks, knives were used for conveying the food to the mouth as well as for cutting.

Three To Be Charged In Kidnap-Attack Case

AKRON, Ohio (AP) — George Pappas, assistant Summit County prosecutor, said that three men captured Sunday would be charged with kidnap-rape. The trio was accused by a 40-year-old Akron woman of raping her at knife point after abducting her from her husband's car.

Police refused to identify the three. The woman, whose identity also was withheld, was treated at Akron General Hospital. She told police she was abducted from her husband's car while they were parked near Summit Beach Park at 4 a.m. Sunday.

A law requiring that public schools be established in every town of 50 families or more was passed in 1647 in the Massachusetts Bay Colony.

Two Injured Slightly When Plane Wrecks

CLEVELAND (AP) — When their single-engined plane crashed into a field in suburban Westlake Sunday, the two occupants crawled out of the wreckage. The pilot, James H. Hessel, 24, had a stiff neck. His father, Henry A. Hessel, complained of a wrenched back.

The plane crashed soon after taking off from Avon Airport in Lorgain County. The pilot told police he glided the plane about 2,000 feet and headed for a clearing, but hit a tree with the left wing section. The impact swung the plane around, breaking the landing gear and almost tearing out the motor.

Thirteen presidential candidates have been elected with a popular vote of less than 50 per cent of the total votes cast.

Fete Will Open For Glenmoor

The Glenmoor volunteer fire department will sponsor a carnival Tuesday through Labor Day, with proceeds slated to help buy new equipment and to make improvements on the fire station.

There will be two parades this year. There will be a parade of antique automobiles Tuesday evening and a firemen's parade — the highlight of the celebration—Friday evening.

There will be free parking. The carnival ground is located at the Glenmoor athletic field on State Route 267 on the eastern edge of the community.

Heck's Amusements of East Liverpool wil provide rides for the midway. Some 15 concessions will be operated, mostly by the Glenmoor department. The Calcutta, Lawrenceville and Liverpool Township East and West departments will operate a booth each.

The auxiliary of the Glenmoor department will operate the food concession. Firemen have been working for a week installing lights and making other preparations for the carnival. Some of the equipment is in place. Tony Bisco is general chairman.

Emergency Police Power Set After Racial Disorder

JACKSONVILLE, Fla. (AP)—After two days of racial violence, emergency police powers were in effect in Jacksonville today. Negro leaders called off sit-in demonstrations at downtown lunch counters.

A wave of vandalism swept through Negro sections Sunday night, climaxed by the throwing of fire bombs—glass bottles filled with kerosene—into a grocery, a curb market and an automobile. No one was hurt and damage was minor.

A gang looted a filling station and terrorized the attendants.

Windows were broken in more than 15 stores as bands roved the city in cars throwing bricks and other missiles.

Police arrested 138 persons—twice the number for a normal Sunday.

Asst. Police Chief W. A. Miller said gangs of Negro juveniles were responsible for most of the trouble.

Mayor Haydon Burns invoked emergency police powers at 10 p.m. Sunday. He banned any street gathering of more than four persons and unnecessary auto traffic.

A Negro mass meeting Sunday called for a federal investigation of the racial violence.

An estimated 1,400 at the meeting shouted approval of a resolution asking President Eisenhower and the Department of Justice to investigate. The group vowed to continue picketing "until we have accomplished our objectives."

But later the Jacksonville Youth Council of the National Assn. for the Advancement of Colored People called off sit-ins.

Rodney Hurst, council president, said, "If no positive effort to establish lines of communication between both races is forthcoming in the near future and no steps taken to redress our grievances we will have no recourse except to resume public demonstrations."

In the meantime, he said, Negroes will be asked to refrain from buying in downtown Jacksonville stores.

More than a score of persons were injured Saturday but most hurts were minor. Three white persons required hospital treatment.

Those arrested—25 of them were white persons—were charged with a wide variety of offenses such as fighting, loitering, carrying firearms and inciting to riot.

Search Called Off For Missing Craft

CHARLESTON (AP) — For the first time in more than a decade the West Virginia Air Patrol has failed in a search for a missing plane.

For nine days ending Sunday, it had an average of almost 100 of its members out daily looking for traces of the Griffing family of Oklahoma City.

The father, a prominent businessman, mother and grown son and daughter disappeared Aug. 16 while flying home from Teterboro, N. J.

Nothing has been found of them in West Virginia or any of the other states where searches were carried out. These were stopped at midnight on orders from Robbins Air Force Base in Georgia. From now on, any leads that might be turned on will be handled by individual units. The searches had been on a statewide basis.

Col. Robert Gobel, commander of the state CAP, said it was the first time in his 13 years of searching for missing planes in West Virginia that the result had been failure.

There was nothing to go on but reports from people who saw, or thought they saw, a single-engine plane like that of the Griffings, or what they took to be wreckage at some distant point.

Chester Thieves Loot Parked Station Wagon

Thieves stole several articles from a parked station wagon in Chester early Sunday morning, according to Patrolman Clarence Lennens.

Mrs. Sharon Jones, 935 Phoenix Ave., Chester, reported to police that the articles were taken from her car sometime between 2 and 6 a. m. while it was parked on Carolina Ave. between 8th and 9th Sts.

Lennens said the thieves carted off a camera, two pairs of roller skates, two flashlights, a trouble light, a box of tools, a blue and white lace apron and the brown floor mats from the vehicle.

Political Pot Keeps Boiling

By The Associated Press

Congress today swings into what it hopes is the final week of its politics-laden post convention session. The presidential candidates were making plans to shift their campaigns into overdrive immediately after.

There was sporadic bickering over the weekend as to whether the truncated Congress session has done the Democrats, who dominate Congress, more harm than good.

A group of eight Republicans, with Sen. Hugh Scott of Pennsylvania as chief needler, were expected to continue their informally organized efforts to jump on Democrats in the Senate every chance they get.

House Republicans announced they would put on an "Operation Veracity" this week to combat what they called Democratic "misstatements of fact."

Sen. John F. Kennedy, relaxing over the weekend at his Hyannis Port, Mass., summer home, set his sights on a Tuesday foray into Maine and New Hampshire. His formal campaign opens Saturday at Anchorage, Alaska.

His press secretary, Pierre Salinger, said Kennedy's first television speech on purchased time will be made the night of Sept. 20 from Washington. He also plans a Labor Day speech on the subject of economic growth in Cadillac Square in Detroit.

Vice President Richard M. Nixon said over the weekend that if elected president he will assign his running mate, Henry Cabot Lodge, to the task of trying to bring peace to the Middle East.

In a message to the Zionist Organization of America convention in New York, Nixon said the time has come to try for an over-all settlement of "the status of the Arab refugees, the development of the waters of the Jordan and other relationships between Israel and its neighbors."

Nixon will speak to a campaign school for GOP publicity directors in Washington early next week.

Two Longs from Louisiana were in the news over the weekend, both relatives of the late huey Long. Sen. Russell Long (D-La) Huey's son, kept the Senate in session until the wee hours Sunday morning protesting proposed compromise deletions of amendments he sponsored for the medical care for the aged bill.

"Uncle Earl" Long in New Orleans won the Democratic nomination for a Congress seat. He was in a hospital for exhaustion and ptomaine poisoning as the returns came in.

Gas Workers End Wheeling Walkout

Members of Local 420, Utility Workers of America, voted Saturday at Wheeling to end their 116-day strike against the Manufacturers Light & Heat Co.

The local voted 60-15 in favor of accepting the company's latest offer — similar to those accepted by United Mine Workers District 50 members who had been on strike against the same concern at other points in the tri-state area.

The Wheeling employes were scheduled to resume work today, according to Jerry Edwards, president of the local.

The company proposal was put to a vote after the firm agreed Friday to withdraw charges filed with the National Labor Relations Board against the union if the men would return to work.

Ohio 5-Day Forecast

Temperatures will average 4-6 degrees above normal. Normal high 80 north to 82 south, normal low 59-60. A little cooler north Tuesday, becoming warmer again about Thursday; little temperature change south. Rainfall will total ¼ to ½ inch. Scattered showers tonight or Tuesday, and in north portion about Friday.

1,500 Democrats Attend Picnic At Site In Economy

An estimated 1,500 to 2,000 attended the annual Beaver County Democratic family picnic Sunday at Economy Park in Economy borough.

Warden Paul Jones of the Beaver County Jail was presented an award by Russell Milnes, county treasurer, for his work in the party. Jones and Mrs. Elizabeth McCurdy, chief deputy in the controller's office, picnic co-chairmen.

There were games for adults and children and dancing. Adult prize winners were Mary Narrish, Charles Winn, Robert Neely, John Marzlak, Genevieve Ereflin, Victor George and Ernest Kline.

Food was served from 2 to 6 p. m. to people "in a line a mile long," John L. Neely Jr., register of wills, said..

The Democrats plan a county-wide door-to-door election campaign which will be co-ordinated through six area chairmen of Ambridge, Aliquippa, Beaver Falls, Rochester, Monaca and Midland.

Party campaign headquarters is at Brighton Ave. and South Park in Rochester. The crowd included Burgess Eli Corak and Tax Collector Rudolph Presutti, both of Midland.

Cubs Receive Awards During Family Outing

Cub Scout Pack 36 of the Longs Run Presbyterian Church at Calcutta held a family wiener roast Friday night at Thompson Park, when several members were presented awards.

Billy Stone and James Jolly received a silver arrow under wolf Badge, Barry Shuman a wolf patch and gold arrow, Dean Carter a one-year service pin and Robert Rohr, a 2-year service pin and silver arrow under bear.

John Lyons and Peter Muslovski, new members, received bobcat awards. Jess Welch and Bruce Carter became new members of Boy Scout Troop 36, also of the church.

After the wiener roast, Donald Lyle, cubmaster, and Sherman Rohr Jr. took the boys on a hike. Next meeting will be Sept. 23 at the church.

Reappraisal Continues

LISBON — Work in East Liverpool and Liverpool township is half completed in the new reappraisal program, according to Aden Kauffman of Columbiana, head of the program. As of last Friday, appraisers had completed 51 per cent of the two subdivisions, a gain of 3 per cent over last week's total, Kauffman said.

Bike Accident Injures Youth

A Chester area boy, injured in a fall from a bicycle Sunday night, was admitted to City Hospital, where 12 others were treated for various injuries over the weekend.

Raymond Brewer, 8, son of Mrs. Helen Brewer of Chester R. D. 1, is in "fairly good" condition today with an injury to his right foot suffered when he slipped from his bike.

Seven persons were treated Saturday. Earl Fuller, 1620 Eturia St., cut his fingers on a power saw about noon. John Green of Chester R. D. 1, a driver for the Veteran's Cab Co., suffered smashed fingers when he caught his left hand in the door of a taxi.

Charles Cheuvront, 17-month-old son of Eugene Cheuvront of New Cumberland R. D. 1, received lacerations of the forehead in a fall from a sliding board Saturday evening. Susan Mihalick, 14, daughter of John Mihalick of Longview Heights, received abrasions and lacerations of both knees in a fall from a bicycle.

In a fall on rocks while swimming in Beaver Creek, Edgar Hull, 429 Elm St., suffered possible fractured ribs. Charles Monroe of Newell fell from a porch at home and suffered lacerations of the left wrist and a possible fracture of the right ankle.

Miss Jeanette Bryan, 22, of Chester R. D. 1 had a broken arrow removed from her left hand. The arrow broke while she was practicing archery.

Those treated Sunday included: Arthur Irwin of 3rd St. Ext., Chester, who cut his finger on a belt buckle about noon.

Mary Lamp, 3, daughter of Perry Lamp, 1609 Riverside Ave., Wellsville, who lacerated her scalp in a fall from a porch at home.

Ronald Stanford, 8, son of Mrs. Donald Stanford of New Cumberland, who suffered a laceration of the scalp when struck in the head with a rock.

Margaret Brimley of Rural Ln., who lacerated her arm in a fall at home Sunday night.

Mrs. Nancy Lillie of Wellsville R. D. 1, who suffered first and second degree burns of both legs when she dropped a hot pie at home.

Lone Crash Mars Traffic In County

With traffic fairly light in the area, only one accident marred an otherwise quiet weekend on county roads, the Lisbon barracks of the State Highway Patrol reported today.

A Freemont area motorist, Robert Bingle, 21, was injured in the lone mishap Sunday night at 9:35 when his 1960 convertible crashed on Route 45 a half mile north of Wellsville.

The patrol said Bingle suffered a laceration of the scalp and lip when the new auto went out of control on a curve, sheared off a utility pole and smashed into three trees. The auto went through guard rails after leaving the highway.

Bingle, treated at City Hospital, was cited on a charge of reckless driving, the patrol reported. His new car was demolished.

Man's Hearing Slated In Drunk Driving Case

A West End man, arrested early today on charges of driving while under the influence of intoxicating liquor, is scheduled for a hearing Thursday morning in Municipal Court.

Judge Samuel M. Chertoff set bond at $500 for Oren Leon Watkins, 916 Alton St.

The charges were filed by Patrolman Paul Carter, who said he went to investigate a complaint of a car being driven back and forth on Alton St.

When he asked Watkins for his driver's license and registration, the motorist was reluctant to comply, he said. When ordered out of the car, Watkins almost fell. He also refused an intoximeter test, the officer said.

Police had to fight him to get him in jail, the officer reported.

Those treated Sunday included: Arthur Irwin of 3rd St. Ext., Chester, who cut his finger on a belt buckle about noon.

Mary Lamp, 3, daughter of Perry Lamp, 1609 Riverside Ave., Wellsville, who lacerated her scalp in a fall from a porch at home.

Ronald Stanford, 8, son of Mrs. Donald Stanford of New Cumberland, who suffered a laceration of the scalp when struck in the head with a rock.

Margaret Brimley of Rural Ln., who lacerated her arm in a fall at home Sunday night.

Mrs. Nancy Lillie of Wellsville R. D. 1, who suffered first and second degree burns of both legs when she dropped a hot pie at home.

Lone Crash Mars Traffic In County

With traffic fairly light in the area, only one accident marred an otherwise quiet weekend on county roads, the Lisbon barracks of the State Highway Patrol reported today.

A Freemont area motorist, Robert Bingle, 21, was injured in the lone mishap Sunday night at 9:35 when his 1960 convertible crashed on Route 45 a half mile north of Wellsville.

The patrol said Bingle suffered a laceration of the scalp and lip when the new auto went out of control on a curve, sheared off a utility pole and smashed into three trees. The auto went through guard rails after leaving the highway.

Bingle, treated at City Hospital, was cited on a charge of reckless driving, the patrol reported. His new car was demolished.

Man's Hearing Slated In Drunk Driving Case

A West End man, arrested early today on charges of driving while under the influence of intoxicating liquor, is scheduled for a hearing Thursday morning in Municipal Court.

Judge Samuel M. Chertoff set bond at $500 for Oren Leon Watkins, 916 Alton St.

The charges were filed by Patrolman Paul Carter, who said he went to investigate a complaint of a car being driven back and forth on Alton St.

When he asked Watkins for his driver's license and registration, the motorist was reluctant to comply, he said. When ordered out of the car, Watkins almost fell. He also refused an intoximeter test, the officer said.

Police had to fight him to get him in jail, the officer reported.

Braves Fail To Gain Ground As Cards Sweep Pirates, 5-4

Milwaukee Nine Walloped 15 To 2

By WHITNEY MARTIN
Associated Press Sports Writer

The Pittsburgh Pirates still held their leading margin in the National League race today, but through no fault of their own.

The Bucs dropped their third straight to the suddenly revitalized St. Louis Cardinals Sunday, 5-4, but the Milwaukee Braves kept their 5½ game distance by getting themselves whomped by the San Francisco Giants, 15-2.

In other National League games Cincinnati defeated Los Angeles, 9-3, and the Chicago Cubs edged the Philadelphia Phillies, 8-6.

In the American League the leading New York Yankees split a twin bill with the Detroit Tigers, the Yankees taking the nightcap, 8-5, after dropping the opener 6-2; the Baltimore Orioles defeated the Chicago White Sox, 3-1; Cleveland bested Washington, 9-1, and Boston took two from Kansas City, 2-1 and 5-4.

The Cardinals not only swept their series with the Pirates, but moved up to a virtual tie for second place with Milwaukee.

Alex Grammas, a .228 hitting utility man, contributed a home run and three singles to the St. Louis victory and Hal Smith chipped in with a bases-loaded single. Joe Cunningham's sacrifice fly in the fourth, however, was the decisive blow.

The San Francisco Giants apparently loosed all the pent up frustration of a team which generally had been picked as a stout pennant threat as they slaughtered the Braves. Bob Buhl was the loser. Jack Sanford went the distance for the Giants.

The Cincinnati Reds got six of their 13 hits in the first inning, with two Dodger errors helping in the nine-run orgy. Roy McMillan hit a three-run homer. Ed Bailey hit one with one man aboard, and Gordon Coleman connected with the bases empty. Bob Purkey went the route for the Reds for his 14th victory.

Cub starter Don Cardwell was staked to an 8-2 lead going into the eighth, when Mark Freeman, and then Joe Schaffernoth had to be called in to subdue an uprising which netted the Phillies four runs. Cardwell got his sixth victory in 18 decisions.

Seats Still Open On Merchant Bus To Massillon Tilt

The East Liverpool Merchants Association, planning a trip to Massillon Sept. 9 for the Potter-Massillon football game, said today there are some seats remaining on the chartered bus it is sponsoring.

Leslie Blumenthal of Bendheim's, chairman, said the bus will leave here at 4 p. m. and MA members will have dinner before the game with a group of Massillon merchants.

Anyone wishing to reserve a seat on the bus for the trip to the Stark County city may contact E. R. Chandler at the Chamber of Commerce office, FUlton 5-0645. A person wishing a seat is not required to be a member of the association, the chairman said.

About 25 MA members are expected to make the trip, along with others who make reservations on the bus. The cost is $2.50 for the round trip by bus, not including the ticket for the game.

The silks of the Royal Family of England are on display at the National Museum of Racing at Saratoga.

Father-Son Golf Tourney Ends In A Tie

The Father-Son golf tournament of the East Liverpool Country Club ended in a tie for first place Friday, with two teams posting 40's.

The team of L. F. Sixt and Dave Sixt tied with Richard Crable and Rickey Crable for first place. Next was Dr. R. J. Kinsey and Ronnie Kinsey with 42.

The tourney was 9 holes, medal play with selective drives.

In the father-son event for sons 10 and under, Don E. Smith and Michael Smith with 40 took first place. William Pickin and Steve Pickin were second with 50 and Dr. R. J. Kinsey and Bobbie Kinsey were third with 51.

Steve Pickin made the longest drive (125 yards) on the No. 1 hole for those 10 years and under. Bruce Burbick's drive was closest to the pin (6 feet) on the No. 6 hole. Competing in the latter were sons 15 and younger.

Trophies were presented winners and prizes were awarded runners-up. Dinner was served on the club patio following golf. A total of 66 players participated.

Blue And White Club To Meet Tuesday Night

The Blue and White Nonpareil Club will meet Tuesday night at 8:15 in the YMCA to complete plans for "Parents Night" Thursday night. The committee includes Laird Christen, Glenn Barnett and Gregg Ganas. Officers and trustees will convene at 7:30, Ralph Musuraca, president, announced. Tickets for the Potter-Massillon game will be available.

Patty Wins 75-Mile Homing Club Race

Pat Connor's Patty won the 75-mile race from Coshocton Sunday sponsored by the East Liverpool Homing Club.

Second place went to William Allison's Billie while Kitony owned by Victor Govenco was third.

The winning time was 1 hour, 40 minutes and 20 seconds.

Venetian Way, winner of the 1960 Kentucky Derby, was purchased as a yearling in 1958 for $10,500.

Chisox Protest As Klu's HR Is Erased In 3-1 Loss

By WHITNEY MARTIN

A home run is a home run is a home run, as the late Gertrude Stein might have said, and the Chicago White Sox thoroughly agree.

If they are wrong, they are wrong at the top of their voice, as noted Sunday when they protested so vehemently when Ted Kluszewski's three-run pinch-hit homer against the Baltimore Orioles was declared null and void by umpire Ed Hurley that Nellie Fox was booted from the game and sparks were shooting from the ears of his teammates.

The Orioles were ruled winners 3-1, thus slicing the lead of the New York Yankees to two games. The Yankees split with the Detroit Tigers, dropping the opener 6-2 and taking the nightcap 8-5; Cleveland whipped Washington, 9-1, and Boston took a pair from Kansas City, 2-1 and 5-4.

In the National League St. Louis defeated Pittsburgh, 5-4; Cincinnati beat Los Angeles, 9-3; San Francisco whomped Milwaukee, 15-2, and Chicago nipped Philadelphia, 8-6.

Hurley erased Kluszewski's blow with the announcement he had called "no pitch" before Milt Pappas threw the ball Big Klu made disappear. Hurley, umpiring at third base, said he called time to tell two White Sox players, Earl Torgeson and Floyd Robinson, they were not warming up in the proper area. Klu then flied to center for the final out.

The Yankees' bid to win three double headers in as many days was foiled by the Tigers, who scored five unearned runs in the first inning of the first game.

Eli Grba was the victim of the uprising, which included back-to-back homers by Frank Bolling and Rocky Colavito. Don Mossi, who went out at the start of the sixth with a lame shoulder, got his ninth victory.

The Yankees put home runs back to back twice in the second game, and that was the difference. Dale Long and John Blanchard did it in the second inning, and Mickey Mantle and Yogi Berra in the fifth. Phil Regan was the loser, and Art Ditmar got his 14th victory.

Cleveland beat down the Senators with home runs. Jim Piersall, Tito Francona and Vic Power hit for the circuit as Barry Latman and Johnny Klippstein pitched five-hit ball for the Indians.

Boston shoved Kansas City deeper into the cellar with two victories. Frank Sullivan, who had lost seven straight to the A's over two seasons, pitched five-hit ball in breaking the jinx in the opener. Mike Fornieles, making his 55th mound appearance, drove in the tie-breaking run with a crisp single in the eighth inning of the nightcap.

Two Local Netters Win In Lions Club Tourney

Two East Liverpool net stars swept the junior competition in the first annual tennis tournament sponsored by the East Liverpool Lions Club Sunday at the new Thompson Park courts.

Competition began on Friday and in the finals Sunday Paul Jarvis and Art Turner combined to win the doubles championship and Jarvis, who will be a senior at East Liverpool High School this fall, also carried off the singles title.

In the senior competition, Amedeo Dinardo of Sharon, Pa., was crowned the singles champ, while Maury Young of Salem and Paul Morris of Youngstown teamed up to capture the doubles championship.

Turner and Jarvis won the junior doubles by defeating a team of Barbara Beatty and Ann Sixt, 6-1 and 6-0.

Jarvis won the singles from Lester Abrams. After losing the first set 2-6, Jarvis came back to win 6-2 and 6-3.

Dinardo defeated Morris for the singles title, 8-6 and 6-4. Morris had previously won the open tennis tournament at East Palestine a few weeks ago.

In the doubles, Young and Morris whipped Dinardo and Cork Dorney of Youngstown, 6-2 and 7-5.

A good turnout was on hand at the Thompson Park courts. Trophies were presented by Laurin Stacey and Jack Smith, co-chairmen of the event.

The Lions Club is planned to next year, one for juniors and the other a senior event.

City League, Church Loop Stars To Meet In Benefit

Three Injured Steelers Due To Miss Exhibition

PITTSBURGH (AP) — The Pittsburgh Steelers may be without the services of three starters next Friday in their exhibition game with the Baltimore Colts at Miami.

Steeler officials said Sunday fullback John Henry Johnson, linebacker Rudy Hayes and guard Mike Sandusky probably will be sidelined because of injuries.

The three were hurt last Thursday as Pittsburgh dropped a 13-7 decision to the Detroit Lions in a National Football League exhibition game.

Top Senators, 9-1

Indians Blast 3 Homers, End Losing Streak At 5

CLEVELAND (AP)—Cleveland ended their losing streak at five games Sunday by combining the long ball with good pitching to beat the Washington Senators, 9-1.

Barry Latman (3-5) picked up his second straight victory with the help of Johnny Klippstein, who stopped an eighth inning rally. The pair limited the Senators to five hits.

Home runs by Jim Piersall, Tito Francona and Vic Power accounted for six runs. Piersall's homer was his 16th of the season and gave him the Indians' home run lead. Woodie Held, who was put on the disabled list when he suffered a broken finger last month, has 15.

An error at third base by Joe Morgan in the eighth led to an unearned run for the Senators and robbed Latman of a shutout.

Power had two singles in addition to his three-run homer to lead the Indians' 14-hit attack. Piersall drove in two runs as did Rocky Bridges, the substitute at shortstop for rookie Mike de la Hoz, who strained his left elbow in a collision wth Francona Saturday.

The Indians scored five runs in the ninth inning at the expense of southpaw Hal Woodeshick, fourth Washington pitcher.

The rally started with a leadoff single by Klippstein. Ken Aspromonte walked as a pinch-hitter and then Power drove his sixth homer of the season into the left field bleachers. Then Francona walked, Piersall hit a double and Bridges singled.

Latman went into the eighth with a two-hitter, but after Morgan muffed Billy Gardner's grounder with one out, Barry couldn't retire another batter. Lenny Green singled off Power's glove and Harmon Killebrew singled to left, scoring Gardner.

Klippstein relieved Latman and retired the next two men. He ended the game in the ninth by striking out Gardner with two on.

Jim Grant, who has a 15-1 lifetime record against the Senators, will open for Cleveland in the series finale tonight. He will be opposed by Camilo Pascual.

Murtaugh Is Confident Bucs 'Will Bounce Back'

LOS ANGELES (AP) — Manager Danny Murtaugh of the Pittsburgh Pirates says his slumping Bucs are going to bounce back into the winning column.

"We've been down before and come back, and I'm sure we'll do it again," Murtaugh said Sunday. "We'll bounce back."

The St. Louis Cardinals had just handed the National League leading Pirates their fourth straight loss, 5-4. It was Pittsburgh's third straight defeat at the hands of the Cards. Before that, the Bucs lost one to the Chicago Cubs.

"We didn't blow this series with the Cards, they just played fine ball and beat us on their own," Murtaugh continued. "Nobody likes to lose a three-game series."

Solly Hemus, manager of the Cards, commented, "We still have a shot at the pennant — we just have to keep winning."

He added that he saw no signs of the Bucs tightening up under the stress of a four-game losing streak.

The Pirates still enjoy a five-and-a-half game lead over the rest of the pack. The Cards and the Milwaukee Braves are tied for second with Los Angeles next, just seven and a half games off the pace.

Joe Cunningham, Hal Smith and Alex Grammas led the Cards to their win over Pittsburgh Sunday.

Cunningham's sacrifice fly in the fourth inning brought in what proved to be the winning run. He also drove in a run with a single in the first frame.

Grammas belted a bases-empty home run in the second and added three singles for a four-for-four day. Smith rapped a bases-loaded single in the fourth inning to drive in two more runs.

The Pirates scored their first run in the frst inning on a base on balls, Dick Stuart's single and an error.

Back-to-back singles by Bill Virdon, Dick Groat and Bob Clemente gave the Bucs another tally in the fifth. Clemente doubled and Stuart singled for the Prates third run in the seventh. A single by Bill Mazeroski and Smoky Burgess' pinch-hit double brought in the last Buc run in the eighth.

Curt Simmons was credited with his fifth loss against three defeats, but needed help from reliever Lindy McDaniel in the seventh inning. Harvy Haddix was charged with the loss. His record is now 9-8 for the season.

The Pirates open up a two-game series with the Dodgers here tonight. Vern Law (18-6) goes for the Pirats against Johnny Podres (11-9).

Seats Still Open On Merchant Bus To Massillon Tilt

The East Liverpool Merchants Association, planning a trip to Massillon Sept. 9 for the Potter-Massillon football game, said today there are some seats remaining on the chartered bus it is sponsoring.

Leslie Blumenthal of Bendheim's, chairman, said the bus will leave here at 4 p. m. and MA members will have dinner before the game with a group of Massillon merchants.

Anyone wishing to reserve a seat on the bus for the trip to the Stark County city may contact E. R. Chandler at the Chamber of Commerce office, PUlton 5-0645. A person wishing a seat is not required to be a member of the association, the chairman said.

About 25 MA members are expected to make the trip, along with others who make reservations on the bus. The cost is $3.50 for the round trip by bus, not including the ticket for the game.

The silks of the Royal Family of England are on display at the National Museum of Racing at Saratoga.

Father-Son Golf Tourney Ends In A Tie

The Father-Son golf tournament of the East Liverpool Country Club ended in a tie for first place Friday, with two teams posting 40's.

The team of L. F. Sixt and Dave Sixt tied with Richard Crable and Rickey Crable for first place. Next was Dr. R. J. Kinsey and Bonnie Kinsey with 42.

The tourney was 9 holes, medal play with selective drives.

In the father-son event for sons 10 and under, Don E. Smith and Michael Smith with 49 took first place. William Pickin and Steve Pickin were second with 50 and Dr. R. J. Kinsey and Bobbie Kinsey were third with 51.

Steve Pickin made the longest drive (125 yards) on the No. 1 hole for those 10 years and under. Bruce Burbick's drive was closest to the pin (6 feet) on the No. 4 hole. Competing in the latter were sons 11 and younger.

Trophies were presented winners and prizes were awarded runners-up. Dinner was served on the club patio following golf. A total of 66 players participated.

Blue And White Club To Meet Tuesday Night

The Blue and White Nonpareil Club will meet Tuesday night at 8:15 in the YMCA to complete plans for "Parents Night" Thursday night. The committee includes Laird Christen, Glenn Barnett and Gregg Ganas. Officers and trustees will convene at 7:30, Ralph Musuraca, president, announced. Tickets for the Potter-Massillon game will be available.

Patty Wins 75-Mile Homing Club Race

Pat Conner's Patty won the 75-mile race from Coshocton Sunday sponsored by the East Liverpool Homing Club.

Second place went to William Allison's Billie while Kitony owned by Victor Govenco was third.

The winning time was 1 hour, 40 minutes and 20 seconds.

Venetian Way, winner of the 1960 Kentucky Derby, was purchased as a yearling in 1957 for $16,500.

Chisox Protest As Klu's HR Is Erased In 3-1 Loss

By WHITNEY MARTIN

A home run is a home run is a home run, as the late Gertrude Stein might have said, and the Chicago White Sox thoroughly agree.

If they are wrong, they are wrong at the top of their voice, as noted Sunday when they protested so vehemently when Ted Kluszewski's three-run pinch-hit homer against the Baltimore Orioles was declared null and void by umpire Ed Hurley that Nellie Fox was booted from the game and sparks were shooting from the ears of his teammates.

The Orioles were ruled winners 3-1, thus slicing the lead of the New York Yankees to two games. The Yankees split with the Detroit Tigers, dropping the opener 6-2 and taking the nightcap 6-5; Cleveland whipped Washington, 9-1, and Boston took a pair from Kansas City, 2-1 and 5-4.

In the National League St. Louis defeated Pittsburgh, 5-4; Cincinnati beat Los Angeles, 9-6; San Francisco whomped Milwaukee, 15-2, and Chicago nipped Philadelphia, 8-6.

Hurley erased Kluszewski's blow with the announcement he had called "no pitch" before Milt Pappas threw the ball Big Klu made disappear. Hurley, umpiring at third base, said he called time to tell two White Sox players, Earl Torgeson and Floyd Robinson, they were not warming up in the proper area. Klu then flied to center for the final out.

The Yankees' bid to win three double headers in as many days was foiled by the Tigers, who scored five unearned runs in the first inning of the first game.

Eli Grba was the victim of the uprising, which included back-to-back homers by Frank Bolling and Rocky Colavito. Don Mossi, who went out at the start of the sixth with a lame shoulder, got his ninth victory.

The Yankees put home runs back to back twice in the second game, and that was the difference. Dale Long and John Blanchard did it in the second inning, and Mickey Mantle and Yogi Berra in the fifth. Phil Regan was the loser, and Art Ditmar got his 14th victory.

Cleveland beat down the Senators with home runs. Jim Piersall, Tito Francona and Vic Power hit for the circuit as Barry Latman and Johnny Klippstein pitched five-hit ball for the Indians.

Boston shoved Kansas City deeper into the cellar with two victories. Frank Sullivan, who had lost seven straight to the A's over two seasons, pitched five-hit ball in breaking the jinx in the opener. Mike Fornieles, making his 56th mound appearance, drove in the tie-breaking run with a crisp single in the eighth inning of the nightcap.

Top Senators, 9-1

Indians Blast 3 Homers, End Losing Streak At 5

CLEVELAND (AP)—Cleveland ended their losing streak at five games Sunday by combining the long ball with good pitching to beat the Washington Senators, 9-1.

Barry Latman (3-5) picked up his second straight victory with the help of Johnny Klippstein, who stopped an eighth inning rally. The pair limited the Senators to five hits.

Home runs by Jim Piersall, Tito Francona and Vic Power accounted for six runs. Piersall's homer was his 16th of the season and gave him the Indians' home run lead. Woodie Held, who was put on the disabled list when he suffered a broken finger last month, has 15.

An error at third base by Joe Morgan in the eighth led to an unearned run for the Senators and robbed Latman of a shutout.

Power had two singles in addition to his three-run homer to lead the Indians' 14-hit attack. Piersall drove in two runs as did Rocky Bridges, the substitute at shortstop for rookie Mike de la Hoz, who strained his left elbow in a collision wth Francona Saturday.

The Indians scored five runs in the ninth inning at the expense of southpaw Hal Woodeshick, fourth Washington pitcher.

The rally started with a leadoff single by Klippstein. Ken Aspromonte walked as a pinch-hitter and then Power drove his sixth homer of the season into the left field bleachers. Then Francona walked, Piersall hit a double and Bridges singled.

Latman went into the eighth with a two-hitter, but after Morgan muffed Billy Gardner's grounder with one out, Barry couldn't retire another batter. Lenny Green singled off Power's glove and Harmon Killebrew singled to left, scoring Gardner.

Klippstein relieved Latman and retired the next two men. He ended the game in the ninth by striking out Gardner with two on.

Jim Grant, who has a 15-1 lifetime record against the Senators, will open for Cleveland in the series finale tonight. He will be opposed by Camilo Pascual.

Murtaugh Is Confident Bucs 'Will Bounce Back'

LOS ANGELES (AP) — Manager Danny Murtaugh of the Pittsburgh Pirates says his slumping Bucs are going to bounce back into the winning column.

"We've been down before and came back, and I'm sure we'll do it again," Murtaugh said Sunday. "We'll bounce back."

The St. Louis Cardinals had just handed the National League leading Pirates their fourth straight loss, 5-4. It was Pittsburgh's third straight defeat at the hands of the Cards. Before that, the Bucs lost one to the Chicago Cubs.

"We didn't blow this series with the Cards, they just played fine ball and beat us on their own," Murtaugh continued. "Nobody likes to lose a three-game series."

Solly Hemus, manager of the Cards, commented, "We still have a shot at the pennant — we just have to keep winning."

He added that he saw no signs of the Bucs tightening up under the stress of a four-game losing streak.

The Pirates still enjoy a five-and-a-half game lead over the rest of the pack. The Cards and the Milwaukee Braves are tied for second with Los Angeles next, just seven and a half games off the pace.

Joe Cunningham, Hal Smith and Alex Grammas led the Cards to their win over Pittsburgh Sunday.

Cunningham's sacrifice fly in the fourth inning brought in what proved to be the winning run. He also drove in a run with a single in the first frame.

Grammas belted a bases-empty home run in the second and added three singles for a four-for-four day. Smith rapped a bases-loaded single in the fourth inning to drive in two more runs.

The Pirates scored their first run in the frst inning on a base on balls, Dick Stuart's single and an error.

Back-to-back singles by Bill Virdon, Dick Groat and Bob Clemente gave the Bucs another tally in the fifth. Clemente doubled and Stuart singled for the Prates third run in the seventh. A single by Bill Mazeroski and Smoky Burgess' pinch-hit double brought in the last Buc run in the eighth.

Curt Simmons was credited with his fifth loss against three defeats, but needed help from reliever Lindy McDaniel in the seventh inning. Harvy Haddix was charged with the loss. His record is now 9-8 for the season.

The Pirates open up a two-game series with the Dodgers here tonight. Vern Law (16-6) goes for the Pirate against Johnny Podres (11-9).

Two Local Netters Win In Lions Club Tourney

Two East Liverpool net stars swept the junior competition in the first annual tennis tournament sponsored by the East Liverpool Lions Club Sunday at the new Thompson Park courts.

Competition began on Friday and in the finals Sunday Paul Jarvis and Art Turner combined to win the doubles championship and Jarvis, who will be a senior at East Liverpool High School this fall, also carried off the singles title.

In the senior competition, Amedeo Dinardo of Sharon, Pa., was crowned the singles champ, while Maury Young of Salem and Paul Morris of Youngstown teamed up to capture the doubles championship.

Turner and Jarvis won the junior doubles by defeating a team of Barbara Beatty and Ann Sixt, 6-1 and 6-0.

Jarvis won the singles from Lester Abrams. After losing the first set 2-6, Jarvis came back to win 6-2 and 6-1.

Dinardo defeated Morris for the singles title, 8-6 and 6-4. Morris had previously won the open tennis tournament at East Palestine a few weeks ago.

In the doubles, Young and Morris whipped Dinardo and Cork Dismey of Youngstown, 6-2 and 7-5.

A good turnout was on hand at the Thompson Park courts. Trophies were presented by Laurin Stacey and Jack Smith, co-chairmen of the event.

The Lions Club is planned to next year, one for juniors and the other a senior event.

Three Injured Steelers Due To Miss Exhibition

PITTSBURGH (AP) — The Pittsburgh Steelers may be without the services of three starters next Friday in their exhibition game with the Baltimore Colts at Miami.

Steeler officials said Sunday fullback John Henry Johnson, linebacker Rudy Hayes and guard Mike Sandusky probably will be sidelined because of injuries.

The three were hurt last Thursday as Pittsburgh dropped a 13-7 decision to the Detroit Lions in a National Football League exhibition game.

'Down With The Yanks' Campaign Reaches Peak In Rome

Key Decisions Going Against U.S. Athletes

By WILL GRIMSLEY
Associated Press Sports Writer

ROME (AP) — The Americans were getting openly edgy today over what they claim is a wave of "down with the Yanks" sentiment in the Olympic Games.

The situation was brought to a head over the weekend when Lance Larson, a young swimmer from El Monte, Calif., was ruled out of the 100 meter freestyle championship although he recorded faster times than the winner, John Devitt of Australia.

"That's the way it goes," said George Harrison of Orinda, Calif., Larson's roommate.

"If we win, we've got to win big. If it's close they'll give to some other guy. Everybody wants to knock us down."

"It looks like we have to win by a mile," said the disappointed Larson. "I was certain I won."

Throughout the American sector—particularly among competitors in sports where judgement plays a role in determining winners—the complaint was the same: Judges go against the Americans when they can do so without making the decision look too ridiculous. Americans never get an even break.

"I noticed it in the 100 meter swimming finals," said Dan Ferris, honorary secretary of the American AAU and veteran of many Olympic campaigns. "The fans went wild when Devitt was named the winner although it looked to most people as if Larson won.

"It's the same old story. People regard the Americans as big, rich and powerful. They want to see them beaten by an underdog."

Boxing coach Julie Menendez of Santa Clara, Calif., said he and his aides make a study of the judging lineup before every match involving a U.S. fighter.

"When we see certain judges on our list—particularly Iron Curtain judges—we tell our man he must try for a knockout," Menendez added. "We know if the bout goes the distance, the nod will go to the other side."

One U.S. Olympic official said the obvious anti-Americanism among the judges and some spectators was creating a giant psychological obstacle for the entire U.S. team.

"It's tough when you think you have to win by a mile or a knockout," he said.

U.S. Olympic Cagers Roll Over Hungarians

ROME (AP)All-Americas Oscar Robertson and Jerry Lucas drove the poweful U. S. basketball team into the semifinals of the Olympic basketball tournament with a decisive 107-63 victory over Hungary today.

Robertson, the all-around Cincinnati star, scored 22 points, and Lucas, the towering center who led Ohio State to the national collegiate championship, scored 21.

The United States' victory was its third straight and as lopsided as earlier ones over Italy and Japan.

The Americans raced to a quick 12-2 lead and breezed into a 48-34 halftime lead.

Nichol Sees Rough Sailing Ahead For 'Green' South Side Grid Team

By BOB DUFFY
Review Sports Editor

The trend of district football for the coming season is that most area high school squads will be down and facing rebuilding campaigns.

This holds true of South Side, where Coach Dave Nichol said he doesn't expect much in the way of victories from his team during the 1960 season.

The former Monaca High star said "we are very green." A look at the roster shows that from the 35 boys working out only five are seniors. The remainder are juniors and sophomores, along with 13 freshmen.

SOUTH SIDE is starved for veteran help, with only four lettermen back in the fold.

The Hookstown school lost 10 gridders through graduation from the 1959 team which won three and lost five.

Among the 10 were Rich Ashcroft, Dan Frasier, Charles Brooks and Mike Illig, who made up a dangerous foursome for their opponents.

Others lost from last season—Eugene Grivas, Wayne Rardin, Bill Baker, Phil Wolawski, George McLaughlin and Jim Laughlin.

Schmidt, a letterman from last year can pass well and has good speed as a runner. A junior, he weighs 155.

Turning to his other three veterans, Nichol has switched Dan Parsons, a 165-pound senior, from end to fullback. A third-year regular, Jack Smith, will return to a tackle berth. Smith tips the scales at 160 pounds. A senior, he won a regular starting spot his sophomore year.

The remaining letter winner is a good one in Scott Walker, a junior. The 145-pounder will be back at guard.

FILLING THE seven other positions remains the big problem for Nichol, who starts his third year at South Side.

"Cecil Frazier is out for his first year of football and we expect a lot out of him," Nichol said. Frazier, a junior, has been running from a halfback spot along with another first year-man, Norman Cain, a 140-pound senior.

Turning to the forward wall, Nichol knows better than anybody that his linemen are going to be light.

Teaming up with Smith at a tackle spot will be Jim Todd, who is only a sophomore but hits the scales at 170.

Another backfield man who will be seeing a lot of action is Ken Rosak, who will be Nichol's utility back. He is a sophomore weighing 130.

Nichol has until Sept. 9 to get his charges ready for the 1960 opener at Chester.

THE RAMS will play an eight-game schedule — four at home and four away. The home opener Sept. 16 is with Avella, South Side's first WPIAL opponent.

Other games at South Side are with Ellsworth Sept. 30, Newell Oct. 7 and New Cumberland Oct. 21. All home games will begin at 8 p. m.

In Nichol's first season at South Side, the Rams compiled a 4-4 record. He played high school football at Monaca under East Liverpool's Larry Bruno and his college ball at Tarkio, Mo.

Assisting Nichol this season is Frank Kowalski.

The 1960 schedule follows:
Sept. 9—Chester, away
Sept. 16—Avella, home
Sept. 23—Montieau, away
Sept. 30—Ellsworth, home
Oct. 7—Newell, home
Oct. 15—Beaver Local, away
Oct. 21—New Cumberland, home
Oct. 28—Northwestern, away

Pitt To Wind Up Drills At Camp On Wednesday

MEADVILLE, Pa. (AP) — The University of Pittsburgh football squad will wind up its training camp Wednesday with a full-scale scrimmage.

The Panthers will return to Pittsburgh Thursday for school registration and then resume drilling in the Pitt Stadium Friday.

Pitt opened drills last Tuesday.

Bell Ordered Home By Lane To Rest Arm

CLEVELAND (AP) — Gary Bell, young Cleveland hurler who was a member of the American League All-Star squad, will not pitch any more this year because of a shoulder ailment that has plagued him since mid-season.

Then, on orders from General Manager Frank Lane, he will go to his home in San Antonio, Tex., to rest his pitching arm until spring training.

"I just don't want to run the risk of permanent injury by allowing him to pitch again this season," Lane said.

"Apparently rest is what he needs more than anything. By next spring his shoulder should be all right."

Dr. Kelly earlier had diagnosed Bell's ailment as an inflamed tendon.

Expressing disappointment, Bell said: "I suppose it's the best thing for me, but I sure hate to leave the club. It'll seem funny being home with the season still on."

Bell had to quit after pitching the first inning of the second game of a doubleheader against the Yankees in New York Saturday. He said his shoulder hurt while he was warming up, but he "decided to give it a try."

"It wasn't any use," he said. "I just couldn't throw. The way it is I'm no good to myself or the club. I can't throw hard and I can't get 'em out with the curve balls alone. I'm not that kind of pitcher."

Bell's 9-10 record this season is his worst in the majors. He joined the Indians in May 1958, and won 12 games and lost 10 as a rookie. After boosting his victory total to 16 last year while losing 11, he was looking forward to a 20-victory total this year.

He got off to a whirlwind start, winning five of his first six decisions, but by mid-season his record was 7-7. He didn't start a game between July 31 and Aug. 21, when he pitched five innings in Detroit.

Grace U.P. Wins Church League Finale By 15-12

Grace U. P. won its final game of the 1960 YMCA-Church Softball season with a 15-12 victory over the Church of God.

Potts was the winning hurler and also collected two hits along with McMillan and Dawson. One of Potts' hits went for a home run.

Bucheit and Smith homered for the losers. The victory gave Grace U. P. an 18-2 record for the season.

Yesterday's Stars

Pitching—Frank Sullivan, Boston Red Sox, held Kansas City to five hits in 2-1 victory, his first over the A's in eight starts over two years.

Batting — Alex Grammas, St. Louis Cardinals, got a home run and three singles as his team took third straight from league-leading Pittsburgh Pirates.

Both Dallas Clubs Win In Pro Grid Exhibitions

By The Associated Press

The Dallas Cowboys and the Dallas Texans, representing the rival pro football leagues in a city that did not support its last franchise, are prepared to meet in a head-to-head struggle for supremacy at the turnstiles.

With Dallas the focal point of the battle for the entertainment dollar between the senior National League and the fledgling American League, both teams are rounding into form for the regular season.

The Cowboys, a new entry in the NFL stocked with the slightly tarnished veterans of the other clubs, jelled offensively for the first time over the weekend and knocked off the Eastern Division champion New York Giants 14-3 in an exhibition at Louisville, Ky.

The Texans, apparently the strongest aggregation in the new AFL, remained undefeated by walloping Denver's Broncos 48-0 for their fifth consecutive triumph in a pre-season test at Little Rock, Ark.

In other NFL games, the Green Bay Packers humbled Chicago's Bears 35-7, the Los Angeles Rams edged the Cleveland Browns 22-17, and Philadelphia's Eagles defeated the Washington Redskins 24-6. The Boston Patriots beat the Oakland Raiders 28-14 in the AFL.

Bart Starr heaved two scoring tosses, then gave way to Lamar McHan, who fired one 75 yards to Lew Carpenter for a touchdown, in the Packers romp over Chicago. It was Green Bay's third win in a row.

The Rams came from behind to defeat the Browns before 48,175 at Los Angeles with linebacker Jack Pardee pilfering a Milt Plum pass and going 60 yards for the go-ahead touchdown in the third quarter.

The Eagles, leading Washington 7-6 at halftime on Sonny Jurgenson's 3-yard flip to Pete Retzlaff, broke it open with a 17-point outburst in the final quarter capped by Ted Dean's 70-yard punt return for a TD.

Butch Songin's 25-yard touchdown pass to Mike Long gave the Patriots, an insurmountable 21-14 lead in the last period against Oakland.

'Down With The Yanks' Campaign Reaches Peak In Rome

Key Decisions Going Against U.S. Athletes

By WILL GRIMSLEY
Associated Press Sports Writer

ROME (AP) — The Americans were getting openly edgy today over what they claim is a wave of "down with the Yanks" sentiment in the Olympic Games.

The situation was brought to a head over the weekend when Lance Larson, a young swimmer from El Monte, Calif., was ruled out of the 100 meter freestyle championship although he recorded faster times than the winner, John Devitt of Australia.

"That's the way it goes," said George Harrison of Orinda, Calif., Larson's roommate.

"If we win, we've got to win big. If it's close they'll give to some other guy. Everybody wants to knock us down."

"It looks like we have to win by a mile," said the disappointed Larson. "I was certain I won."

Throughout the American sector—particularly among competitors in sports where judgement plays a role in determining winners—the complaint was the same: Judges go against the Americans when they can do so without making the decision look too ridiculous. Americans never get an even break.

"I noticed it in the 100 meter swimming finals," said Dan Ferris, honorary secretary of the American AAU and veteran of many Olympic campaigns. "The fans went wild when Devitt was named the winner although it looked to most people as if Larson won.

"It's the same old story. People regard the Americans as big, rich and powerful. They want to see them beaten by an underdog."

Boxing coach Julie Menendez of Santa Clara, Calif., said he and his aides make a study of the judging lineup before every match involving a U.S. fighter.

"When we see certain judges on our list—particularly Iron Curtain judges—we tell our man he must try for a knockout," Menendez added. "We know if the bout goes the distance, the nod will go to the other side."

One U.S. Olympic official said the obvious anti-Americanism among the judges and some spectators was creating a giant psychological obstacle for the entire U.S. team.

"It's tough when you think you have to win by a mile or a knockout," he said.

U.S. Olympic Cagers Roll Over Hungarians

ROME (AP)All-Americas Oscar Robertson and Jerry Lucas drove the poweful U. S. basketball team into the semifinals of the Olympic basketball tournament with a decisive 107-63 victory over Hungary today.

Robertson, the all-around Cincinnati star, scored 22 points, and Lucas, the towering center who led Ohio State to the national collegiate championship, scored 21.

The United States' victory was its third straight and as lopsided as earlier ones over Italy and Japan.

The Americans raced to a quick 12-2 lead and breezed into a 48-34 halftime lead.

Robertson's total included eight field goals as the Americans, especially in the first half, concentrated almost solely on offense.

Nichol Sees Rough Sailing Ahead For 'Green' South Side Grid Team

By BOB DUFFY
Review Sports Editor

The trend of district football for the coming season is that most area high school squads will be down and facing rebuilding campaigns.

This holds true of South Side, where Coach Dave Nichol said he doesn't expect much in the way of victories from his team during the 1960 season.

The former Monaca High star said "we are very green." A look at the roster shows that from the 35 boys working out only five are seniors. The remainder are juniors and sophomores, along with 13 freshmen.

—:—

SOUTH SIDE is starved for veteran help, with only four lettermen back in the fold.

The Hookstown school lost 10 gridders through graduation from the 1959 team which won three and lost five.

Among the 10 were Rich Ashcroft, Dan Frasier, Charles Brooks and Mike Illig, who made up a dangerous foursome for their opponents.

Others lost from last season—Eugene Grivas, Wayne Hardin, Bill Baker, Phil Wolawski, George McLaughlin and Jim Laughlin.

Nichol does have a good starting point, however, since he rates his quarterback, Chuck Schmidt, as "one of the better quarterbacks in the district."

Schmidt, a letterman from last year can pass well and has good speed as a runner. A junior, he weighs 155.

Turning to his other three veterans, Nichol has switched Dan Parsons, a 165-pound senior, from end to fullback. A third-year regular, Jack Smith, will return to a tackle berth. Smith tips the scales at 160 pounds. A senior, he won a regular starting spot his sophomore year.

The remaining letter winner is a good one in Scott Walker, a junior. The 145-pounder will be back at guard.

FILLING THE seven other positions remains the big problem for Nichol, who starts his third year at South Side.

"Cecil Frazier is out for his first year of football and we expect a lot out of him," Nichol said. Frazier, a junior, has been running from a halfback spot along with another first year-man, Norman Cain, a 140-pound senior.

Turning to the forward wall, Nichol knows better than anybody that his linemen are going to be light.

At present, Bob Malone, a junior who only weighs 125 pounds, is in the running for an end position, along with Dick Seik, a 145-pound senior.

Teaming up with Smith at a tackle spot will be Jim Todd, who is only a sophomore but hits the scales at 170.

The other guard slot looks like it will go to Dave McGaffic, a senior, weighing 145.

A three-way battle is on for center. Harry Herron, a 155-pound junior, is the leading candidate, but may give way to a pair of freshmen in Dave Brooks (145) and Dave Jackson (160).

Another backfield man who will be seeing a lot of action is Ken Rosak, who will be Nichol's utility back. He is a sophomore weighing 130.

Nichol has until Sept. 9 to get his charges ready for the 1960 opener at Chester.

—:—

THE RAMS will play an eight-game schedule — four at home and four away. The home opener Sept. 16 is with Avella, South Side's first WPIAL opponent.

Other games at South Side are with Ellsworth Sept. 30, Newell Oct. 7 and New Cumberland Oct. 21. All home games will begin at 8 p. m.

In Nichol's first season at South Side, the Rams compiled a 4-4 record. He played high school football at Monaca under East Liverpool's Larry Bruno and his college ball at Tarkio, Mo.

Assisting Nichol this season is Frank Kowalski.

The 1960 schedule follows:
Sept. 9—Chester, away
Sept. 16—Avella, home
Sept. 23—Montieau, away
Sept. 30—Ellsworth, home
Oct. 7—Newell, home
Oct. 15—Beaver Local, away
Oct. 21—New Cumberland, home
Oct. 28—Northwestern, away

Pitt To Wind Up Drills At Camp On Wednesday

MEADVILLE, Pa. (AP) — The University of Pittsburgh football squad will wind up its training camp Wednesday with a full-scale scrimmage.

The Panthers will return to Pittsburgh Thursday for school registration and then resume drilling in the Pitt Stadium Friday.

Pitt opened drills last Tuesday.

Bell Ordered Home By Lane To Rest Arm

CLEVELAND (AP) — Gary Bell, young Cleveland hurler who was a member of the American League All-Star squad, will not pitch any more this year because of a shoulder ailment that has plagued him since mid-season.

Then, on orders from General Manager Frank Lane, he will go to his home in San Antonio, Tex., to rest his pitching arm until spring training.

"I just don't want to run the risk of permanent injury by allowing him to pitch again this season," Lane said.

"Apparently rest is what he needs more than anything. By next spring his shoulder should be all right."

Dr. Kelly earlier had diagnosed Bell's ailment as an inflamed tendon.

Expressing disappointment, Bell said: "I suppose it's the best thing for me, but I sure hate to leave the club. It'll seem funny being home with the season still on."

Bell had to quit after pitching the first inning of the second game of a doubleheader against the Yankees in New York Saturday. He said his shoulder hurt while he was warming up, but he "decided to give it a try."

"It wasn't any use," he said. "I just couldn't throw. The way it is I'm no good to myself or the club. I can't throw hard and I can't get 'em out with the curve balls alone. I'm not that kind of pitcher."

Bell's 9-10 record this season is his worst in the majors. He joined the Indians in May 1958, and won 12 games and lost 10 as a rookie. After boosting his victory total to 16 last year while losing 11, he was looking forward to a 20-victory total this year.

He got off to a whirlwind start, winning five of his first six decisions, but by mid-season his record was 7-7. He didn't start a game between July 31 and Aug. 21, when he pitched five innings in Detroit.

Pair Uses Baby Buggy To Haul Off Their Loot

CLEVELAND (AP) — Add one more to the crime catalogue of getaway vehicles.

Police said a young man and a woman were seen wheeling a baby carriage shortly after the apartment of Virgil Wilfong, 45, was burglarized Sunday night.

Police theorized the pair used the baby buggy to haul away a portable typewriter, clock radio and a carton of cigarettes.

City Student Ends Course At Culver

C. Terry Kapp, son of Atty. and Mrs. Robert A. Kapp, 314 Grant St., has been graduated from the Summer Naval School at Culver (Ind.) Military Academy.

His parents attended the graduation exercises, at which he was awarded a diploma by the Navy Department for the completion of 3 years' study in subjects prescribed by the Bureau of Naval Personnel service honor naval school.

Kapp was appointed to the regimental staff with the rank of lieutenant junior grade. During his enrollment he accumulated 3 tuxis medals, among which was the gold tuxis, the highest award in the tuxis system.

He also received his sharpshooter's medal and 3 bars for completing the requirements of the National Rifle Association. Kapp placed first in semaphore signaling among the 9 Naval companies. He was a member of the novice crew of his company which placed second in Naval competition. He will enter his junior year at East Liverpool High School, where he is a member of the Key Club, the Hi-Y Club and Varsity Club.

10 Youths Are Seized In Trumbull Burglaries

WARREN, Ohio (AP)—The arrest of 10 youths 17 to 19 years old breaks up a Trumbull County burglary gang, sheriff's deputies say.

The 10 were released to their parents Sunday and ordered to appear in Juvenile Court on charges of breaking and entering, officers said. Two deputies who made the arrests said members of the gang had admitted breaking into 14 places during the past year and taking loot valued at $1,000.

Delay Sought In Integration

NEW ORLEANS, La. (AP)—The Orleans Parish School Board, under federal court orders to integrate public schools here next week, today made plans to seek up to one year's delay in the order.

Board President Lloyd Rittiner and three other members said they would ask a conference with U.S. Dist. Judge J. Skelly Wright this week to request the delay.

The fifth member, Emile Wagner Jr., opposed the idea. He said he would ask Gov. Jimmie Davis to close the public schools rather than accept integration Sept. 7.

Judge Wright last May ordered the board to integrate the schools, starting with first grades.

Two weeks ago, Gov. Davis took control of the schools to prevent integration.

Last Friday, a three-judge federal court heard arguments on two suits, one by Negro leaders and the other by 31 white parents, seeking to keep the state from interfering with the integration order. State Atty. Gen. Jack Gremillion was cited for contempt when he stalked out of the hearing, contending procedures approved by the judges violated his constitutional rights.

Saturday the judges issued their sweeping decision. The ruling, in effect, was that the schools must be integrated without state interference.

They decided: Gov. Jimmie Davis must not attempt to block the integration order; Davis must restore control of the schools to the school board; and that the Louisiana segregation laws involved in the case were unconstitutional.

The state laws included giving the governor authority to close all public schools to prevent integration in any one, and those giving the Legislature sole authority to classify public schools as to race.

Speculation after the court's decision included a statement that Davis would close every public school for 675,000 pupils in the state.

Midland CD Airs Emergency Needs And U.S. Alert

The Midland Civil Defense Council, meeting Friday evening in the Borough Building, discussed equipping at least seven station wagons with two litter cots each to be used in the event of an emergency.

Henry Cannon of the Cannon Funeral Home, who is Beaver County CD co-ordinator for ambulances, will be in charge of the station wagons during emergencies.

The group also discussed the nationwide CD alert to be held Dec. 7.

Some 200 have been enrolled in the new Midland unit, out of which about 40 will be selected as auxiliary police, Danny Orlando, director, said.

Some 13 still are needed as auxiliary police. They will be given arm bands and helmets as soon as supplies arrive from Harrisburg.

Other officers of the unit include James Lento, vice president, Joseph Gregor, secretary, and Joseph Feleky, treasurer.

The group will supply auxiliary police for community events such as the Presentation Catholic Church bazaar Sept. 26-28, and also to patrol areas at fires.

The next meeting will be Sept. 30.

Back-To-School Dance Scheduled By DeMolay

Harding Chapter, Order of DeMolay, will hold its second annual "Back-To-School" dance Friday from 8:30 to 11:30 p. m. in the Masonic Temple for members and guests.

Music for the "dress up" dance will be furnished by records. Job's Daughters and their dates will be guests.

The committee chairmen include Roy Grimes, decorations; Gary Mackey, refreshments; Wayne Locke, music, and Gary Hicks, publicity. Mackey is master councilor.

Harding Chapter will elect officers at its meeting Thursday night.

Powers' Parents Attempt To Resume 'Normal' Life

POUND, Va. (AP)—The parents of U2 pilot Francis Gary Powers began picking up the threads of their once tranquil lives today after a mission to Moscow that brought controversy and tears.

For ruddy-cheeked Oliver M. Powers, 55, and his frail wife, Ida, the first effort at normal living was the shoemaker's return today to his little shop in nearby Norton.

Here, Powers said, he hoped to start recouping part of the life savings he spent in the long trip to the Soviet Union, where he saw his son draw a 10-year sentence to deprivation of liberty as a convicted American spy.

Though a magazine paid transportation costs for Powers and his wife to travel to Moscow, the cobbler said he spent $1,700 of his own funds on the trip "and that's all I've got."

He said he and his friend, Sol Cury, who accompanied the Powers family to Moscow, would add up total expenses today—and "I'll probably be $200 to $300 in the hole . . ."

Powers, Mrs. Powers and Cury arrived here late Sunday afternoon. It was a quiet homecoming —no crowds, no noise, few well-wishers.

Powers was greeted by reporters with news that a Soviet magazine, Ogonyok, had claimed that his pilot son was money-mad and that the Powers clan had exploited the pilot's troubles to make money.

It made him good and mad. "It's propaganda," he said. "They in Russia are as much for the American dollar, or more so, than here. They want to ridicule the United States. Soviets will do all in the world to throw slurs."

As for his son, Powers said, "money is the least of his worries. All he wants is to come home."

He said Life magazine paid $2,510 for the round-trip fares of himself and his wife to Moscow. But, he said, he had not agreed to provide the magazine an account of his impressions at the spy trial.

"That's up to them. We have no contract," Powers said.

Spokesmen for Life declined to comment.

The Soviet magazine also charged that Barbara Powers, wife of the convicted U2 pilot, sold letters from her husband to Newsweek magazine "for a big sum".

A spokesman for Mrs. Powers, who is in Paris, denied this.

10 Youths Are Seized In Trumbull Burglaries

WARREN, Ohio (AP)—The arrest of 10 youths 17 to 19 years old breaks up a Trumbull County burglary gang, sheriff's deputies say.

The 10 were released to their parents Sunday and ordered to appear in Juvenile Court on charges of breaking and entering, officers said. Two deputies who made the arrests said members of the gang had admitted breaking into 14 places during the past year and taking loot valued at $1,000.

Delay Sought In Integration

NEW ORLEANS, La. (AP)—The Orleans Parish School Board, under federal court orders to integrate public schools here next week, today made plans to seek up to one year's delay in the order.

Board President Lloyd Rittiner and three other members said they would ask a conference with U.S. Dist. Judge J. Skelly Wright this week to request the delay.

The fifth member, Emile Wagner Jr., opposed the idea. He said he would ask Gov. Jimmie Davis to close the public schools rather than accept integration Sept. 7.

Judge Wright last May ordered the board to integrate the schools, starting with first grades.

Two weeks ago, Gov. Davis took control of the schools to prevent integration.

Last Friday, a three-judge federal court heard arguments on two suits, one by Negro leaders and the other by 21 white parents, seeking to keep the state from interfering with the integration order. State Atty. Gen. Jack Gremillion was cited for contempt when he stalked out of the hearing, contending procedures approved by the judges violated his constitutional rights.

Saturday the judges issued their sweeping decision. The ruling, in effect, was that the schools must be integrated without state interference.

They decided: Gov. Jimmie Davis must not attempt to block the integration order; Davis must restore control of the schools to the school board; and that the Louisiana segregation laws involved in the case were unconstitutional.

The state laws included giving the governor authority to close all public schools to prevent integration in any one, and those giving the Legislature sole authority to classify public schools as to race.

Speculation after the court's decision included a statement that Davis would close every public school for 670,000 pupils in the state.

Midland CD Airs Emergency Needs And U.S. Alert

The Midland Civil Defense Council, meeting Friday evening in the Borough Building, discussed equipping at least seven station wagons with two litter cots each to be used in the event of an emergency.

Henry Cannon of the Cannon Funeral Home, who is Beaver County CD co-ordinator for ambulances, will be in charge of the station wagons during emergencies.

The group also discussed the nationwide CD alert to be held Dec. 7.

Some 200 have been enrolled in the new Midland unit, out of which about 40 will be selected as auxiliary police, Danny Orlando, director, said.

Some 13 still are needed as auxiliary police. They will be given arm bands and helmets as soon as supplies arrive from Harrisburg.

Other officers of the unit include James Lento, vice president, Joseph Gregor, secretary, and Joseph Feleky, treasurer.

The group will supply auxiliary police for community events such as the Presentation Catholic Church bazaar Sept. 25-26, and also to patrol areas at fires.

The next meeting will be Sept. 30.

Back-To-School Dance Scheduled By DeMolay

Harding Chapter, Order of DeMolay, will hold its second annual "Back-To-School" dance Friday from 8:30 to 11:30 p. m. in the Masonic Temple for members and guests.

Music for the "dress up" dance will be furnished by records. Job's Daughters and their dates will be guests.

The committee chairmen include Roy Grimes, decorations; Gary Mackey, refreshments; Wayne Locke, music; and Gary Hicks, publicity. Mackey is master councilor.

Harding Chapter will elect officers at its meeting Thursday night.

Powers' Parents Attempt To Resume 'Normal' Life

POUND, Va. (AP)—The parents of U2 pilot Francis Gary Powers began picking up the threads of their once tranquil lives today after a mission to Moscow that brought controversy and tears.

For ruddy-cheeked Oliver M. Powers, 55, and his frail wife, Ida, the first effort at normal living was the shoemaker's return today to his little shop in nearby Norton.

Here, Powers said, he hoped to start recouping part of the life savings he spent in the long trip to the Soviet Union, where he saw his son draw a 10-year sentence to deprivation of liberty as a convicted American spy.

Though a magazine paid transportation costs for Powers and his wife to travel to Moscow, the cobbler said he spent $1,700 of his own funds on the trip "and that's all I've got."

He said he and his friend, Sol Cury, who accompanied the Powers family to Moscow, would add up total expenses today—and "I'll probably be $200 to $300 in the hole . . ."

Powers, Mrs. Powers and Cury arrived here late Sunday afternoon. It was a quiet homecoming —no crowds, no noise, few well-wishers.

Powers was greeted by reporters with news that a Soviet magazine, Ogonyok, had claimed that his pilot son was money-mad and that the Powers clan had exploited the pilot's troubles to make money.

It made him good and mad. "It's propaganda," he said. "They in Russia are as much for the American dollar, or more so, than here. They want to ridicule the United States. Soviets will do all in the world to throw slurs."

As for his son, Powers said, "money is the least of his worries. All he wants is to come home."

He said Life magazine paid $2,510 for the round-trip fares of himself and his wife to Moscow. But, he said, he had not agreed to provide the magazine an account of his impressions at the spy trial.

"That's up to them. We have no contract," Powers said.

Spokesmen for Life declined to comment.

The Soviet magazine also charged that Barbara Powers, wife of the convicted U2 pilot, sold letters from her husband to Newsweek magazine "for a big sum".

A spokesman for Mrs. Powers, who is in Paris, denied this.

Boys Start Blaze

AKRON, Ohio (AP)—Fire officials say two boys playing with matches started a blaze that caused $25,000 damage Sunday to a barn at the J. S. Ried farm in Boston Heights Village.

There is no soda in "soda water." It is water charged with carbon dioxide.

Jap Architect Dies

TOKYO (AP)—Ken Inukai, 64, one of the architects of Japan's postwar government, died Sunday of complications arising from hardening of the arteries. Inukai, son of former Prime Minister Bokudo Inukai who was assassinated in 1932, helped to found the Democratic party, the progressive wing of Japan's conservatives, and was the party's first president.

BECAUSE LITTLE GIRLS GROW AND LITTLE COATS DO NOT...

. . . the little lady is trying on a NEW coat. The coat Mom bought for her last year is still good . . . but she outgrew it. And it looks like this is becoming an annual affair.

Keeping a growing girl (or boy) in clothes that fit runs into money. No need to tell Mom that! But here is something we do wont to tell Mom: hundreds of Tri-State area folks faced with the same problem are using Review want ads to help them.

Many of them are selling and buying good, used children's clothes and supplies through the want ads every day . . . while others are selling "don't need" items for Cash to buy new clothes. It's so easy to do . . . just check the house and round up some of those items you have stored and will never use . . . and don't overlook that coat the little miss outgrew from last year . . . if it still is in good condition someone is looking for it.

Place your ad now . . . while everyone is trying on new coats, getting ready for back-to-school and for the winter season ahead. You're sure to get fast results . . . and the little miss can have her new coat without a strain on your budget!

Young Mother Alerted To Reduce

"Gee, Mommy, you are so fat," was the remark that jolted one young mother into reducing to a neat 132 pounds. Her report may provide just the nspiration other young mothers need to slim down to their right weight. Her letter, which describes her fattening habits, also may serve as a warning. She wrote: "In September I gave birth to a 10-pound son, our third child. I came home from the hospital feeling that life was wonderful...a grand husband and two lovely daughters and now 'our little man' in the house. But the bottom fell out of everything when I found my oldest daughter was really unhappy because of my overweight.

By Ida Jean Kain

—:—

"I KEPT trying on clothes and found that I was even growing out of a size 18. I chalked it up to the middle spread until my daughter alerted me to what was happening.

"In January I sent for your revised Calorie Chart. I weighed in at 166 pounds for 5' 6", bust 41, waist 34, hips 41. I have lived by the chart. For the first 10 days I didn't lose an ounce. But I remembered your saying that the body sometimes holds water at first...and stayed with the diet.

"That chart certainly showed me how much I'd been eating! In the morning I used to eat buttered toast and drink coffee, with cream and sugar, until the pot was empty. At lunch I always finished with a generous slice of cake. At dinner I ate a full meal. At TV time each night I had two or three glasses of chocolate milk, with cake or cheese and crackers. During the night, waiting for junior's bottle to heat, I'd grab cookies or crackers...like an addict.

"LUNCH IS a lean-meat sandwich with a pickle, tea and fruit. If fruit is canned in heavy syrup, I eat it with a fork to avoid the syrup.

"Dinner: Glass of tomato juice, salad with vinegar and seasoning, two chops, a green vegetable with lemon juice, tea with non-nutritive sweetener and milk, and a light dessert, such as jello. Every day I vary the menu, but stay within the slimming pattern. It's surprising what a variation your chart allows.

"I now weigh 132 pounds and wear size 14 dress. My measurements are bust 34, waist 28, hips 35. I feel wonderful, and for the first time in years I even wear shorts. I've been tempted many times to write to you, but I thought you might think me vain."

Vain? I think you are wonderful!

Bringing Up A Family

By GARRY C. MEYERS

Nap-Time Important For Preschooler

Until he is old enough to attend school, the tot should continue taking his afternoon nap. Yet it seems that relatively few tots have the nap until then.

Garry C. Meyers

Finding it difficult to enforce the nap, the mother inclines to let it discontinue, sometimes as early as the child's second, third or fourth year. She kids herself into believing that a period when he plays quietly can be a fit substitute; and in this she has often got approval from what she has read or heard on the matter, sometimes even from her pediatrician. Certainly most monthers have not felt continuance of the afternoon nap until the child is five or six imperative. With such belief they get peace of mind for not mustering enough energy and skull to keep the nap going.

BUT THE CHILD, three, four or five, can be trained to take an afternoon nap if the mother is firm and consistent.

Suppose your youngster, at four, three or even two, begins to resist the nap.

Be home at nap-time to supervise him until he follows the nap well. Set a regular time or sequence for his nap, prefereably right after his lunch. Since there's no darkness then, fear can hardly be a problem.

As you tuck him in, tell him just once not to get up in bed until you call for him or the clock rings.

If he inclines to get up, station yourself where you can see part of him but he cannot see you. The moment he rises, go to him, bare a thigh and smack it and push him down. Tuck him in again and take your position as before. If he risees again, do as before.

—:—

USE ONLY YOUR hand and not your tongue.

Repeat this performance as often as necessary. Jay nothing about sleep.

If he's still awake when the clock rings, let him get up.

It may take three or four afternoons to settle this matter permanently, but consider the gains for him and you therefrom.

Your aim is to train him to stay in a horizontal position. Once he learns to do so, he will almost surely fall asleep rather quickly after being tucked in.

I know this can be made to work. I have seen it work. Scores of mothers have written to say it works.

Nap-time is a good time to train him to stay down in bed if he has been getting up after being tucked in at night.

—:—

THERE'S NO SENSE in spanking your youngster after he has been out of bed for some while or has come to where you are. This is too late to have the desired effect. The strategic time for him to get pain is the moment he rises in bed to a sitting or standing position.

My bulletin, "Sleep Problems: Their Prevention and Solution" may be had by sending a self-addressed, stamped envelope to me in care of this newspaper.

Keep In Trim

By IDA JEAN KAIN

Young Mother Alerted To Reduce

"Gee, Mommy, you are so fat," was the remark that jolted one young mother into reducing to a neat 132 pounds. Her report may provide just the inspiration other young mothers need to slim down to their right weight. Her letter, which describes her fattening habits, also may serve as a warning. She wrote: "In September I gave birth to a 10-pound son, our third child. I came home from the hospital feeling that life was wonderful...a grand husband and two lovely daughters and now 'our little man' in the house. But the bottom fell out of everything when I found my oldest daughter was really unhappy because of my overweight.

By Ida Jean Kain

"I KEPT trying on clothes and found that I was even growing out of a size 18. I chalked it up to the middle spread until my daughter alerted me to what was happening.

"In January I sent for your revised Calorie Chart. I weighed in at 166 pounds for 5' 6", bust 41, waist 34, hips 41. I have lived by the chart. For the first 10 days I didn't lose an ounce. But I remembered your saying that the body sometimes holds water at first...and stayed with the diet.

"That chart certainly showed me how much I'd been eating! In the morning I used to eat buttered toast and drink coffee, with cream and sugar, until the pot was empty. At lunch I always finished with a generous slice of cake. At dinner I ate a full meal. At TV time each night I had two or three glasses of chocolate milk, with cake or cheese and crackers. During the night, waiting for junior's bottle to heat, I'd grab cookies or crackers...like an addict.

"Now breakfast consists of 6 ounces of juice, 1 egg with one-half pat butter, whole wheat toast with half pat butter and a spoon of apple butter, coffee with non-nutritive sweetener and milk.

"LUNCH IS a lean-meat sandwich with a pickle, tea and fruit. If fruit is canned in heavy syrup, I eat it with a fork to avoid the syrup.

"Dinner: Glass of tomato juice, salad with vinegar and seasoning, two chops, a green vegetable with lemon juice, tea with non-nutritive sweetener and milk, and a light dessert, such as jello. Every day I vary the menu, but stay within the slimming pattern. It's surprising what a variation your chart allows.

"I now weigh 132 pounds and wear size 14 dress. My measurements are bust 34, waist 28, hips 35. I feel wonderful, and for the first time in years I even wear shorts. I've been tempted many times to write to you, but I thought you might think me vain."

Vain? I think you are wonderful!

Bringing Up A Family

By GARRY C. MEYERS

Nap-Time Important For Preschooler

Until he is old enough to attend school, the tot should continue taking his afternoon nap. Yet it seems that relatively few tots have the nap until then.

Garry C. Meyers

Finding it difficult to enforce the nap, the mother inclines to let it discontinue, sometimes as early as the child's second, third or fourth year. She kids herself into believing that a period when he plays quietly can be a fit substitute; and in this she has often got approval from what she has read or heard on the matter, sometimes even from her pediatrician. Certainly most monthers have not felt continuance of the afternoon nap until the child is five or six imperative. With such belief they get peace of mind for not mustering enough energy and skull to keep the nap going.

BUT THE CHILD, three, four or five, can be trained to take an afternoon nap if the mother is firm and consistent.

Suppose your youngster, at four, three or even two, begins to resist the nap.

Be home at nap-time to supervise him until he follows the nap well. Set a regular time or sequence for his nap, preferably right after his lunch. Since there's no darkness then, fear can hardly be a problem.

As you tuck him in, tell him just once not to get up in bed until you call for him or the clock rings.

If he inclines to get up, station yourself where you can see part of him but he cannot see you. The moment he rises, go to him, bare a thigh and smack it and push him down. Tuck him in again and take your position as before. If he risees again, do as before.

—:—

USE ONLY YOUR hand and not your tongue.

Repeat this performance as often as necessary. Say nothing about sleep.

If he's still awake when the clock rings, let him get up.

It may take three or four afternoons to settle this matter permanently, but consider the gains for him and you therefrom.

Your aim is to train him to stay in a horizontal position. Once he learns to do so, he will almost surely fall asleep rather quickly after being tucked in.

I know this can be made to work. I have seen it work. Scores of mothers have written to say it works.

Nap-time is a good time to train him to stay down in bed if he has been getting up after being tucked in at night.

—:—

THERE'S NO SENSE in spanking your youngster after he has been out of bed for some while or has come to where you are. This is too late to have the desired effect. The strategic time for him to get pain is the moment he rises in bed to a sitting or standing position.

My bulletin, "Sleep Problems: Their Prevention and Solution" may be had by sending a self-addressed, stamped envelope to me in care of this newspaper.

3 Cuyahoga Democrats To Meet With Kennedy

CLEVELAND (AP)—Three top officials of the Cuyahoga County Democratic organization are to meet today with Sen. John F. Kennedy in Washington. They are Dan W. Duffy, vice chairman; Ben C. Green, treasurer; and Tom L. Terrell, secretary. Party chairman Ray T. Miller is vacationing in Europe.

Plans for the Democratic presidential nominee Kennedy's appearance at the Democratic steer roast in Euclid Beach Park Sept. 25 will be discussed.

ANNOUNCEMENTS

2 IN MEMORIAM

IN loving memory of Charles A. Geer who died August 28, 1955
Someone may think we have forgotten, when someone sees us smile
But they little know of the tears, that are hidden all the while.
His life is a beautiful memory, his absence a silent grief.
He sleeps in God's beautiful garden, in sunshine of perfect peace.
Sadly missed by
Wife, Children and Grandchildren

3 CARD OF THANKS

WE wish to express our heartfelt thanks and appreciation for the many kindnesses extended to us during our recent bereavement of Nettie Langenheime. Special thanks to the Wells Broadway neighbors, Mr. & Mrs. Oliver W. Fullmer, Mrs. Roxi Shinkel, John D. Fullmer.

Ann Landers

ANSWERS YOUR PROBLEMS

Dear Ann Landers: This problem is not the kind you take to a clergyman. I've considered going to a psychiatrist but I'm afraid he'd declare me insane instead of my husband.

To put it bluntly, I'm married to a man who drowns everything in catsup and it's making me a nervous wreck.

I don't mean just a blob here and there, Ann, I mean about a quarter of a bottle on everything. Not only does he like catsup on steaks and chops but he dunks his French fries and bread in it, smears it on mashed potatoes, scrambled eggs and even vegetables.

Once a friend dared him to put catsup in his martini. I hoped it would make him sick as a dog and get him off catsup for life but it didn't. He said it was delicious and drank three. Now he's the life of the party with this stunt.

I phoned our family doctor and he said Karl is in excellent health and catsup won't hurt him.

What do you suggest?—UPPA TREE.

Dear Uppa: Buy three bottles at a time and stop nagging him.

The real cause for your irritation is rooted elsewhere. When you resolve your major differences, the catsup won't bother you and Karl won't feel the need to show off at parties like a 4-year-old in order to get attention.

The Woman Pays

Dear Ann: I'm 16 and my steady is 17. Tim and I have geen going together for six months and we are in love.

A few weeks ago I was almost out of my mind with worry. I thought I was in trouble if you know what I man. I told Tim and he panicked. He always said we'd get married if we had to but he sure didn't act like he was ready to keep his word.

Like a big dummy Tim told his parents. The very next day I found out I wasn't pregnant.

Now Tim says he can't go with me any more because his folks warned him they'd throw him out of the house if he did.

Is this fair after I proved my love and suffered all that heartache?—CAST ASIDE.

Dear Cast: You proved nothing except that you're a very foolish girl. Tim proved a few things, too—mainly, that he's interested in his own pleasure and if, in the process, you happen to wind up with a ruined life, it's your tough luck.

I don't blame his folks for declaring you out of bounds. No parents in their right minds want to see their 17-year-old son married with a gun in his ribs.

The fact that he would be partly to blame doesn't interest them. You're strictly bad news.

Good Looker

Dear Ann: My husband is a man in his middle 60s. We have married daughters and seven lovely grandchildren.

I'm ashamed to write this letter but you don't know me and I don't know you, which makes it easier.

The woman next door is about 45. She's a grandmother, too, but she gets herself up like a teenager. She's always out in the yard pulling weeds or trimming the hedges (any excuse), wearing shorts and a halter top.

Whenever my old man sees her he rushes out, starts puttering in our yard and makes conversation with her.

What should I do?—BATTLE AX.

Dear B. A.: Nothing. When he stops looking at her he'll probably stop looking at you, too.

Ann Landers will be glad to help you with your problems. Send them to her in care of The Review, enclosing a stamped, self-addressed envelope.

Fireside Thieves

HAMDEN, Conn. (AP) — Hamden police are looking for a fireplace. It was reported stolen from a neighborhood yard sometime between midnight and 7:30 a. m. No one heard the thieves move the 600-pound fireplace nor the several deck chairs also reported missing.

The western most point of the United States is not in the new state of Hawaii, but in Alaska: Attu Island.

ANSWERS YOUR PROBLEMS

Dear Ann Landers: This problem is not the kind you take to a clergyman. I've considered going to a psychiatrist but I'm afraid he'd declare me insane instead of my husband.

To put it bluntly, I'm married to a man who drowns everything in catsup and it's making me a nervous wreck.

I don't mean just a blob here and there, Ann, I mean about a quarter of a bottle on everything. Not only does he like catsup on steaks and chops but he dunks his French fries and bread in it, smears it on mashed potatoes, scrambled eggs and even vegetables.

Once a friend dared him to put catsup in his martini. I hoped it would make him sick as a dog and get him off catsup for life but it didn't. He said it was delicious and drank three. Now he's the life of the party with this stunt.

I phoned our family doctor and he said Karl is in excellent health and catsup won't hurt him.

What do you suggest?—UPPA TREE.
